REVENUE.

Proceedings of the Dewan to His Highness the Maha Raja of Mysore, (Revenue),—dated 5th January 1882.

READ—

Docket No. 717 of the——December 1881, from the Deputy Commissioner of Bangalore submitting for orders a memo from the Muzrayi Officer with Deputy Commissioner's remarks thereon in connection with the Inam lands attached to the Rasúlsha Darga in the Hoskote Taluk.

No. 7704-12—234, DATED 5TH JANUARY 1882.

ORDER THEREON.—The orders contained in the Notification of 1877 in regard to the treatment of alienated service inam lands cannot be indiscriminately given effect to for the benefit of the inamdars who are themselves the chief offenders in the matter. Whilst it is important to prevent the alienation of inams granted for public services of a religious or charitable nature, it is necessary that the families of the persons who are guilty of having made the alienation should be removed from their offices and connection with the institution for which the inams are granted. Where the purchasers or the mortgagees have obtained the inams through ignorance for a valuable consideration, it will be proper to compel the inamdars who alienated the inams, or the new nominees to the offices, or the communities interested in the institution, to make good to the alienees the consideration actually paid by them and any further compensation which may be considered proper, before the inam is restored to them. If they do not consent, or are not able to pay the compensation, and the institution is not of such a general public character as to require the intervention of Government for its protection as in the case under notice, the proper course to pursue would be to resume and bring under full assessment the lands alienated.

2. Before passing final orders on the case under notice, the Deputy Commissioner is requested to submit fuller information in regard to the nature of the Makan, the value of inam lands and other Government or other endowments enjoyed by it, the circumstances connected with the alienation and the inamdars who made it, the wishes of the persons or communities interested in the institution, and the arrangement proposed for giving effect to the above orders on the case.

Proceedings of the Dewan to His Highness the Maha Raja of Mysore, (Revenue),—dated 5th January 1882.

From the Superintendent, Mysore Revenue Survey, To the Secretary to the Dewan of Mysore, No 779, dated Bangalore, 26th December 1881.

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter No. 7547—93 of the 23rd instant, with a copy of the Proceedings of the Dewan, dated 7th October 1881, calling for a report upon the advisability of substituting stone posts for the mud bándhs now in use in demarcating wet lands, and also upon the other points connected with the Survey Department discussed in the said Proceedings.

2. In discussing the relative merits of earth and stone as a boundary mark it is necessary to bear in mind that each survey number is measured independently, on its own lines so to speak, and on two or more fixed points. If these fixed points which are generally the corners of fields, be lost, a re-survey of the number in the case of dispute or fraud, could not be carried out. Stones can be easily removed and no trace left of the spot where they were fixed, a disadvantage which the earthen mound is free from and consequently, notwithstanding the anxiety of officers, not only of the Revenue Department but of the Survey Department itself, to simplify the mode, and reduce the cost of demarcation, it has never been considered safe to dispense with the bándh or earthen mound, at the corners of numbers. If stone be substituted for bándhs at the corners of survey numbers, the stone would have to be of a size and description costing very much more than the present bándh although taking up less room The difficulty of obtaining stones, of even the small size used for bends on the boundaries of numbers, in many parts of Mysore, where our operations have been in progress, has been very great ; whereas the earthen mound presents the sole difficulty of obtaining labor to erect it, although there is no doubt in some instances at some inconvenience and loss to the ryot.

3. In the case of very small fields under an acre in extent I have for some years past had only one bándh erected at the spot where two, three, or more survey numbers met instead of the full number required by the Rules. The extension of the same rule to all wet numbers would reduce the total number of bándhs to probably one-third of what it is at present. I must confess that it is not a step that I can view without some apprehension, but if the urgency of the case as represented by the ryots is considered by the Dewan to justify the experiment, I will issue the necessary orders.

4. The alternative, as I have already stated, is to have stones at the corners of such size that their removal would be quite impossible. The stones at the bends of the boundaries of numbers will remain as at present.

5. I have replied at once to the enquiry contained in your letter on this particular point as it seems urgent ; on the other points discussed in the Proceedings I trust to report very shortly.

No. 7734-42—236, DATED 5TH JANUARY 1882.

ORDER THEREON.—The Dewan concurs in the views expressed by the Survey Superintendent in the above letter and leaves it to him to carry out the measures of relief to the ryots in the matter of bándhs referred to in para 3 in such manner and under such restrictions as he may consider proper.

2. It is important that the bándhs at the corners of numbers should not be easily removable, and where ryots in the case of valuable wet and garden lands object to earth bándhs as taking up too much space and interfering with the cultivation of the fields, they may be allowed the option of putting up instead, bándhs of masonry or of stones of such large dimensions and so deeply planted in the ground as not to be easily removable. It would be also necessary that in each village or locality a uniform system of bándhs should be followed so that, where, as in the case of the Cauvery lands, the ryots and the Revenue authorities concerned give preference to bándhs of masonry or of large stones, the same should be enforced throughout the locality. The Survey Superintendent is requested to issue the necessary instructions on the subject.

READ—

Docket No. 496 of the 23rd December 1881 from the Deputy Commissioner of Kadur, forwarding for orders a letter from Mr. Alston, Manager of the Chandrapur Estate, on the subject of land tenure and mining rights.

No. 7713-21—235, DATED BANGALORE, 5TH JANUARY 1882.

ORDER THEREON.—The Deputy Commissioner is requested to communicate the following decision to Mr. Alston, Manager of the Chandrapur Estate, in reply to his letter of the 15th December.

2. Coffee lands assessed at Rs. 1-8-0 per acre can alone be held on permanent assessment though this does not preclude the levy of only half the permanent assessment for five years on the portions of the estate not yet brought under cultivation as appears to have been arranged for by the Deputy Commissioner. The permanent assessment conveys mining rights to the proprietors subject to payment of the royalty.

3. Grass land situated within the estate can be held in clearly defined compact blocks on an assessment of 4 annas per acre for pasture only. Such lands will not be entitled to the terms of a permanent settlement and if brought under cultivation will be liable to increased assessment.

READ—

Letter No. 718 of the 30th December 1881 from the Deputy Commissioner of Bangalore forwarding a memorandum drawn up by the Amildar of Dodballapur and Syed Nasruddin, stating the particulars of a suit instituted by one Bommanahalli Naranappa against the Amildar and the Deputy Commissioner, regarding certain ulami lands below Hanibe tank.

No. 7959—38, DATED BANGALORE, 10TH JANUARY 1882.

ORDER THEREON.—It is not clear from the above what the Deputy Commissioner proposes to do in the case. If the suit is not to be defended, the Amildar and the Deputy Commissioner may not escape the responsibility for having placed the present occupants in possession of the lands. The plaintiff in the suit had hardly entered on the possession of the land and could therefore have little claim for damages, whereas the present occupants have been a whole year in possession and the deprival of their lands is therefore more likely to entail hardship on them.

2. The proceedings of both the Assistant Commissioner Mr. Syed Nasruddin as well as of the Amildar Sitaramaiya in this case are unsatisfactory. From the Amildar's report the lands appear to have been under batayi cultivation at the time of the survey settlement. It was under the circumstances the duty of the Settelment officer, when other parties applied for the same, to have consulted the wishes of the batayi cultivators who had a preferential claim to the lands. Mr. Syed Nasruddin seems to think that the batayi cultivators not having taken up the lands during the settlement, they forfeited their right to them. The Amildar represents that the ryots did verbally apply for the lands at the close of the settlement and were referred by the Assistant Commissioner to the taluk authorities. The Assistant Commissioner denies this, stating that though he directed some ryots to apply for lands to the taluk he certainly did not do so in this case. It was in any case irregular on his part after the formal conclusion of the settlement to have given the lands to other applicants without any reference to the taluk authorities or the villagers concerned, and the Deputy Commissioner was perfectly justified in cancelling his proceedings and giving the lands to the batayi cultivators who were the temporary occupants for the time being.

3. On the other hand it is not explained why the Amildar did not earlier bring the matter to notice. Mr. Syed Nasruddin appears to have granted some of the darkhasts on the 10th March and the Taluk Sheristadar some more on the 28th, also without reference to the ryots or village authorities. The ulami ryots complained against these proceedings only on the 21st May 1881 and the Amildar reported on the same on the 26th idem. The delay on the part of the ryots in making their complaint may however be due to the proceedings of the Assistant Commissioner and Taluk Sheristadar not being earlier known in the village, as the darkhastdars do not appear to have entered on actual possession before the complaint was made. The Taluk Sheristadar who is stated to have granted the darkhast the same day it was made to him also appears to have held a sale of the trees standing on the lands. It is not explained whether the sale was held in the village or whether the circumstance of the darkhast was in any other way made known to the villagers before it was complied with. The Sheristadar's conduct in the matter appears to be open to censure.

4. Under the above circumstances the Deputy Commissioner is requested, if he is satisfied that the lands were under batayi cultivation at the time of the settlement, to take the necessary steps at once for defending the suit applying if necessary for an extension of time. The Survey Act I of 1865 is of course not applicable to this case. It is a case of a darkhast irregularly granted and therefore cancelled by the Deputy Commissioner in favor of the actual occupants of the land. If any damages and costs are awarded to the plaintiff the same will have to be made good by the Taluk Sheristadar who granted the darkhast.

5. It is noted from the Amildar's memorandum that whilst the lands were on his recommendation granted by the Deputy Commissioner, to the ulamdars or batayi cultivators they were registered by the Amildar in the name of one Nanjegauda with the consent of all the ulamdars. It is presumed that the consent was voluntary and not otherwise open to question.

To—The Deputy Commissioner, Bangalore District, returning original enclosure.

Proceedings of the Dewan to His Highness the Maha Raja of Mysore, (Revenue),—dated 10th January 1882.

From the Deputy Commissioner, Hassan District, To the Secretary to the Dewan of Mysore, Revenue Department, No. 2693—794, dated 31st December 1881.

I have the honor to forward herewith copy of letter No. B. 3, dated the 21st instant, with enclosures from Mr. Chelviengar, General Assistant Commissioner in charge of the Jamabandi settlement of the Chanrayapatna Taluk, and to state that it is true that the crops partially failed in parts of all the taluks of this District, and the cry for remission is very urgent and loud. The enclosed report from the Amildar of Arkalgúd shows that the people there are laboring under false hopes of obtaining remission, if they persist in not paying their kandayam, and base their idea upon the orders of the Dewan recently issued sanctioning half remissions in the case of those lands which lie fallow under tanks. Both by endorsement and personally. I have tried to disabuse the minds of the people of such wrong impression and am going to the Arkalgúd Taluk immediately.

2. Regarding the recommendation made by the General Assistant Commissioner, I am not prepared to support it, as the failure is but partial, and the order of the Dewan No. 7162-9—219 of the 7th December 1881 leaves it within my discretion to submit any hard cases for special orders. But I am of humble opinion that I should be permitted to extend the khists generally in all the necessary cases. I would not put it off for one or two years as was done during the last famine; but in the case of those villages which have suffered most from failure of crops this year, I would respectfully suggest that the monthly khists may be extended from 4 to 8 and that each khist be not more than 2 annas in a rupee. Such an indulgence will mitigate the pressure of meeting the Government demand and will carry us tided within the next rains. Should this suggestion be approved of, a list of such villages will be forwarded for the Dewan's information as soon as the settlement is finished.

From the General Assistant Commissioner, Hassan District, To the Deputy Commissioner, Hassan District, No. B. 3, dated Bagur, 21st December 1881.

I have the honor to forward for your perusal petitions presented by the ryots of the villages noted in the margin complaining of the failure of the dry crops for want of rain, and praying for relief in the remission of kandayam. Though I am aware of the orders of the Government that no concession is to be given for the current year, yet, being on the spot settling the jamabandi, I felt it my duty to receive them in order to find out after personal inspection of some of fields whether the ryots have a real grievance, I did so lately on my way to this place from Chanrayapatna.

1 Morwanahalli
1 Dyavenahalli.
1 Byalkere.
1 Chikkayakanahalli.
1 Kuruvanda
1 Harnahalli.

2. In almost all the villages referred to above and in part of Bagur and Dyavenahalli the crops have failed; they have either withered away when very young or the full development of the grain was stopped owing to the sparseness of the late rains.

3. It were well that the rains did not come in at all this year; for then the ryots could have saved their seed grains and successfully petitioned the Government for remission of kandayam, now they lost one and are not sure of getting the other.

4. It may be argued that last year having been an unusually favorable one the ryots must have derived such a harvest as to enable them to store up some thing against a bad season.

5. From what I have seen of the people I think there are very few such cases and majority of the ryots are living from hand to mouth and your own knowledge of their condition gathered during your tour through this taluk when famine threatened the country might enable you to determine how far I am correct.

6. I consulted with the Amildar and he concurs with me in all the above points. We are jointly of opinion that a third or half of the kandayam should be remitted to the ryots of these villages and also to others which may on inspection be found to be similarly situated. Should you approve of the same I beg you will be so good as to recommend some measures of relief and obtain sanction of the Dewan to the same.

No. 7951-8—244, dated 10th January 1882.

Order thereon.—In the above the Deputy Commissioner recommends the extension of the khists from four to eight in the villages of the Chanrayapatna Taluk in which the dry crops have more or less failed. It is not clear how this could afford relief to the ryots as the last khist under this arrangement would come down on the ryots at a time when they will have no crops to meet them with. The Deputy Commissioner and his Assistants settling the taluks may in cases of hardship postpone a moiety or other portion of the assessment for collection with the khists of the ensuing year. This concession should only be allowed in real cases of hardship resulting from the failure of crops, and it is hoped it may meet the distress in the few taluks of Hassan, Tumkúr and Kadur Districts in which the rains have failed during the year.

2. Whilst it is most important that hardships amongst ryots should receive every consideration that can be shown without deviating from the established rules of the revenue settlement, it is necessary to warn the Amldars or other superior Revenue officers against raising in the minds of the ryots false expectation of their obtaining remissions. The remark of the Assistant Commissioner that it would have been better if the rains did not come at all as the ryots could have saved their seed grains and claimed remission of assessment appears to have been made without consideration, as no remissions have been authorized in any case in respect of dry lands. On wet lands it is believed that the cases of entire failure of crops would be comparatively few. The Proceedings No. 7162-9—219, dated the 7th December last, clearly lays down the course to be pursued regarding them.

FINANCIAL.

Proceedings of the Dewan to His Highness the Maha Raja of Mysore, (Financial),—dated 6th January 1882.

No. 7771-2—369, DATED 6TH JANUARY 1882.

ORDER.—It has been for some time under consideration to recognize, by the grant of a bonus, the good work done by Mr. McDonnell, Head Supervisor of the Government Distillery at Bangalore, and his establishments in securing a large increase in the arrack revenue of the Nundydroog Division as brought to notice by the Deputy Commissioner, Bangalore. The sales in this Division which were below the guaranteed amount in 1878—79 exceeded the guarantee by Rs. 67,000 in 1879—80 and by Rs. 1,09,000 in 1880—81. This result reflects credit on the vigilant supervision exercised by Mr. McDonnell. He is under the circumstances awarded a bonus equal to his 6 months' pay or Rs. 720. A bonus of 3 months' pay is also sanctioned to the subordinate establishments who worked under him during 1880—81 inclusive of the Testers employed at Tumkúr and Kolar. The Deputy Commissioner of Bangalore is requested to furnish an individual list of the persons who will receive the bonus under these orders giving their pay and the amount of the bonus they will be entitled to Any subordinates however who, during the above year or subsequently, have been guilty of misconduct, will not be entitled to the bonus.

PART I.

REVENUE.

Proceedings of the Dewan to His Highness the Maha Raja of Mysore, (Revenue),—dated 24th February 1882.

From the Superintendent, Mysore Revenue Survey, To the Secretary to the Dewan to His Highness the Maha Raja of Mysore, No. 45, dated Bangalore, 21st January 1882.

I have the honor to forward letter* No. 934 of the 7th December 1881 from the Deputy Superintendent, Mysore Revenue Survey, containing proposals for the revision of the assessment in the entire Manjarabad Taluk of the Hassan District, together with correspondence which has passed between the Deputy Commissioner and myself regarding the suitability of the proposed rates.

Hassan District Deputy Commissioner's letter No. 2319—G 86, dated 25th November 1881.
Survey Superintendent's letter No. 732 of the 13th December 1881
Deputy Commissioner's letter No. 2717—1009, dated 4th instant.

2. The proposed revision of assessment has been fully discussed by Major Rutherfurd and myself in the first instance and is now concurred in by the Deputy Commissioner.

3. It is needless therefore for me to go over again what has been so fully set forth in detail by the Deputy Superintendent and again summed up by me in my letter No. 732 of the 13th December last to the address of the Deputy Commissioner. But it is necessary that I should discuss for the information of Government, a proposal, involving serious results and points of practice, made by the Deputy Commissioner to mitigate the effect of the sudden increase which he anticipates must, as a result of the settlement, fall upon many individual land-holders, although he considers the net increase, on the whole taluk, perfectly fair and moderate.

4. The Deputy Commissioner details and illustrates his plan of arranging for a gradual imposition of the full survey assessment at para 5 of his letter. By his plan, under which wet and dry lands are to be differently dealt with, all occupants of wet land whose assessment may happen to be raised by the survey only, or within, 21 per cent, the average increase for the whole taluk on wet lands, would pay that assessment in the year in which the settlement took effect and for future years; but if the action of the settlement should be to raise the old assessment more than 21 per cent, then the old assessment and 21 per cent additional would be imposed in the first year; then an additional 21 per cent in the second year and so on till the full survey assessment was reached. In dry land the same principle, but by different steps, would be followed.

5. In the early years of the survey settlement in Mysore in 1865 and one or two later years there was in force a plan of refunding to the ryots, for the year in which the survey settlement took effect, any sums they had paid over and above the survey assessment, while at the same time all whose assessment had been reduced got the benefit of the difference. Of course, in the taluks alluded to, the survey settlement took effect during the current year when a part, and often the whole, of the revenue instalment had been paid up, in short the settlement took retrospective effect. When, by the orders of the Officiating Commissioner of Mysore, letter No. G. 1509—R. 18, dated 14th June 1867, the system of refunds was abolished as being no longer necessary, the settlements were arranged to take effect in the year following that in which the rates were announced Under the refund system the survey year was undoubtedly, so to speak, a year of considerable concessions and the system had the support of many officers of great experience because they believed that the refunds infused new agricultural life and energy and were a pledge of good faith and liberal intentions on the part of Government. Under Mr. Krishna Múrti's plan it will not escape notice that those ryots who have hitherto been paying little or no assessment would be the chief gainers, while those who have been paying highly would gain no special advantages but only such as are inherent in the new settlement. The refund system aimed at almost exactly opposite results, those who had been paying very highly being the more immediate gainers.

6. What would be the actual loss of revenue if the Deputy Commissioner's plan were adopted I can only roughly guess at, but as a rule where very great inequalities pervade the assessment they are generally found to cut both ways, when equalized, and it stands to reason, in the present case, that if the whole taluk is only increased 26 per cent the extraordinary instances of increase shown in the Deputy Commissioner's appendix must be counterbalanced by a great number of reductions below the old assessment or within 26 per cent increase. In over 60 villages the action of the settlement is to reduce the assessment and of course, as we descend to individual holdings and, still lower, to survey fields, the instances of reduction increase. The gain to Government will, in the first year, be represented by all holdings which are increased 26 per cent or more; but there will be, I have no doubt, many holdings actually reduced by the settlement and many more where the increase falls short of 26 per cent. There are a vast number of instances of increase over 26 per cent and of course all assessment over that percentage would represent a loss, for the first and, in some cases, several future years. I do not think the net results of the settlement for the first year, under Mr. Krishna Múrti's plan, would be lower than the collections of 1881, but that is all I can say. I expect little from the anticipated absence of resignations under the plan. I will endeavour to divest the Deputy Commissioner's plan of one or two complications and then make a few remarks regarding the necessity of adopting it at all.

Proceedings of the Dewan to His Highness the Maha Raja of Mysore, (Revenue),—dated 24th February 1882.

7. In the first place, in working out such a plan, I would make no distinction between wet and dry. The ryot himself makes no such distinction but views his holding collectively. The ryots holding as it appeared in the "Vasul Baki" would of course be dealt with to calculate remissions till the full survey assessment should be reached. Land taken up freshly at the settlement or land transferred to him from another he would have to pay full assessment for.

8. I am most unwilling to oppose the Deputy Commissioner's proposals because I fully appreciate his motives which are very nearly the same as those which led to the adoption of the refund system, of which I have always been an advocate, and which, I must confess, I prefer to the plan now proposed by the Deputy Commissioner; but we have the fact that the Mysore Government deliberately put a stop to refunds and that no taluk in Mysore, and many of them required relief much more than Manjarabad, has had any concession such as that now advocated.

9. It is too early to make any estimate regarding the results of the coffee settlement to be carried out under the rules published in the Proceedings of the Government of Mysore, No. 3662-70—R. 98, dated 2nd August 1881. The receipts from "Halat" or excise duty on coffee have fallen off by nearly half during the last few years and I confidently anticipate very satisfactory results from the carrying into effect of the settlement of coffee lands which I hope to complete before 1st April next and which I will report upon hereafter if considered necessary.

10. The rectification of boundary, consequent upon the settlement made by the Boundary Commissioners on the side of the South Canara District, is a departmental operation which will be carried out in due course and requires no separate report.

11. The papers which accompany this letter contain full information regarding the settlement now proposed and I have nothing to add beyond requesting that as early sanction as possible may be accorded to the introduction of the new rates which I hope to commence giving out next month.

From the Officiating Deputy Superintendent, Mysore Revenue Survey, To the Superintendent, Revenue Survey and Assessment, Mysore, No 934. dated Bangalore, 7th December 1881.

I have the honor to submit the following proposals for the revision of the assessment of 416 villages of the Manjarabad Taluk of the Hassan District.

2. The taluk is divided into the following maganis or sub-divisions :—

Ancient sub-divisions.

Number.	Name of Magani.	Government Villages.	Inam Villages.	Coffee Estates.	Remarks.
1	Manjarabad	30	...	3	There are no kavals.
2	Baikere	49	...	3
3	Bellur	41	1	...
4	Hettur	49*	...	2	*1 absorbed.
5	Yesalur	53†	...	4	†5 do
6	Bisle	49‡	...	3	1 State-forest.
7	Uggihalli	49	...	4	‡1 absorbed.
8	Balu	25	7	...
9	Belgod	33	8	...
10	Muttigi	38§	4	1	§1 absorbed. §1 Village in excess.
	Total.....	416	15	20

Of the above the Balu, Belgod and Muttigi maganis were transferred from Maharajandurga in 1875.

3. The whole taluk may be considered Malnad, though that portion of it to the east of the river Hemavati is more open than that to the west. The boundary on the west is formed by the ghats, which are a magnificent range of mountains, presenting wonderful diversities of feature and startling contrasts. Rugged rocky mountains alternate with smooth grass covered hills, the ravines of which are clothed with jungle, and numerous perennial streams enhance the beauty of the landscape.

General description.

Drainage.

4. The river Hemavati enters the taluk at the north-west corner and flows in a south-easterly direction past Saklespur, the head-quarters of the taluk, and finally forms part of the southern boundary, thus draining the greater portion of the taluk east of the ghats. Its tributaries are the Somavati, Aigur and Ketehalli streams. The streams to the west of the taluk flow down the ghats to the Netravati in South Canara.

Tanks.

5. There are no tanks of any importance, but kattes, small in superficial area but frequently of considerable depth, are numerous and occasionally prove useful when the rain-fall is insufficient or the advent of the monsoon is delayed.

Forests.

6. There are no forests or kans resembling those to be met with in the north-western taluks of Mysore, but the slopes of most of the hills are more or less covered with jungle, which, in some parts, is of considerable extent, and in others is broken up into patches. Isolated "Sholas" are numerous in the ravines on the sides of the hills. There is a State-forest in the south-west corner of the taluk of an area of about 23 square miles.

Gardens.

7. The gardens are very poor compared with those in the north-western taluks. They produce bétel and cocoanuts to a limited extent, plantains in abundance and of good quality and cardamoms. The latter are indigenous and are found growing wild in the densely wooded ravines. The halat of Rs. 2 per maund realized Rs. 1,799 for the year 1880—81.

Wet crops.

8. Various kinds of rice are grown, and in the western villages of the taluk double crops are regularly raised. Sugar-cane is cultivated in small patches, but is not manufactured into jaggery.

Dry crops.

9. Dry crop cultivation is carried on pretty extensively in the maganis to the east of the river Hemavati, where the rain-fall is not so heavy. To the west of the river a few scattered patches of ragi, hutchellu and hurali are occasionally met with. The practice is to cultivate once in every 2 or 3 years, or even at longer intervals.

Coffee.

10. Coffee cultivation has spread with wonderful rapidity during the last 10 or 15 years, and has become an industry of very great importance. Thirty years ago it was scarcely known in the taluk; now the estates under European management alone comprise over 9,000 acres. The halat for the current year produced Rs. 9,219.

Roads.

11. The taluk is well supplied with roads, which are fully described in para 14 of Captain Price's report. Communication with the coast being now easy, viâ the Bhund and Bisle ghats, a considerable proportion of the produce of the taluk, especially coffee, finds its way to Mangalore.

Statistics.

12. The following statement is compiled from the returns prepared by the Classers, and the figures in this and following statements of the report refer exclusively to Government villages:—

Number of Villages.	Houses.	Population.	Square Miles.	Cattle.	Ploughs.	Carts.	Remarks.
1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8
416	9,166	41,19	*426	75,378	10,727	159	There are 11 local markets. *Inclusive of coffee estates and State-forest.

Population.

13. According to the census of 1881 there was a population of 52,585 which exceeds by more than 11,000 the total given by the Classers. The difference is probably partly due to the fact that a portion of the taluk was classed during the famine year when numbers temporarily migrated and partly due to incorrect enumeration. The number of souls to the square mile on the total area is 97, and 502 on the cultivated area. Towards the east of the taluk and in the neighbourhood of the river the population is denser than it is towards the west, where in the widely-scattered villages amongst the hills the inhabitants are represented by the Patel, his family, and a few agricultural laborers.

Proceedings of the Dewan to His Highness the Maha Raja of Mysore, (Revenue),—dated 24th February 1882.

Condition of the people and general remarks.

14. From what I saw during the time that I was in the taluk I am of opinion that the condition of the people generally is fairly prosperous. Notwithstanding the state of indebtedness said to be universal throughout the taluk, the sleek appearance of men, women and children of all classes as well as their comfortable clothing, proved that they had no difficulty in procuring food and raiment. This satisfactory state of things is no doubt partly due to their supplementing their usual earnings by working on the coffee estates when agricultural operations no longer require their attention. It will be convenient to allude here to the constitution of society prevailing in this taluk. The upper and lower classes are separated by a clearly defined line. The former are represented by the Gaudas and ryots of the Lingayat, Halevakkal, and other castes, and the latter by Holeyars and Bedars. The Gaudas, in former times, appear to have possessed considerable power, and even now their influence in their respective "Nads" and villages is very great. The Holeyars and Bedars are, to all intents and purposes, slaves, but their lot is by no means an unhappy one. The Brahman caste is conspicuous by its absence.

Past revenue management.

15. There does not appear to have ever been any regular measurement of the land, with the exception of a rough survey in 1844 of wet lands in the Belgod, Balu and Muttigi maganis, which formerly belonged to the Maharajandurga Taluk. The assessment seems to have been originally based on the Viziyanagar shist, and was fixed nominally with reference to the productiveness of the wet lands, and levied villagewar. The shares payable by individuals were settled amongst themselves, and eventually represented the assessment due on each field. Various additions and alterations were made from time to time, but practically the old individual or kulawar settlement exists at the present day.

Average rates based on survey area.

16. In the following maganiwar statement I have calculated the average rates per acre for rice and garden by applying the area ascertained by survey to the old collections. The total collections under the head of dry crop are unimportant and therefore the average rates are omitted: —

Magani.	Garden.			Rice.
	Acres by Survey.	Old Collections.	Average Rate.	Acres by Survey.	Old Collections.	Average Rate.
1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Manjarabad	48	256	5 5 4	3,108	7,811	2 8 3
Baikere	47	329	7 0 0	4,297	12,679	2 15 3
Bellur	34	225	6 9 11	3,659	9,293	2 8 8
Hettur	29	255	8 12 8	3,836	9,836	2 9 0
Yesalur	20	244	12 3 2	3,982	9,408	2 5 10
Bisle	11	194	17 10 2	2,823	5,466	1 15 0
Ugghalli	60	273	4 8 10	4,693	11,174	2 6 1
Balu	17	1	0 0 11	2,347	9,142	3 14 4
Belgod	16	11	0 11 0	2,865	11,370	3 15 6
Muttigi	15	...	...	2,464	8,675	3 8 4

A glance at the figures given above will show what striking differences exist between the rates on garden lands in the different maganis, a difference which can scarcely be attributed to the intrinsic superiority of some gardens over others. It is a singular coincidence that in the Bisle magani the lowest rice and highest garden rate is to be found. The rice rates are apparently pretty uniform, but from a statement of rates furnished by the Amildar, the most extraordinary inequalities appear to exist in the different maganis. In Yesalur the lowest rate per Krishnaraj kudu of rice land is Rs. 0—0—8, the highest Rs. 1—2—9 : in Belgod Rs. 0—2—4 and Rs. 3—8—0 and in Balu Rs. 0—3—8 and Rs. 5—6—8. The rates on dry crop were apparently fixed more with reference to the position and means of the individual than to the area or qualities of the soil. They formerly ranged from Rs. 0—1—1 to Rs. 6—6—5, but now a uniform rate of Rs. 0—4—8 per kolaga of 3,200 square yards is in force. Inequalities of assessment and nominal rates are to be expected in a country where neither accurate survey nor system of accounts existed, where supervision was practically unknown, and where the entire revenue management was in the hands of either Patels or Shanbhogs. I will give at the end of this report some examples of the inequalities of the old assessment.

Remarks on past collections and prices.

19. The permanent remissions consist of "Shara Baki," and "Aliwe Baki," or assessments permanently written off, and assessments foregone on "Shraya" lands, and of assessments on Government waste. The remissions on account of loss of crops, &c. are of rare occurrence and of small amount. For the first nine years of the period comprised in the statement of past collections the fluctuations in the realizations were not great. As usual the highest point was reached in 1866—67, when the collections were Rs. 94,033; from that year till 1874—75 they steadily declined, when a sudden rise occurred which increased year by year till 1878—79 when Rs. 99,776 were realized. As this increase in the amount collected was abnormal, being due to the resumption of 16 main villages, I have taken the collections for 1866—67 as representing the highest realizations for the 25 years. With regard to the price list I need only remark that the highest prices prevailed during the year 1866—67, the period of partial scarcity in the Province, and the famine year of 1876-77-78. There is however rather a striking difference between the prices of betel-nut per maund in the years 1879—80 and 1880—81, a difference which I can only account for on the supposition that the returns are incorrect.

Actual results of survey.

20. The actual results of survey are tabulated in the following statement —

Description.	Government.		Inam		Total Government and Inam.		Grand Total.

21. The area of waste rice and garden compared with that under occupation is small, but the area of waste dry crop almost equals that shown as occupied. So little importance is attached to dry crop cultivation, which is only taken up at intervals of 2, 3 or even 4 years in some parts of the taluk, that there is every probability of the waste area being considerably increased at the time of settlement.

Grouping of villages and maximum rates.

22. For purposes of assessment I propose dividing the villages under report into the following groups, and with the maximum rates specified opposite each:—

Groups.	Villages.	Maximum Rates on—
		Dry Crop.	Rice.	Garden.
I	106	1 0 0	7 8 0
II	32	0 12 0	6 8 0

IV	83	do	4 8 0
V	84	do	4 0 0

Proceedings of the Dewan to His Highness the Maha Raja of Mysore, (Revenue),—dated 24th February 1882.

23. The first group comprises most of the villages in the maganis east of the river: the second those situated to the north-east and on the left bank of the river. The third group is composed of villages of the Uggihalli, Manjarabad, Hettur and Yesalur maganis, in part, on the right bank of the river, and adjoining the hilly portion of the taluk on the west. The fourth group consists of a few villages in the north-west corner and in the most southern part of the taluk, and the fifth group represents the villages amongst the ghats.

24. In the above grouping I have given more consideration to position with regard to roads and propinquity to markets than to climate. I have not considered it necessary to have more than three groups for dry crop, and in fixing them climate as well as accessibility has been taken into consideration. For garden I propose a maximum rate of Rs. 16, a rate, however, which there has been no occasion to impose. The highest rate fixed, and that in comparatively few instances, is Rs. 12 and the lowest Rs. 2 per acre.

25. The rates proposed above have been adopted with due regard to those levied in the adjoining taluks of Belur and Múdgere, and the three settled maganis of the Hassan Taluk. The maximum rate for rice is slightly lower than that for Hassan where the advantages due to a denser population, existence of important markets and good communications are superior.

26. The results of the imposition of the proposed rates on Government occupied lands of all descriptions are tabulated in the following statement :—

Total results of proposed rates on Government and Inam lands.

29. The results of the proposed rates on all the arable lands of the Government villages under report, occupied, waste and inam, are tabulated below :—

General effect of proposed settlement.

30. In the following statement the proposed average rates of assessment for the occupied area of the taluk are compared with those previously existing. The basis of calculation for both old and new rates is the survey area :—

Description.	Acres by survey.	Old system.		New system.
		Collections.	Average rate.	Assessment.	Average rate.
1	2	3	4	5	6
Dry Crop	18,136	781	0 0 8	6,938	0 6 1
Rice	34,074	94,854	2 12 6	1,14,973	3 6 0
Garden	297	1,788	6 0 4	1,429	4 13 0
	52,507	97,423	1 13 8	1,23,340	2 5 7

31. The increase in the assessment on dry crop is very large though the average rate is very moderate. The explanation is probably this. Previous to the survey, dry crop holdings were not systematically brought to book, but at the time of survey they were pointed out by the nominal occupants as forming part of their holdings and were accordingly measured up into "Numbers" and shown in the survey records as occupied land.

Notwithstanding the slight difference between the old and new average rates (Rs. 2—12—6 and Rs. 3—6—0 respectively) on the rice lands, there is an increase of more than Rs. 20,000 on the old collections. This is no doubt partly due to the inequality of the old rates alluded to in para 16, and partly to concealed cultivation, as well as to the fact that rice lands, producing double crops, frequently paid no more than single crop lands.

The inequality of the assessment on garden lands has also been alluded to in para 16. Each garden has been assessed on its merits, and the result is a difference of about Rs. 300 between the old and new collections.

Grazing.

32. The proceeds from grazing are unimportant.

Local cess.

33. The realizations on account of the one anna local cess for the current year amounted to Rs. 6,945. After the introduction of the proposed settlement the amount on Government and minor Inam lands will be Rs. 7,709 and Rs. 418 respectively, or a total of Rs. 8,127.

Proceedings of the Dewan to His Highness the Maha Raja of Mysore, (Revenue),—dated 24th February 1882.

34. In the following statement the estimated results of the proposed settlement are contrasted with the collections of 1880—81:—

Proposed settlement and old collections contrasted.

		Rs.
Land revenue for 1880—81	.. ..	.. 97,423
One anna local cess do	.. ..	.. 6,945
	Total under old system..	1,04,368
Survey assessment on occupied lands	.. ..	.. 1,23,340
One anna local cess on Government occupied and minor inam lands		.. 8,127
	Total under new or survey system .	1,31,467

35. Thus, if the sums to be credited to local funds be omitted, there is an increase of Rs. 25,917 on the old assessment. I anticipate that there will be resignations of dry crop land especially in the villages of the western maganis, to the amount of Rs. 2,000 or 3,000, but I believe that this loss will, to a great extent, be made good by the ryots gradually taking up "Numbers" conveniently situated as regards their rice fields. The rates on rice lands are so moderate, and the crop is so certain, that I do not anticipate resignations of any but the highest lying lands.

Pay of village officers.

36. A sum of about Rs. 6,500 will be required for the remuneration of village officers.

Irrigation cess.

37. The Deputy Commissioner, Hassan District, in his letter No. 2206—823 of 17th November 1881, concurs in the imposition of a 3 pie rate on the assessment of wet lands, proposed in my letter No. 540 of the 1st August. This rate will produce a sum of Rs. 1,819 to be credited to the irrigation fund.

Net gain to Government.

38. Deducting the sums required for the funds mentioned in the two last paras the net gain to Government will be about Rs. 16,000.

Illustrations of the inequality of the old assessment.

39. As promised in para 16 I have prepared the following statement showing the increase and decrease in 10 villages, illustrative of the inequality of the old assessment on rice and garden lands:—

40. Appendix A or classwar statement and Appendix B showing the inam villages in the taluk and the nature of the survey applied are attached, together with a sketch map of the taluk showing the proposed grouping of the villages.

41. Two reports prepared by the Assistant Superintendents in charge of the Classing Establishments are also appended.

42. The Deputy Commissioner's interesting report on the past revenue management of the taluk unfortunately reached me too late to admit of my availing myself of the useful suggestions contained therein. Most of the points, however, alluded to by him, have received due attention in my report.

From the Assistant Superintendent in charge "M" Classing Establishment.

I have the honor to submit the following report on the Manjarabad Taluk, Hassan District, classed by the "M" "E" and "C" Establishments. The classification was commenced by the "M" Establishment in 1878, and completed during the past field season by the above mentioned establishments.

Boundaries.

2. The taluk is bounded on the north by the Múdgere Taluk of the Kadur District, on the east by the Belur, Hassan and Arkalgúd Taluks of the Hassan District, on the south-east and south by Coorg, and on the west by South Canara.

Area and population.

3. The taluk is very irregular in shape, and varies from 20 to 31 miles in length by 18 to 26 miles in breadth; it may roughly be estimated as having an area of 450 square miles. Its population according to the census just taken was 52,555.

General description.

4. The taluk is a purely malnad one, the sammats to the west of the river Hemavati are very hilly and jungly, while those to the east of the river partake somewhat of an open type of malnad country, similar to that found in the west of the Belur and Hassan Taluks. On this side the country is slightly undulating, relieved here and there by low hills with patches of jungle. As one proceeds further into the taluk, that is, after crossing the Hemavati (known under the local name of the Yennehole or oil river), the country gets much bolder, the hills become mountains and the jungles more dense. The western ghats flank the taluk on the west and extend from the Bisle ghat in the south to the Jenukalbetta and Siskalbetta in the north.

On approaching the ghats the tops of the mountains become bare, or are covered with grass and the wild date palm, the jungle being confined to the slopes, and high lying lands. The low lying grounds are cultivated with rice: long stretches of such land run between the hills, and receive a sufficient supply of water from the drainage to cultivate, in most instances, a second crop. The demarcation between the high and low lying lands is particularly marked, the latter generally terminating in perpendicular cuttings of from 10 to 30 feet in height.

Drainage.

5. The drainage of the taluk is chiefly effected by the Hemavati: this river rises in the Módgere Taluk. It enters Manjarabad in the north-west, and taking a south-easterly direction, it flows right through the eastern portion of the taluk. After continuing this course for some time, it turns to the east and forms the boundary between Coorg and Mysore, re-entering Mysore Territory again in the Arkalgúd Taluk. The western portion of the taluk is drained by a few minor streams which flow into South Canara.

Artificial irrigation is rendered superfluous, owing to the exceedingly abundant rain-fall. Irrigation is carried on by damming up the small streams which flow from the hills and high grounds; these streams being perennial, an abundant supply of water for raising two crops of rice is obtained. In the eastern portion of the taluk, that is east of the Hemavati, the cultivation of rice is more dependent on the rain-fall, and only a single crop is raised unless artificial means are at hand. Small tanks, with a common earthen embankment, are sometimes used for raising a second crop where the rain-fall is not sufficient; these tanks collect water during the rains, and percolation through the embankment supplies the necessary moisture.

Sub-divisions.

6. The taluk is divided into 10 "Sammats" or sub-divisions, namely:—

1.	Manjarabad.	6.	Bisle.
2.	Baikere.	7.	Uggihalli.
3.	Bellur.	8.	Belgod.
4.	Hettur.	9.	Balu.
5.	Yeslur.	10.	Muttagi.

These sub-divisions contain—

417	Government villages.	8	Kayamgutta villages.
3	Sarva inam villages.	24	Coffee estates.
5	Jodi inam villages.	3	State-forests.

Soils.

7. The soil in the taluk (as far as it came under my personal observation) varies from a deep reddish color to a light grey, sand predominating in the latter. With a sufficient quantity of manure good crops are raised in the latter. In the sammats in which dry crops are raised the soil is of a reddish or dark or light brown color, and in some places on the banks of the Hemavati a rich loamy soil (apparently a deposit left by the river over-flowing its banks) is found.

Crops (Wet).

8. The chief wet crop grown is rice, of which there are different varieties. The kinds generally sown by the ryots are—

Kembhatta.	Chippaga.
Bilebhatta.	Malligesanna.
Kyasari.	Donnesanna.
Kiravanna.	Kodibhatta.

These varieties are all of a coarse kind, their price varying from Rs. 3 to Rs. 5 per khandi in the local markets; a khandi being 240 seers.

Sugar-cane is not grown to any great extent in the taluk, and when grown is not utilised in the manufacture of jaggory. The varieties planted are "Patavale" and "Rastale," the former being more general.

Proceedings of the Dewan to His Highness the Maha Raja of Mysore, (Revenue),—dated 24th February 1882.

Double crops of rice are always raised in the villages bordering on the ghats; in the villages more remote however, favorable situations are selected for doing so, but in the villages to the east of the Hemavati (from what I was able to gather from the village officials and ryots, as well as from personal observation) I believe that it is not customary to raise a second crop of rice, although it appears quite possible to do so in favorable situations.

(Dry) Dry cultivation is only carried on in the Balu, Belgod, and Muttigi sammats to any extent. The crops raised are—

1. Gid-ragi. 2. Hutchellu. 3. Hurali.

In the other sammats gid-ragi is sown to a small extent. Any ryot who feels inclined plants a small patch for his own use, but does not replant the same piece of land for 4 or 5 years. No kandayam is paid for such lands.

Garden. The only kind of garden cultivation that came under my notice was plantain.

Plantains are extensively grown in the "Hitlus" which surround the houses, between the plantain trees it being usual to grow coffee, limes and oranges. Under the old rules every ryot was obliged to pay for "Hasarvani," the rate varying with the circumstances of each. At present, however, an uniform rate of 4 annas 8 pies per "Kolaga" of 3,200 square yards is in force without reference to individuals.

Coffee. Manjarabad is the most important of the coffee growing taluks in Mysore; its cultivation has assumed great importance. European, as well as Native planters, have taken up land extensively for its cultivation.

The Native cultivation of coffee is a great improvement on that of the Madgere Taluk, more trouble is taken and money expended by Native planters. Some of the European estates visited by me were in a very flourishing condition and appeared to pay well; while others, although to appearances every thing that could be desired, still giving a small yield. This I have reason to believe is caused by the variable rain-fall in different localities.

On estates where the rain-fall was about 60 inches per annum the yield was very good; whereas on estates where it was much in excess of this, the plants ran to leaf and consequently the yield was much less.

No kandayam is paid on coffee lands, but a "Halat" of 4 annas on every 28 lbs. is levied on dry coffee.

Cardamoms. Cardamoms are grown in the taluk, extensively in the Kardamane estate, and to a limited extent in the Bisle (Balehalla estate) and Uggihalli sammats. No assessment is paid on cardamom-producing lands, and a halat of Rs. 2 per maund of 28 lbs. is levied on the dry pod.

Sub-letting. 9. The system of subletting lands is not common in the taluk. In villages where Brahmans reside they usually let out their lands on "Wara" or "Guttige:" according to the former system the cultivator supplies manure and seed, and divides the crop with the "Pattedar," the latter paying the Government kandayam; while in the latter case, the cultivator gives the pattedar a fixed amount of grain or money over and above the kandayam, the sub-tenant supplying manure and seed.

Rates. 10. The rates in the taluk vary considerably. The dry crop rates are from 4 annas 8 pies per kolaga, (3,200 square yards) to Rs. 1—11—4, this latter rate prevailing in the village of Husgur in the Muttagi sammat. Tari rates vary from 8 pies to Rs. 1—11—4 per kolaga of 500 square yards, the latter rate being found in the Halsulgi "Furka" of the Baikere sammat. No extra rates are levied on sugar-cane growing lands or on lands producing a second crop of rice; the former are treated as ordinary rice lands, while the latter are assessed proportionally higher than lands growing a single crop.

The present rate for "Hasarvani" is a uniform one of 4 annas and 8 pies per Krishnaraj kolaga of 3,200 square yards.

Mode of cultivation. 11. Rice is sown either broadcast, or is transplanted; the latter plan however appears to be more general. Wet lands are ploughed from 7 to 9 times before they are considered fit for cultivating.

Proceedings of the Dewan to His Highness the Maha Raja of Mysore, (Revenue),—dated 24th February 1882.

Dry crop land is only cultivated once in 3 or 4 years except in the sammats of Balu, Belgod and Muttagi. In the central sammats it is usual to grow ragi in high lying rice lands; such lands are known under the name of "Makkigadde." In cultivating such lands the ryots adopt the plan of transplanting in the same way as they do with rice.

Dry crop lands are ploughed from 5 to 6 times.

Manure.

12. The litter from cow sheds is allowed to season for a time, and is then used for manuring rice lands. Dry crop lands are not generally manured, but in some cases rubbish is accumulated and then burnt and used as manure.

Wages.

13. The rate of wages varies in different localities according to the difficulty experienced in getting coolies. Daily wages range from 2 annas 8 pies to 4 annas per man and from 1 anna 8 pies to 3 annas per woman. Coolies engaged in reaping, ploughing or sowing receive three seers of paddy and food in lieu of money. Regular coolies employed by planters and the Department of Public Works get a blanket (cumbly) in addition to the above rate.

Coolies on coffee estates are generally supplied from the Maidan or plain taluks, and also, but to a limited extent, from South Canara.

No recognized system of slavery is in force, but the old idea, that if a man was married, clothed and fed by a Patel all the members of his family were bound to serve him only, still prevails in the villages bordering on the ghats.

Cattle

14. The cattle in the taluk are of a very inferior breed: owing to the climate of the malnad not agreeing with bullocks and cows, as well as from the pasturage being poor, the cattle are, generally speaking, in a very poor and feeble condition. Male buffaloes seem to thrive well in the malnad and are largely imported from the plain taluks for agricultural purposes.

Roads.

15. Manjarabad is particularly rich in roads; much more so than malnad taluks generally are. The main road from Bangalore to Mangalore viâ the Manjarabad ghat, passes right through the taluk from east to west, and is much used for traffic. A little past Saklespur a road branches off this road in a north-westerly direction towards Múdgere, it joins the Chikmagalur-Mangalore road near Múdgere and thus communication with Mangalore viâ the Bhund ghat is obtained.

Another road branches off the Saklespur-Mangalore road near the Manjarabad fort, and taking a south-easterly direction crosses the Hemavati into Coorg. A new road is now being opened off this road, branching off it at Kulbatur, it passes Hettur, Vangur and Bisle into South Canara, viâ the Bisle ghat. A new road has been proposed between Vangur and Somavarpet in Coorg viâ Utchangi; it has been traced, but is not open to traffic. An indifferent road connects Hettur with Yeslur; being unbridged, it is only used for empty carts.

The road from Hassan to Kodlipet viâ Sethalli passes through the eastern portion of the taluk; it is an indifferent road, but is used for traffic. An indifferent road connects Balu with Kenchamanhoskote, and the road from Belgod to Belur also passes through the taluk.

Exports and imports.

16. The chief exports are rice, coffee, cardamoms and turmeric. Rice and turmeric are sent to Alur in the Hassan Taluk and also find their way to Arkalgúd, Mysore, Mangalore, and into Coorg. Coffee and cardamoms are exported to Bangalore and Mangalore for England, (vide appendix).

The imports are ragi, dál, ballar, tamarind, clarified butter, Bengal-gram and hurali or horse-gram; these come from the maidan taluks, chiefly Channarayapatna and Haranhalli. Europe articles, such as are required by planters, are imported from Mangalore and Bangalore.

Salt and copper utensils are obtained from Mangalore and South Canara, (vide appendix).

Manufactures.

17. The only manufactures that exist in the taluk are rough white cloths, for the manufacture of which but few looms are available.

Grazing.

18. The grazing in the taluk is abundant; the grass, however, is of a very inferior kind.

Grazing lands are not sold by Government, the ryots graze their cattle wherever they like, and when the grass on the hills dries up, they send their cattle into the rice fields, and allow them to graze on the "Badus" or borders.

Proceedings of the Dewan to His Highness the Maha Raja of Mysore, (Revenue,)— dated 24th February 1882.

Markets.

19. The following list shows the different markets in the taluk and the days on which they are held :—

1.	Hadige	Market day	Sunday.
2.	Kchalbidu	Do	do.
3.	Maggi	Do	Monday
4.	Hettur	Do	Tuesday.
5.	Kenchamanhoskote	Do	Wednesday.
6.	Saklespur	Do	Thursday.
7.	Kurbatur	Do	Friday.
8.	Belgod	Do	Saturday.

Markets have also been established at Maranhalli and Uggihalli, but people do not collect there.

The Kodlipet and Sanivarsante markets in Coorg, and the Sethalli and Alur markets in Hassan are also used by the ryots living in the villages near these places

Rain-fall.

20. The rain-fall in the taluk is very variable In the vicinity of the ghats it averages considerably over 200 inches per annum, while on the eastern side of the taluk its average is from 60 to 70 inches.

At Vangur the rain-fall is supposed to be about 250 inches, at Hettur, about 8 miles distant, 160 inches, while at Saklespur 24 miles off, the average for the last 4 years is only 67 44 inches. At Bagi estate the average is 70 inches and at Kardibetta about 62¼ inches Climate.

21. The climate of the taluk is decidedly unhealthy except in the early months of the year, viz, January, February and March Ague, fever, colds, dysentery and other similar complaints prevail Ryots born in the country seem to be able to bear up against the dampness of the climate, but outsiders who come from the plain country seeking employment generally return home before the early rains set in in April and seem to have a great dread of the place

Weights and measures.

22. The "Pakka Seer" is believed to hold 109 Rs weight of water, this seer is the measure used in the shops and "Angadis," the seer used by the villagers for measuring grain is equivalent in weight to Rs. 80. Oil, jaggory, &c., are weighed by maunds and seers, a seer weighs Rs 24, but in a few places Rs. 28. The kolaga is equivalent to 2½ or 3 seers

Coffee and cardamoms are weighed by the maund, one maund is equivalent to 28 lbs.

Remuneration and "Haks" of village servants.

23. Mokhtesar, Nad and Mande Patels, as well as one Village Patel enjoy service inams. Village Patels receive presents on the occasion of marriages in their villages, such presents vary from 4 annas 8 pies to Rs. 4 per marriage

Kuluvadis of villages hold service inams, but a deduction is usually made in the patta of the Patel on account of their remuneration They also receive grain, generally paddy, from the villagers and are entitled to the dead cattle of the village

Shanbhogs receive a monthly salary varying from Re. 1, annas 3 to Rs 3, annas 11 from Government; they also get money from the ryots as "Mirasi" except in the sammats of Belgod, Balu and Muttagi, where the mirasi is both in kind and money. A statement of the "Haks" of village officials for a few villages in the Bisle, Yeslur and Muttagi sammats is attached. (Vide appendix).

Fairs or "Jatras."

24. Yearly fairs or "Jatras" are held at Devarunda in the Uggihalli sammat during the month of March or April, and at Kenchamanhoskote in the Muttagi sammat in May or June.

About 3,000 people assemble at these fairs, and articles in ordinary use among the ryots, as well as a few cloths, are exposed for sale.

In villages generally throughout the taluk "Suggi Jatras" assemble once a year, but these are only of local interest and are attended by about 500 people

Forests and trees.

25. The Manjarabad forests contain many large and valuable trees, namely the "Poon," "Sonne," and blackwood; unfortunately the State-forests are so badly situated with regard to roads that it is not practicable or paying to get timber from them.

The following kinds of useful trees are found in coffee jungles, namely, "Honne," "Nandi," "Matti," "Hesva," ebony and wild "Champaka;" when not locally utilized and when roads will admit of it, wood is carted into the Hassan and other neighbouring taluks. The sago palm, from which a kind of toddy is obtained, is found every where, and is very popular with the ryots.

Condition of the ryots.

26. The ryots in the taluk seem well to do; the facility of obtaining employment on the roads and in neighbouring coffee estates in bad years seems to keep them above want

Proceedings of the Dewan to His Highness the Maha Raja of Mysore, (Revenue),—dated 24th February 1882.

Almost every Patel, in the vicinity of the ghats, is a "Shikari," keeps a gun and employs his leisure in shooting. Every ryot has a little garden, containing coffee, orange, lime and plantain trees round his house, owing to which he is somewhat independent of his rice crop. In the sammats on the ghats all go in largely for drinking the toddy of the sago-palm, so much so that the afternoon finds them invariably intoxicated.

The ryots of the taluk are generally speaking much more active in their habits and hardy in their constitutions than the ryots of the maidan taluk.

Conclusion.

27. In conclusion I beg to state that, as no notes were received from the other officers employed in this taluk, the statements embodied in this report refer more particularly to the sammats (Bisle, Yesalur and Muttagi) that came under my personal observation.

Proceedings of the Dewan to His Highness the Maha Raja of Mysore, (Revenue),—dated 24th February 1882.

Notes on the Bellur and Hettur Maganis of the Manjarabad Taluk, by the Assistant Superintendent in charge "E" Classing Establishment.

These two maganis are situated in the centre of the taluk. The Hettur hobli lies to the west of Bellur and is more hilly in character. The rain-fall is also considerably heavier, ranging, I should suppose, from 150 to 200 inches whilst in Bellur it would be from 80 to 100 inches. The Manjarabad Taluk is one of the most picturesque portions of the Mysore Province, the hill tops being clothed with evergreen forests and the valleys cultivated with rice, whilst the intermediate slopes form excellent pasture for the village herds of cattle.

Sub-Divisions.—The two maganis reported on comprise 90 Government villages, 1 Inam village and 2 coffee estates measured as separate villages.

Crops, dry.—The dry crops raised are ragi and hutchellu, but very little of the latter. The variety known as gid ragi is grown, but the crop is a poor one. The dry crop land is not cultivated every year but once in 3 or 4 years.

Crops, wet.—The wet crops are rice with here and there small patches of turmeric, chillies and native vegetables. Sugar-cane is grown to a very limited extent. It takes from 10 to 15 months coming to maturity—pattapatti and rastali, but chiefly the former. The different kinds of paddy grown and in use are kembhatti, bilebhatta, donne sanna, kyasari, chippiga, kodebhatta and phutabhatta. The present selling price per "Heru" of 240 seers is from Rs. 3 to Rs. 5. A few small patches of areca trees are met with, but they are not properly cultivated and yield but poor crops. Seven to nine ploughings are given to rice land and 5 to 6 to dry land. Double crops of rice are raised in many of the villages of the Hettur magani. In 21 villages they grow a second crop, but in the Bellur magani in only 2 villages are second crops met with.

Coffee.—All the heavy forest land is held on coffee patta. Formerly the amount of coffee produced from land held by natives was considerable, but of late years there has been a great falling off, the trees having exhausted the soil and being totally neglected. The new rules for the assessment of coffee lands if strictly carried out, will add considerably to the revenue under this head.

Rates.—The rates on land in the taluk vary immensely, ranging from 8 Pies to Rs. 5-4-8 per Krishnaraj kudu of 500 square yards. In the Bellur hobli the highest rate is Rs. 1-1-1 and the lowest As. 2, Pies 2. No extra rate is imposed on land if sugar-cane is grown. Patches of areca-nut garden are considered as tari. The rate on dry crop land is 4 Annas 8 Pie per kudu of 3,200 square yards.

Sub-letting.—Whenever land is sub-let, the cultivator supplies the manure and seed and gives half the crop to the pattedar who pays the kandayam. Some lands are let on "Guttige," the cultivator giving the pattedar from 4 to 6 khandis of paddy per khandi of land. The local khandi is generally equal to 7½ Krishnaraj kolaga.

Markets.—Each of the hoblis reported on has a weekly market. In the Bellur hobli it is held on a Friday and is largely attended, and in Hettur the market is on Tuesday.

Exports.—The only exports are paddy and rice chiefly to Alur and Bangalore, and coffee to Bangalore and Mangalore.

Imports.—The chief imports are ragi, dál, ballar, tamarind, ghee, Bengal-gram, horse-gram and piece goods.

Cattle.—Cattle are in good condition, the grazing being very fair and lasting to nearly the end of the dry months.

The general condition of the ryots is good, and those in poorer circumstances find no difficulty in obtaining employment on the European coffee planters' estates after their crops are harvested.

From the Deputy Commissioner, Hassan District, To the Superintendent, Mysore Revenue Survey, No. 2319—G. 861, dated 25th November 1881.

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter No. 479 of the 6th August 1881, requesting the submission of my remarks on the past revenue management of the Manjarabad and Hassan Taluks, and to make the following observations with regard to the former.

2. I think it unnecessary to collect the usual statistics or to carry deductions from them, as these will doubtless receive a better and more scientific treatment at your hands, and I shall have an opportunity of having my say on them after you fix your rates. Nor is it in my opinion necessary to trace the historic changes which the tract of country now known as the Manjarabad Taluk underwent from time to time. This is the only portion of the malnad which remains to be settled, and the character of the lands and the tenures to which they have been subjected at various times are the same as those which have been already dealt with. I gather, however, that originally each village had to pay a fixed sum of money of the then recognized coinage, the division of such dues among the individuals of the community having been left to the Headmen or Patels. Time developed such arbitrary individual demands into what may be called their recognized contribution, and when more settled forms of Government were introduced they became the basis of a ryotwar settlement. There is no evidence whatever to show that the land was ever measured or that the contributions laid upon a village were in proportion to the extent and character of the soil. Such levy, it may be presumed, was more in reference to the capability of the payer than to the resources at his disposal on which the demand could be properly based. This was the system adopted both when the taluk formed a portion of the kingdom of the Ikkeri dynasty of Nagar and when it passed on to the hands of the sovereigns of Mysore. On the restoration of the country to the present ruling dynasty in 1799, Dewan Purnaiya would seem to have in the commencement raised the money levy, and then to meet the demands of the Palace Motikhana changed it into a grain supply. This was, after the change of that administration, again altered into a money rent, the process of conversion always resulting in an increase to the Government revenue and pari passu raising the individual burdens of the people. As however the settling officers had a wide and undefined discretion of remitting the dues whenever they proved to be exorbitant or otherwise oppressive, it could not be said that the system then adopted, though primitive, and indefencible on scientific principles, was not suited to those times or that they worked mischievously, as the present prosperity of the ryots in this taluk more than sufficiently indicates that they could not have been subjected to unbearable burdens. But apart from the system and its influences, I think there is enough of data in the old records to show that the imposition of the levy being on no principles affecting the land, the collection at the present time is more or less arbitrary, and necessarily therefore unequal and possibly whimsical. I am of opinion, therefore, that more than indicating the lump sum of money which this tract contributed to the State exchequer, the past revenue history would not be a safe guide at all to judge of what may be fixed as a fair revenue from this taluk at the impending settlement. The individual inequalities will be necessarily so many that any attempt at comparing the present and future demands will be positively useless if not misleading. I can only, under these circumstances, suggest that the proposed settlement being the first transition from an arbitrary into a scientific settlement, moderation of rates must be the rule. This will be seen to be the more necessary, as the discretion of the Jamabandi officers will be restricted by hard and fast rules, and the annual settlements will not be so pliant as to adjust themselves with reference to the then existing circumstances.

3. One great peculiarity which I feel called upon to bring to your prominent notice is the general exemption which the dry lands enjoyed from paying any kandayam till comparatively recently. This exemption was not in discord with the system which was then in vogue. The quantity and character of the land having had nothing to do with the money levies, it was I believe a matter of expediency that each family was allowed lands of every description, the most valuable, viz., the wet, being looked upon as the principal consideration for the money paid. Dry land was thus regarded as a necessary adjunct to wet cultivation, and owing to the paucity of people and the consequent inadequacy of cultivating power, dry land was available to nearly all and was not prized by any one. Another characteristic which facilitated this treatment of dry lands may be supposed to have been the peculiar quality of the soil, which in pure malnad is supposed not to bear crops every year. The rotation of fields became thus necessary, and perhaps accounts for the kumri cultivation. At all events even now the practice is in vogue, according to which dry lands are not taxed simply because they have been cultivated. It is only when a rival offers to take them up for kandayam that the cultivator is offered the option of retaining them on the preferred conditions, and the lands are brought to book. This practice, it need not be said, is gradually dying out, and when the settlement is finally introduced will altogether cease. This feature of the present system I regard as a strong reason for moderation.

4. It has also to be brought to your notice that in past times lands were given out for partial kandayam and no kandayam as a means of encouraging cultivation of abandoned wet fields. These lands are known as "Vunti" lands, and the privilege is even now much appreciated. This tenure was built up in course of a very long time, and it is not easy now to find out whether in every instance such concessions were properly granted. But there is the stern fact of actual and open enjoyment which cannot in my humble opinion be altogether disregarded. The representatives at the last annual meeting discussed this matter with the Dewan, and possibly he may be disposed to consider it, in view to its final settlement. I think that some distinction should be made when rating these fields, and it can only be done at the time of the settlement by you. Meanwhile, if you deem it necessary, I shall direct the Amildar to prepare a villagewar list of such Vunti lands and submit it to you. But as any such movement is sure to engender a sort of expectation in the minds of people for special treatment, I desist from taking any action without further authority from you.

5. I may perhaps be permitted to state here that there are no gardens of any magnitude in this taluk. The wet lands are generally fertile though dependent upon rains which are required to be very exact and seasonable, rice being the staple crop. The dry fields require, as I have stated above, to be allowed to remain fallow in rotation. Ragi is grown chiefly on such lands; but the ears only are picked, it being considered unnecessary to cut and utilize straw. Coffee and cardamoms are also grown, but the latter are entirely in the hands of European planters. On the whole, therefore, this taluk may be regarded as a fertile tract, peopled by well-to-do and prosperous ryots. It is very well off in communications and there are markets held on every day of the week. The Alur market of the Hassan Taluk is conveniently near, and is a great resort to corn growers of this taluk.

6. I beg in conclusion to send herewith a list of rates, which are however no sure guide for your calculation.

From the Superintendent, Mysore Revenue Survey, To the Deputy Commissioner, Hassan District, No. 732, dated Bangalore, 13th December 1881.

I have the honor to forward for your perusal and return, with such remarks as you may deem necessary, the papers relating to the proposed revision of the assessment of the Manjarabad Taluk of the Hassan District.

2. The report on the proposed revision has, you will observe, been drawn up by the Deputy Superintendent Major Rutherfurd whom it is unnecessary for me to follow through all the details of his proposals. It will suffice to state that his rates have my full approval.

3. The settlement now proposed involves the increase of the assessment of the lands occupied in 1880-81 from Rs. 97,423 to Rs. 1,23,340 or about 26 per cent. The increase is entirely on the dry crop and rice lands, the effect of the settlement being to lower the garden assessment. The average rates old and new (see para 30 of report) under each head, dry crop, rice and garden are as below, the basis of calculation being in each case the survey area :—

Proceedings of the Dewan to His Highness the Maha Raja of Mysore, (Revenue),—dated 24th February 1882.

The proposed rates cannot be considered otherwise than moderate. They are somewhat higher, as the relative circumstances of the two tracts fully warrant, than the rates already sanctioned for the Múdgere Taluk adjoining on the north, but considerably lower than those sanctioned for the three settled magams of the Hassan Taluk which adjoin on the west. The increase on the dry crop is considerable, but the rates are as low as they could well have been pitched without being purely nominal. Manjarabad, as compared with Múdgere, possesses advantages as regards population, labor and general accessibility in a far higher degree, while its climate is at least not inferior to that of Múdgere. Acting strictly on, and by the light of rates already sanctioned for adjoining tracts, it would have been quite justifiable to have increased the old assessment a good deal more than has been done in the present proposals, but it seemed safer to stop short of the extreme gain which might have been secured to Government, especially as the present increase of about Rs. 26,000 after all deductions on account of Irrigation Fund, pay of village officers and ample allowance for probable resignations, will leave a net gain to Government far in advance of the annual revenue ever realized hitherto.

4. Major Rutherfurd's report fully enters into the various points affecting the settlement. The inequality of the incidence of the old assessment is fully demonstrated and it is not too much to say that the estimated gain to Government under these proposals is almost entirely due to the operation of equalizing the rates with a much lower general pitch of assessment than under the old system now to be superceded. The villages which figure at para 39 of the Deputy Superintendent's report display, in column 7 of the statement, unjustifiable degrees and extremes of assessment and are only illustrations of an inequality which more or less pervades the old assessment throughout, while as regards individual holdings regarding which the accounts are not yet sufficiently advanced to give details, still greater inequality may, not unreasonably, be expected. Bearing in mind the undoubted moderation of the proposed rates, I look confidently to the best results from the present settlement to the general community of the taluk as well as to Government. It will be observed that the extent of waste assessed land is not very great.

5. I shall feel much obliged by a return of these papers at your very earliest convenience as Manjarabad is the first taluk for settlement this season and I am anxious to commence giving out the rates not later than the 1st of March next.

From the Deputy Commissioner, Hassan District, To the Superintendent, Mysore Revenue Survey, No. 2717—G. 1009, dated Camp Gorur, 4th January 1882.

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter No. 732 of the 13th December last, and to return herewith the papers therewith sent on the subject of introducing the new settlement into the Manjarabad Taluk.

2. I beg to make the following observations: but before doing so in detail, I would express my hearty concurrence in the general views expressed by you regarding the necessity to calculate the new settlement on as moderate a basis as is consistent with Government interests. I am also pleased to be able to coincide with you in the proposed rates which, on the whole, are fair and moderate. The cause of the great increase which is visible in the dry land is explained in para 31 of the Deputy Superintendent's letter. I subscribe to his views. A good portion of this land may be thrown up during the settlement; but as the present settlement should be regarded as the first formal endeavour to bring the dry lands, which were enjoyed almost for nothing, within the pale of a scientific taxation, the result is inevitable, and the ryots must sooner or later acquiesce in the system. The rates are, as observed by you, "as low as they could well have been pitched without being purely nominal," and I have no objection to their adoption. As it will be within the discretion of the parties to throw up, and as I shall propose an arrangement by which the pressure of such increases could be mitigated, I do not apprehend much hardship. The gardens are insignificant and do not call for any remarks.

3. It is, in my humble opinion, simply a waste of time to attempt to reconcile the inequalities or to explain them on any scientific or satisfactory theory. In my letter No. 2319—861 of 25th November 1881, I have shown that the incidence of taxation in this tract of the country was not at all in proportion to, or in any way dependent upon, the extent of the land under occupancy. The so called assessment was rather a fiction, and is a misnomer if it is held to mean what is generally understood to be signified by the term. It was, in point of fact, an arbitrary levy of a lump sum of money based upon, and regulated by, no principle. Under these circumstances, it will be a highly profitless task to seek explanations of the inequalities which are inevitable to a scientific treatment of the subject.

4. But it is worth considering whether, in the cases of very great inequalities in the individual settlement, the hardship caused by a sudden bound should not be mitigated by giving the ryot an extended time of payment, or rather by making the increase gradual, so that the maximum may be made up in the course of one or two years. The details of individual settlement

e not been, as yet, worked out by you, and I am not therefore in a position to state or to form opinion of how they may affect individuals. But you anticipate rightly a good many and greater inequalities than in the case of villages. Such being the case and bearing in mind that the survey settlement has not hitherto been reconciled by the ryots, I consider that an arrangement for gradual imposition of the increase is very necessary.

5. To make myself clear, I beg to state that the average increase on the present collection is 26 per cent. (Vide para 3 of the letter under reply). If out of this increase, that derivable from dry lands is deducted, the rate of increase for wet lands will be materially reduced. According to my rough calculations, the rates of increase on different descriptions of lands will be as noted in the margin. I give, as already stated, my decided and hearty assent to the general increase which, on the whole, is very fair and moderate. It follows that the ryots are expected to contribute to an increase of 788 per cent in dry, and 21 per cent in wet. But as it is feared that the inequalities in applying the increase to individual cases would be far above these standard rates, especially with regard to wet, and as it is very desirable to mitigate the pressure thus resulting, I would respectfully suggest to make it a rule that in those cases in which the inequalities (comprising chiefly the increase) exceed more than these standard rates of increase, the same should be distributed over as many years as are necessary to make up the maximum, the increase in no year exceeding the standard rates. An illustration of the rule will perhaps make me better understood.

Dry 788 per cent.
Wet 21 per cent.
Garden decrease.

A pays 100 Rs. wet kandayam, and in the survey settlement his assessment is increased to 175 Rs. or in other words is increased by 75 per cent. But the standard rate of increase is only 21 per cent. He would therefore have to pay an increase of 21 per cent or 121 Rs. in the year of the survey settlement, another increase of 21 per cent or 142 Rs. in the second year, and so on till he makes up the maximum which is the survey assessment of 175 Rs.

6. The same rule would apply to dry lands also; but as the standard rate of increase is in itself as high as 788 per cent, it will be difficult to imagine cases of still greater inequalities.

7. This increase will of course be divided among the separate numbers of the ryot's occupancy, and the proposed arrangement will not therefore interfere with his right to throw up any field at the time of the settlement. A new comer taking such resigned numbers then would have, of course, to pay up the maximum assessment at once; but if the proposed arrangement is sanctioned, I am hopeful that there will not be many resignations.

8. This proposal, I admit, is a new departure from the system heretofore in vogue; but as after giving the suggestion the best and most careful consideration, I see no flaw in the theory of the proposition; and the application of it in practice, is not attended with any difficulty, uncertainty, or unreasonable loss to Government: I solicit your favorable consideration of it.

9. It may be objected that this measure is only partial in its application involving an unfair sacrifice of Government revenue in the first two years, as there is no reciprocity, and those whose kandayam is reduced will get the benefit of such decrease at once. I have no information of such inequalities and cannot form an idea of their financial effect. But, I think, I shall venture upon no unsafe ground if I take the liberty to state that, in a settlement the general effect of which is a net increase, such decreases would necessarily be few; and allowing the people to enjoy the full advantages thereof at once, will only be a gracious act of the sovereign and essentially so in the first year of his reign. Even if it should result in a temporary loss, it will be more than made up by the permanent increment to the revenue; and after giving the subject my best and earnest consideration, I am enabled to state it as my clear opinion that the measure will meet with great favor by the people, and will at the same time be very fair and equitable on the part of the Government.

10. I proceed now to offer some remarks on the Deputy Superintendents's letter; and firstly, regarding the inequalities which I have been discussing, I beg to point out that in the list appended to his para 39 they have not been brought out prominently in very bold contrast. The highest fluctuation is 69 and the lowest 14 per cent. But in the statement which I have taken the liberty to send herewith, the highest rate of increase will be seen to be as much as 309 per cent. This increase is not, in my opinion, altogether due to the inequalities of the old assessment. There is a very tangible increase in the average wet rate amounting to 9 annas and 6 pies per acre which, I submit, is not slight as stated in para 31. Nevertheless, I am of humble opinion that the net increase is fair and moderate. But I refer to these startling inequalities which, in not a few cases, are more than 100 per cent, as illustrating forcibly the necessity which exists for softening the rigour of the imposition. In other words, I submit that if it is intended to make this addition as mildly felt as possible, the only course which seems to me to be the best, is to adopt the rule suggested in para 5 of this letter.

11. While on the subject and as furnishing a partial explanation of the net increase of the revenue, I may be permitted to state that as many as 21 villages which were heretofore enjoyed as "Sthal Jodi" and contributed very little to the State exchequer were in the course of the inam investigation resumed to Government, and have been now fully assessed in the papers under review. To give only one instance, the revenue of Atchangi which was only Rs. 52 is now raised to 529. The net increase due from this cause is 1,999 as shown in the margin.

12. Information is not given in the Deputy Superintendent's letter regarding the present collection on dry land in each of the groups of villages; but I presume that the increase is highest in the first group. It is here that dry cultivation is carried on with any earnestness and regularity (vide para 9), and this large increase will, if suddenly imposed, doubtless operate as a great strain upon the resources of the cultivating agency. Group No. 2 comprises only 32 villages, and the dry assessment leviable therein is more than double the present collection under the head dry in the whole taluk. This increase also cannot but tell severely upon the ryots. In the other groups, comparatively small increases are distributed over a large number of villages, and no special process of mitigation is called for. But in the first two groups I am strongly of opinion that the imposition must be gradual. I am unable to state whether the standard rate of increase, in the event of the rule already suggested being adopted, should in these cases be the 26 per cent which refers to the net increase under all heads, or the 788 per cent which is applicable only to dry lands. The one is too low to reach the maximum in a reasonable period of time, and the other is too high to be suddenly imposed. I would therefore propose an intermediate rate of fifty or even 100 per cent. Even then, we must be prepared for fluctuations in the revenue of the taluk for not less than five or six years, and the consequent alteration of jamabandi accounts during that period: but having regard to the advantages resulting from the arrangement, these inconveniences should not have undue importance in considering the expediency of adopting the proposed rule. This difficulty can only be partially avoided by reducing the dry rates throughout by one half. The present maximum rates are 1 Rupee, 12 As. and 8 As. and the altered rates would be 8 As., 6 As. and 4 As. Even then, the increase to the revenue would be more than three hundred per cent. But I would not advocate this measure, as the gradual imposition of the increase is also called for with regard to the wet lands, and the inconvenience of a revenue increasing year by year to a fixed maximum, and of the consequent alteration of accounts which at the most extends only over seven years, is not very considerable. The arrangement will not further affect the intrinsic merits of the settlement system, or render it less precise and scientific.

13. I have, in conclusion, only to invite your attention to my letter No. 2628—977 of 24th ultimo, and to solicit that you will have the goodness to issue orders for marking the boundary of the taluk on the side of the South Canara District, in accordance with the settlement made by the Boundary Commissioners in the village and taluk maps, and bring the lands affected thereby within the range of your settlement operations.

Proceedings of the Dewan to His Highness the Maha Raja of Mysore, (Revenue),—dated 24th February 1882.

CAMP No 4—5, DATED MYSORE, 24TH FEBRUARY 1882.

ORDER.—The proposed settlement of the Manjarabad Taluk is based upon maximum rates which, with reference to relative circumstances, have been fixed slightly higher than the rates adopted for the Mudgere Taluk, but considerably lower than those sanctioned for the three settled maganis of the Hassan Taluk. The maximum rates fixed appear to be fair.

2. The proposed settlement results in an increase of Rs. 25,917 from which deducting Rs. 8,500 the estimated remuneration of village officers and the irrigation cess of Rs. 1,819 charged at 3 pies per rupee and included in the assessment of wet lands, the remaining increase will still be considerable, but it is not more than what the comparatively light assessment which hitherto prevailed in the taluk would justify. The details of the settlement are given in the subjoined table:—

Description.	Occupied lands.					Waste arable lands.
	Area in acres.	Collections of 1880—81	Average rate.	Proposed assessment.	Average rate.	Area in acres.	Proposed assessment.	Average rate.
		Rs.
Dry Crop .	18,136	781	0 0 8	6,938	0 6 1	15,917	4,013	0 4 11
Rice ...	34,074	94,854	2 12 6	1,14,973	3 6 0	4,153	11,291	2 11 6
Garden ..	297	1,788	6 0 4	1,429	4 13 0	16	56	3 8 0
	52,507	97,423	1 13 8	1,23,340	2 5 7	20,086	16,260	0 12 11

3. The area of garden land is quite inconsiderable and the assessment on the same has been reduced The dry lands are of little value in the taluk being cultivated but once in 3 or 4 years and having hitherto been held to a great extent virtually free of assessment The settlement of these lands consequently shows a considerable increase over the almost nominal assessment which they previously bore, averaging 8 pies per acre. The assessment proposed to be fixed by the survey averages 6 annas and 1 pie per acre and it cannot be considered to be pitched too high. The rice lands form the principal item of revenue and the increase shown by the settlement is chiefly derived from them. The average rate of assessment on these lands has been raised from Rs. 2—12—6 to Rs. 3—6—0 which latter rate cannot be considered high especially with the increased facilities of communication. The waste arable land bears but a small proportion to the area already under occupation.

4. His Highness' Government sanctions the proposed settlement with the usual guarantee for 30 years.

5. In view to mitigate any hardship resulting in individual cases from a sudden increase of the existing assessment, the Deputy Commissioner proposes that the increase should be given effect to gradually at the rate of 21 per cent in each year. As the increase ranges from 100 to 788 per cent, the above proposal would postpone the introduction of the survey settlement in full for several years. The arrangement is not only open to serious objection but seems uncalled for as it has not been found necessary in the taluks hitherto settled. Ordinarily the large additions to the existing assessment arise in cases in which the lands have been hitherto held at unduly low rates through fraud or other causes, and there can be no hardships in the landholders, in such cases, being called upon to pay a fair rate of assessment at once. There may, nevertheless, be instances in which the immediate enforcement of an increase of over 100 per cent may be attended with hardship. The settlement officers are authorized in such cases to give effect to only a moiety of the increase in the first year charging the full assessment in the year following

6. The report promised on the results of the coffee settlement will be awaited.

7. Separate orders are issued in regard to the treatment of the bagani toddy in the taluk.

READ—

Letter No 856 of the 18th October 1879, from the Deputy Commissioner, Hassan District, bringing forward the desirability of some ruling being laid down with respect to the renting of bagani toddy drawn from sago-palms growing in the back-yards and coffee gardens belonging to natives.

No 9096-9101—206, DATED BANGALORE, 27TH FEBRUARY 1882.

ORDER THEREON.—As the Survey settlement is about to be introduced in the Manjarabad Taluk, it becomes necessary to decide the long pending question of the bagani toddy. The subject is fully discussed in the correspondence marginally noted.

Letters Nos. 126-Rev. 19 and 169-52, dated respectively 30th May 1876 and 26th June 1873, from the Commissioner, Ashtagram Division, embodied in Chief Commissioner's Proceedings Nos 2935—G. 123 and 3037—R. 31, dated respectively the 2nd September 1873 and 23rd June 1876.

2. It is to be distinctly understood that the bagani toddy equally with the date toddy in the Maidan taluks forms an item of Government monopoly and that no one is allowed to draw and sell or consume the toddy without the payment of a fair tax for the privilege. But in order to obviate any interference with the Malnad population by contractors from outside which the Malnad ryots dislike, it has hitherto been arranged that the right to draw and sell bagani toddy in the Malnad taluks of the Hassan District should be sold by competition separately for each village and amongst the villagers alone. This arrangement will continue for the present.

3. The sale however at present includes all the trees growing within the boundaries of the village, those standing on occupied as well as on Government waste lands, the coffee estates of European planters being alone excluded. This is incompatible with the terms of the tenure proposed to be secured by the Survey settlement under which the holders of lands are secured a right to all the trees excepting sandal growing on their lands, and the Government contractor of toddy enjoys only the trees situated on Government waste lands; but as regards trees standing on occupied land the contractor is left to make his own arrangements with the land-holders for drawing toddy from their trees.

4. It is obviously desirable that the same arrangement should be extended to the Malnad taluks also. But as the bagam trees included in the village toddy rents and from which the renters draw their toddy are situated chiefly on the hittals and coffee gardens of native ryots, some risk to the Government revenue may be apprehended in at once and without qualification surrendering the right of the trees to the occupants of the lands. This will be seen from the following estimate of the bagani trees situated on the different descriptions of lands as furnished in a letter of the Commissioner of the Ashtagram Division, dated 30th May 1876, No. 126—Rev. 19.

Proceedings of the Dewan to His Highness the Maha Raja of Mysore, (Revenue),—dated 27th February 1882.

5. His Highness' Government however sees no danger in eventually if not at once introducing the same arrangement as that which prevails in the Nagar taluks, as the owners of the lands, when they find that they can derive a profit by renting the trees to the village toddy renter who can alone draw toddy from them, will find it to their interest to preserve the trees. His Highness' Government, therefore under all the circumstances, direct that when the trees on any lands are not numerous they should, under the Survey settlement, be at once made over to the owners of the lands in absolute right, leaving the village toddy renters to make their own arrangements with the land owners. But where the bagani trees situated on any occupied lands are numerous and form the chief source from which the village renter draws his toddy, the Survey Officer may, in communication with the Deputy Commissioner, arrange to bind the occupant of the land not to cut down the trees for a limited number of years. But even in this case it is not desired to make any further reservation but to leave it to the land-owner to derive a profit by renting the trees to the village toddy contractor.

6. As the contractor who has the monopoly will be able to secure the trees for a small consideration, there is no reason to apprehend that the amount of the bagani rents will suffer by this arrangement. Even if it should fall slightly, the arrangement must be regarded as a just and necessary consideration to the land-owners in calling upon them to pay an acreage assessment on their lands.

7. Unoccupied lands on which groves of bagani trees are situated should not be given out for occupation, but should continue available to the toddy renters.

8. The modifications above referred to should be attended to in all future contracts for bagani toddy and any necessary reservation should be made in the settlement for not disturbing the rights of the existing contractors during the term of their lease.

Secretary.

REVENUE

Proceedings of the Dewan to His Highness the Maha Rajah of Mysore, (Revenue),—dated 3rd March 1882.

READ—

Letter No. Camp K., dated the 15th February 1882, from the Deputy Commissioner of Hassan, stating that he is at present engaged in the coffee settlement of the Belur Taluk and asking for instructions on certain points.

No. 9140-1—354, DATED BANGALORE, 3rd MARCH 1882.

ORDER THEREON.—In the above the Deputy Commissioner of Hassan asks for instructions on certain points in connection with the settlement of the coffee lands in the Belur Taluk upon which he is engaged.

1. Whether the holders of lands who have engaged for a permanent assessment should not be allowed the trees standing on the lands without payment. There is nothing in the rules sanctioning such an exception. The permanent assessment simply secures the holders of the lands from future increase of the assessment and there is no reason why the Government in now making a settlement should not obtain a fair valuation for the trees which have hitherto been considered to be the property of the Government. It is not desired to give effect to this principle strictly in every case. Where the trees are few and of little value in remote localities, there is no objection in introducing the acreage assessment to forego any such claims in regard to them both as regards lands permanently assessed as well as those held under the 30 years' settlement. But where the trees are numerous and of the more valuable species, some arrangement will be necessary to secure the Government rights in them. Should the land-holders desire to purchase the trees, they may be made over to them at a moderate valuation stipulating for the payment of the purchase money in several annual instalments. The valuation should be based upon what the trees are likely to sell for allowing for the cost of felling and carting to a distant market. But when the land-holders do not desire to purchase the trees or where the trees form more or less heavy forests held by the planters on gross assessment, it may be necessary to continue the existing prohibitions against the cutting of the trees.

2. The Survey Superintendent is requested in communication with the Deputy Commissioners of Hassan and Kadur to give such further instructions in the matter with reference to the principles above laid down as may be found necessary, and to communicate the same to this Office.

3. The Deputy Commissioner next enquires how the hittals held under pattas within the village limits but shown by the Survey Department as Kharab and not included in the coffee numbers are to be assessed. The other hasarvani hittal lands appear to have been classed and assessed as wet or garden. But the former probably owing to their being held on coffee pattas have not yet been brought under land assessment. They should now as proposed be charged with the coffee rate of one rupee per acre, the assessment being fixed in multiples of two annas and not less than two annas in any case. The Survey Superintendent is requested to issue any further instructions he may consider necessary on the subject.

4. With reference to the above as well as to the remarks made in para 17, page 12 of the Proceedings of the last annual meeting of the Representative Ryots, the Survey Superintendent is requested to submit his opinion and proposals in regard to the assessment of lands cultivated within village sites.

R. VIJAYINDRA RAO,

To—The Deputy Commissioner of Hassan.
" Superintendent of Revenue Survey.
" Deputy Commissioners of other Districts.

Proceedings of the Dewan to His Highness the Maha Raja of Mysore, (Revenue),—dated 17th March 1882.

READ—

Letter No. 77, dated the 2nd February 1882, from the Superintendent of Revenue Survey.

No. 9466-74—275, DATED BANGALORE, 17TH MARCH 1882.

ORDER THEREON.—The Dewan has no objection to modify the order dated 29th August 1881, No. 4461-9—123, that regarding the sub-division of dry lands in taluks already surveyed, the limit of area above which sub-division is to be allowed will be left to be settled by the Deputy Commissioner and the Survey Superintendent for each taluk with reference to its circumstances. It must, however, be observed that when a general limit of 6 acres has been fixed for all taluks hereafter to be surveyed, it may be found difficult to refuse a similar concession elsewhere when applied for. The best guarantee against needless applications of the kind is the cost of erecting fresh boundary marks which, if necessary, the applicants may be asked to deposit.

R. VIJAYINDRA RAO,
Secretary.

To—The Superintendent, Revenue Survey.

Letter No. 692 of the 16th March 1882 from the Deputy Commissioner of Tumkúr reporting on a petition from Srinivasa Rao, agent of the toddy contractor of the Bellary District, complaining of the export of toddy from the Maddagiri Taluk for sale in Hindupur in the British Territories.

No. 293-300—7, DATED BANGALORE, 17TH APRIL 1882.

ORDER THEREON —The Government date trees are rented to the contractors for the extraction of toddy for sale within the limits of their farms only. Any other use of the toddy, whether for the manufacture of jaggory or for export to other places, cannot be made except under the sanction of the Government, and having regard to the great injury sustained by the trees during the famine, their insufficiency for the toddy supply of the Province and the abuses which are attendant on their export beyond the limits of the Province, such export was ordered in Proceedings dated 25th October 1880 to be stopped on the occasion of a new contract, and the Deputy Commissioner should see that this is strictly carried out. Condition VIII of the Toddy Advertisement which is also inserted in the draft agreement is sufficiently explicit on the point.

Letters from the Deputy Commissioner of the Tumkúr District Nos. 165, 182 and 257 of the 16th August, 3rd September and 23rd October 1880 respectively.

No. 301-8—8, DATED BANGALORE, 17TH APRIL 1882.

ORDER.—The holders of inam and kayamgutta villages cannot in any case be permitted to draw and sell toddy to the injury of the Government monopoly. They must sell their toddy to the Government contractor, and Condition V of the Toddy Advertisement gives the Deputy Commissioner the necessary authority to fix a reasonable rent to be paid by the contractor to the inamdars for the use of their toddy. If the inamdars are not satisfied with it, they can use their toddy for the manufacture of jaggory or otherwise use the trees, but they cannot be permitted to sell toddy to any one other than the Government contractor.

2. The occupants of Government lands in surveyed taluks are not permitted as the rules now stand to tap date trees for toddy in any case except through the Government contractor. They cannot themselves draw toddy for manufacture into jaggory.

No. 1350—481 of the 11th November 1881,

" 1934—729 of the 7th March 1882, and

Petition from Messrs. F. W. Smith and Papanna and Co., dated 29th March 1882.

No. 309-17—9, DATED BANGALORE, 17TH APRIL 1882.

ORDER.—The above letters relate chiefly to two points in the proceedings of the toddy contractors of the Kolar District regarding which it is necessary to issue definite instructions.

2. The first point is the extraction of toddy by the contractors' people from immature young date trees contrary to the provisions of Condition XI, leading to the destruction of the trees. This should of course be prevented, and any breach of the conditions renders the lessees liable to the penalty provided in the above condition which is recoverable from them as a revenue demand. Though the contractors' agents, subtenants or servants who may be guilty of the offence will in the first instance be called upon to pay the penalty, on their failing to do so, the Government must look to the contractors for the payment On the other hand the contractors urge with some force that the trees in the Kolar District are generally of stunted growth so that the limit of one yard in height cannot be arbitrarily applied to them, that the late contractors were extracting toddy from the trees of which marks are to be seen and that therefore the trees cannot be considered young and immature, and that in fact it will not pay them to tap young and immature trees and that any indiscriminate interference of officers with their work is likely to drive away their subtenants and subject them to loss.

3. The position of the contractors who are responsible for an important item of revenue of the entire District entitles them to considerate treatment, especially in a District where the resources for the supply of toddy are so limited. It will be therefore necessary to instruct the Amildars to avoid giving needless annoyance to the contractors in the matter and to take notice of only really bad cases of injury to the trees, which should further be disposed of by the Deputy Commissioner himself after proper enquiry.

4. In the case now reported, it is observed that the Deputy Commissioner has personally seen the trees though he does not give any particulars as to the number of trees injured, their age and height, and whether toddy had been extracted from them by the former contractors, &c. But having regard to the fact that the condition has not at all been enforced heretofore and to the consequent necessity of giving due warning to the contractors before the penalties are strictly enforced, the Dewan is pleased to remit the penalty imposed by the Deputy Commissioner in the case under notice. The contractors are warned that they cannot be allowed to destroy young trees by drawing toddy from them prematurely, and that the conditions of the contract bond in this respect must be strictly observed. If Government trees are found insufficient, the contractors are expected to rent trees from holders of inam lands or of occupied kandayam lands in surveyed taluks, or to import toddy from outside the District as it is believed they do at present.

5. The next point referred to is the sale of toddy by the contractors' agents without licenses, and the constant shifting of shops from village to village without any license. The contractors state that they have already furnished a list of the retail shops to the Deputy Commissioner in which case it remains with that officer to issue the necessary licenses for them. The licenses as already directed are to be furnished to the renters who will issue them to their retail vendors. When changes take place amongst the retail vendors, the contractors will be expected to apply to the Deputy Commissioner for the alteration of the name in the license without delay, but the sales at the licensed shop need not be stopped pending the issue of the altered license. Changes of the locality of the shops or any increase in the number of shops require the previous sanction of the Deputy Commissioner, which will be promptly accorded when no objection on public grounds exists. The contractors will be expected to conform to these instructions strictly and any neglect on their part to obtain the necessary licenses will subject them to the prescribed penalties.

6. The Deputy Commissioner enquires whether retail toddy shops changed from one place to another are to be taxed with fresh mohatarfa as new shops. They need be so treated only when they are changed to another village and not within the limits of the same village in which they were originally situated.

7. Lastly the Deputy Commissioner brings to notice that Rs. 50 yet remain to be paid by the contractors to make up the amount of the security and that the contractors have not responded to the notices issued by him on the subject. The contractors state that they have not received the notice referred to. From the Deputy Commissioner's letters he would appear to have addressed Arunachalam Mudaliar, one of the contractors, on matters requiring reference to them. The contractors, as per orders sanctioning the contract, are Mr. F. W. Smith, Nilgiri Papanna and Arunachalam Mudaliar, to whom the references should be addressed unless they elect to appoint one of them or any other agent for the management of the toddy contract in Kolar and intimate the same to this Office or to the Deputy Commissioner.

8. Separate orders have been issued in regard to the execution of the contract bond without any further delay. The contractors cannot be permitted to delay the matter any longer.

Letter No. 171, dated 25th July 1881, from the Deputy Commissioner, Mysore District.

No. 318-26—10, DATED BANGALORE, 17TH APRIL 1882.

ORDER.—Having regard to the extreme uncertainty of success attending the proposals made for the manufacture of Colombo arrack and the needless interference which it might occasion with the arrack contract, it is not deemed expedient to recognize any applications on the subject from other than the arrack contractors There is no objection to permitting the arrack contractors, should they desire it, to manufacture and sell Colombo arrack within the limits of their contract at the same rates of duty as are levied on arrack and subject to all the rules and restrictions applicable to the manufacture and sale of arrack. They may on similar terms be permitted to import and sell Colombo arrack, but the article should be required to be brought into the Distillery under proper passes, and issued from it subject to the rates of duty and regulations applicable to arrack.

2. Messrs. Davy, Muddappa and Co. are accordingly authorized to manufacture Colombo arrack at the Kukarhalli Distillery near Mysore during the period of their arrack contract, and to sell the same within the limits of their contract subject to the rates of duty and rules applicable to arrack.

3 The application of Messrs. Straw Dee and Co. to manufacture spirits on the European principle cannot for the above reasons be complied with.

Also docket No. 473, dated 12th February 1881, from the Deputy Commissioner of Mysore and letter No. 295 of the 25th August 1881 from the Deputy Commissioner of Kadur District.

No. 329-36—11, DATED BANGALORE, 17TH APRIL 1882.

ORDER.—It is not desirable that any further delay should occur in the execution of the agreements by the arrack and toddy contractors of the several Districts, and the Deputy Commissioners concerned are requested to lose no time in getting the documents formally executed. There is considerable variety in the wording of the draft agreements received from the several Districts. As this should be avoided and as the agreements should conform as far as practicable to the wording of the advertisements issued for the respective contracts, revised draft forms of agreements for the arrack and toddy contracts are herewith forwarded, and the Deputy Commissioner are requested to conform to the same, and if, as it is not likely, any alterations are found necessary, to report the same to this Office at once.

2. It is necessary to determine the stamp duty chargeable on these documents Hitherto, in some cases, these agreements were treated as bonds for the payment of a sum equal to the total amount of the rent for the whole period of the lease. In other cases again, the duty was charged on the amount of the annual rent. The latter would be the proper rate of duty if the transaction could be treated as a lease, but the term "Lease" in the Stamp Act is restricted to the lease of immovable property In the Madras Presidency, similar documents appear to be treated as agreements under Article 5 (c), Schedule I of the Stamp Act, and this seems to be the more correct view of the subject. These documents are not simply bonds executed by the contractors to the Government, but are of the nature of agreements entered into between the contractors and the Government for the rent of the abkari revenue, which is recoverable in accordance with the revenue rules. The Dewan under the circumstances directs that the documents be charged with a stamp duty of eight annas under Article 5 (c), Schedule I of the Stamp Act.

3. The Deputy Commissioner of Hassan suggests that a stipulation should be introduced in the toddy contract providing that the liquor shall be sold only by licensed vendors, but as this is provided for in the Excise Act, no separate condition to that effect is necessary in the contract bond.

4. The Deputy Commissioner of Mysore has detailed in the draft arrack agreement the proportions of the several ingredients to be used in the manufacture of the arrack, and the Deputy Commissioner of Bangalore has several detailed provisions as per extract annexed regarding the quantity of arrack to be kept in stock, the hours of manufacture, the rules to be observed in the issue of the arrack, the cleanliness of the vessels used in the manufacture and general sanitary arrangements, and protection from fire, keeping of accounts in wholesale shops and the measures to be used. These will be best provided for by separate bye-laws issued from time to time under the general provisions of the contract bond.

5. The license fees on the retail shops and the levy of 4 annas per gallon on sales above 55 gallons are matters relating to the retail shops which are taken away from the management of the contractors and need not therefore be provided for in the agreement.

6. With reference to the Bangalore Deputy Commissioner's proposal that in the event of any breach of conditions the contract should be resold at the risk of the contractors, it must be observed that such condition was intentionally left out in the sale advertisement as in the case of the arrack contract which simply guarantees a minimum rent the loss from resale is not easily calculated as in the case of toddy contracts which are given for a definite amount of rent.

To—The Deputy Commissioners of Districts.

Proceedings of the Dewan to His Highness the Maha Raja of Mysore, (Revenue),—dated 17th April 1882.

This agreement is entered into the day of one thousand, eight-hundred and eighty-two, between the Deputy Commissioner of the District for the time being, on behalf of the Government of Mysore on the one part, and on the other, for the exclusive privilege of selling toddy in the District of for three years, viz. from 1st April 1881 to 31st March 1884, both days inclusive.

Whereas the said Government of Mysore has agreed to lease to the said the exclusive privilege of vending toddy within the District of from 1st April 1881 to 31st March 1884, both days inclusive, the said do hereby engage to pay to the said Government of Mysore, a rent of Rs. per annum for the whole period of the contract besides a local cess of one anna per rupee on the amount of the rent and to deposit with the said Government as security for the due fulfilment of their engagements the sum of Rs. as particularized in the schedule annexed, being equal to one-fourth of the annual rent, and to abide by the following conditions. And they further hereby bind themselves, their heirs, executors and representatives by the terms of this agreement.

Conditions.

I. The amount of the annual rent aforesaid shall be paid by equal monthly instalments, together with the prescribed local cess of one anna on every rupee, computed on such amount, into the District Treasury, on or before the 15th of the month following that for which the payment is due; and interest at the rate of 6 per cent per annum shall be paid on all arrears left outstanding on that date. Such arrears shall, if they remain unpaid after the lapse of the month in which they are payable, be recoverable by attachment and sale of the property of the lessee in the manner prescribed by existing rules for the recovery of arrears of land revenue and it shall be at the discretion of the Deputy Commissioner with the sanction of the Government to declare the lease cancelled, and to resell or retain it under Government management and to recover all outstanding arrears with interest and any losses which may result from such resale or disposal of the contract, by confiscation of the security deposited, and, if necessary, by attachment and sale of the property of the defaulter, under the rules in force for the recovery of arrears of land revenue.

II. The usual licenses to retail vendors will be issued by the Deputy Commissioner, and no alteration shall be made by the lessee in the locality or number of the retail shops now opened for sale of toddy, without the express sanction of the Deputy Commissioner. The Deputy Commissioner is competent to order any shops to be closed on grounds of public expediency.

III. Grain, goods, ornaments, wearing apparel or other property should not be received in barter or pawn for toddy.

IV. The lessee shall conform to any additional rules which may be prescribed from time to time by the Government.

V. No interference shall be made by the lessee with the rights, as already ascertained and defined, of the holders of jodi, sarvamanyam and kayamgutta villages who are authorized by the sannad, &c., to exercise such rights within the limits of their villages. Disputes regarding such rights will be decided by the Deputy Commissioner and the lessee shall be bound by such decision, which shall be subject however to the confirmation or otherwise, on appeal, of the Government.

VI. No toddy shops shall be opened before 6 A. M. and all shops shall be closed at 9 P. M., except when otherwise authorized by the Deputy Commissioner.

VII. All shops for the sale of toddy on or adjacent to the line of march shall be closed while a Regiment or Detachment of European soldiers is passing by, or during its temporary halt in the vicinity, and no compensation shall be claimable for loss alleged to have occurred or to have been occasioned thereby and it shall be lawful for such troops to have their own abkari contractor.

VIII. The lessee will be allowed the use of the date trees growing on Government waste land for the extraction of toddy either for sale within the limits of his farm, or for manufacture into jaggery, but he will have no claims to date trees situated in lands which are now or may hereafter be occupied for cultivation or for other purposes, nor to compensation on account of any date trees or topes, which the Government may, at any time, consider necessary to reserve for other purposes, or for the supply of toddy to other Districts. The manufacture of jaggory will be carried on only in such localities and under such conditions as the Deputy Commissioner may fix from time to time.

IX. The lessee will have no claims to compensation or remission on account of any arrangements which may be made by Government in regard to beer or other descriptions of liquor or spirit than toddy. The Government reserves to itself the power to terminate the lease as regards any parts of the District on public grounds, awarding a reasonable compensation for the same.

X. No toddy shall be knowingly sold or given to any European soldier, sailor, European or Eurasian woman or child, or to a sepoy or policeman when on duty, and any breach of this rule shall render the lessee or the vendor severally or jointly liable to the payment of a penalty of Rs. 50 for the first offence, and one-hundred rupees for every subsequent offence, as well as for the cancelment of the vendor's license.

XI. The lessee shall be responsible that his servants or agents are prevented from extracting toddy from young immature date trees, the trunks of which are less than one yard in height from the ground to the springing of the branches, nor shall any leaves be cut and used by them except such as may have to be removed for the purpose of drawing toddy; and any breach of these rules shall render the lessee liable to the payment of a penalty of Rs. 50 for the first offence, and Rs. 100 for every subsequent offence.

XII. The rates at which toddy shall be sold to the public shall be as follows :—

Proceedings of the Dewan to His Highness the Maha Raja of Mysore, (Revenue),—dated 17th April 1882.

This agreement is entered into the day of one thousand, eight-hundred and eighty two, between the Deputy Commissioner of the District for the time being, on behalf of the Government of Mysore on the one part, and on the other, for the exclusive privilege of the manufacture and wholesale vend of arrack in the Districts of for a period of 3 years from 1st April 1881 to 31st March 1884, both days inclusive.

Whereas the said Government of Mysore has agreed to lease to the said the exclusive privilege of the manufacture and wholesale vend of arrack in the Districts of from 1st April 1881 to 31st March 1884, the said do hereby engage to pay to the said Government of Mysore still-head duty and local cess at the rates hereunder specified on the arrack issued by them for consumption within the limits of the above mentioned Districts, and to guarantee to the Government a minimum revenue from the aforesaid duty and cess of Rs. for each year of the contract, and to deposit with the Government as security for the due fulfilment of their engagements the sum of Rs. as particularized in the schedule annexed being equal to one-fourth of the annual minimum revenue guaranteed and to abide by the following conditions. And they further hereby bind themselves, their heirs, executors and representatives by the terms of this agreement.

Conditions.

I. The privilege hereby granted to the contractors does not include the manufacture or sale of toddy, of European wines and spirits, or of Beer, or of Akkibhoja or spirit distilled from paddy.

II. The minimum annual revenue guaranteed shall be payable to Government in twelve equal monthly instalments. The contractors shall pay into the District Treasury of the whole amount of the duty inclusive of the local cess payable to Government at the rates engaged for on the arrack issued from the Distillery in each month on or before the 15th of the following month. If the duty payable on the issues of arrack up to the end of any month be not sufficient to make up the amount of the monthly instalments of the minimum guaranteed revenue up to that month, the contractors shall pay such further sum as may be required to make up the deficiency. If the above payments are not made on or before the 15th of the month following that for which they are due, interest at the rate of 6 per cent per annum will be charged from that date on all the arrears outstanding; and should the default continue after the lapse of the month in which the payments are due, the arrears with the interest due shall be recovered by attachment and sale of the property of the contractors in the manner provided for by the rules in force for the recovery of arrears of land revenue. And it shall further be at the discretion of the Deputy Commissioner with the sanction of the Government to declare the contract cancelled and to take the deposit made by the contractor as a forfeiture to Government.

III. The accounts for each year shall be closed separately. If the duty payable to Government on the arrack issued during the year exceed the minimum revenue guaranteed for the year, the contractors will be allowed a deduction from the duty payable by them equal to one anna in the rupee on the amount of such excess. But the excess of one year will not be available to make up any deficiency in the amount of the guaranteed revenue of any other year of the contract.

IV. The contractors or the licensed distillers shall manufacture arrack within the enclosure of the Government Distillery near or at such other place as may be fixed by the Deputy Commissioner, and to establish wholesale depôts in such places as shall be appointed by the Deputy Commissioner. The Distillery and depôts shall be open at all times for inspection by the Deputy Commissioner or any official appointed for that purpose. The manufacture and issue of the arrack shall be subject to such rules as may be laid down from time to time by the Deputy Commissioner. No arrack shall be taken out of the Distillery until it has been gauged and tested by an official appointed for that purpose. The contractors shall further pay monthly to Government, a rent of Rs. for the use of the Distillery buildings, calculated at the rate of 6 per cent interest on the value of those buildings; and to keep the said buildings in a state of thorough repair. The contractors shall take over any arrack distilled by the previous contractors which may remain as stock on hand on the 1st of April 1881, paying to them such compensation for the same as may be fixed by the Deputy Commissioner with the sanction of the Government.

V. The arrack manufactured shall be of good quality. The articles used in distilling shall be approved by the Deputy Commissioner and be of good quality, and shall be shown to, and passed by, the Distillery Supervisor or other official appointed for the purpose before being received into the Distillery. No ingredients obnoxious to health shall be used in distilling, or put into the arrack after it has been made.

VI. The contractors shall keep true and correct accounts of their receipts and disbursements, and of the quantity and strength of the spirits manufactured, received and issued in the Distillery and in each depôt, and produce them whenever required to do so for inspection by the Deputy Commissioner or any official appointed for the purpose.

VII. The distillers shall be bound always to have a month's supply of liquor in store, and in order that this may be the case from 1st April 1881, they will be allowed to commence distilling before that date, provided that no liquor so distilled shall be sold or passed out of his custody or that of his employés before the 1st April 1881.

VIII. The contractors shall be allowed to have wholesale shops in all kasbas and large towns approved of by the Deputy Commissioner, and shall pay the prescribed license fee of Rs. 2 per shop per month.

IX. The contractors shall not sell arrack by retail either in the Distillery or in the wholesale shops.

X. The retail shops will be under the management of the Deputy Commissioners of the Districts, and in Municipal towns, where so ordered by the Government under the Municipal President or Vice President of such towns; and no new retail shops shall be opened, except with their sanction and at the places appointed by them, and they are competent to order any shops to be closed on grounds of public expediency without any claim to compensation on the part of the contractors.

XI. Licenses for the retail shops will be issued in the usual form by the above officers on payment of such rates of license fees as may from time to time be fixed by the Government.

The licenses will provide for the sale of the arrack at the regulated prices and at the prescribed strength and for other necessary conditions. The retail vendors will be required to procure their liquor from such wholesale shops as may be named by the contractors. They will also be required to permit the contractors or their agent or any public servant duly authorized free access to their shops in order to see that no irregularities take place, and to keep true and correct accounts of the quantity and strength of liquor received by them each day, and the prices charged for the same, and to produce the accounts for inspection whenever required by the contractors or their agents, or any Government official authorized to call for them.

XII. The following rules regarding the issue of the arrack from the Distillery shall be observed :—

(a) No arrack shall ordinarily be issued at a strength above 20° under proof; but should the distiller or retail vendor desire to issue at a higher strength than the above, the spirit so issued shall not be of a greater strength than proof, except on special passes granted by the Deputy Commissioner.

(b) All liquor issued at a strength above 20° under proof and up to proof shall be charged the duty on proof, the rate on above proof being raised proportionately.

(c) No spirit below 20° under proof shall be ordinarily issued from the Distillery, but should there be a demand for liquor of lower strength than 20° under proof, liquor at 30° under proof may be specially issued from the Distillery at proportionately reduced rates of duty, such liquor being kept and accounted for separately both in the wholesale depôts and in the retail shops.

Proceedings of the Dewan to His Highness the Maha Raja of Mysore, (Revenue),—dated 17th April 1882.

XIII. The arrack shall be sold as issued from the Distillery and shall not be adulterated or diluted in any manner either in the wholesale or retail shops.

XIV. The prices at which the arrack shall be sold (unadulterated and undiluted) at the wholesale and retail shops shall be according to the following scale:—

		Proof.						20° Under Proof.						30° Under Proof.
		Per Gallon.			Per Dram.			Per Gallon.			Per Dram.			Per Gallon.			Per Dram.

XV. On account of wastage, a discount or deduction of 2 per cent shall be allowed on the duty payable on liquor issued from the Distillery to wholesale depôts for sale beyond the municipal limits of the town of

XVI. The contractors shall cause every person whom they may employ to superintend Distilleries or wholesale shops or depôts, to execute previous to such employment, such engagements as are compatible with the above conditions, and such engagements shall be deposited with the Deputy Commissioner within one month from the 1st April 1881. They shall moreover use their best endeavours to secure on the part of all persons employed by them in the manufacture, carriage and sale of arrack, a strict adherence to the provisions of the engagements entered into by them, and of the law, and if it come to their knowledge that a breach of those provisions has been committed, they shall bring the circumstance to the notice of the Deputy Commissioner of the District in which the breach took place, in order that the penalties prescribed for the offence may be enforced, and further dismiss the offender from their service, if required so to do by the Deputy Commissioner.

XVII. The contractors shall conform to any additional rules that may be prescribed, from time to time, by the Government not inconsistent with the terms of the contract.

XVIII. If any wilful breach of any of the above conditions is committed by the contractors, or at their connivance and privity by any of the men employed by them in the manufacture, carriage or sale of arrack, the Deputy Commissioner shall have power with the sanction of the Government to cancel the contract and declare the deposit forfeited.

XIX. The Government is at liberty to authorize the manufacture or sale by separate contractors or otherwise, of Colombo arrack or any description of arrack other than that ordinarily manufactured by the contractors, allowing him a reduction in the amount of the guaranteed revenue equal to the amount of duty realized by Government on such arrack issued within the limits of the Districts comprised in the contract.

XX. This contract shall not be transferable except with the consent of the Government.

ORDER.—In Proceedings No. 4887—51 of the 16th August 1877, license fees for retail arrack shops were fixed at the rates noted in the margin, but these rates have not been strictly followed in all the Districts, while in the Mysore Town a higher rate of Rs. 20 per month is charged. The arbitrary enforcement of the above rates operates with inconvenience. Whilst in some of the larger towns the rate of Rs. 15, and even of Rs. 20 per month may not secure a sufficient return from shops with large sales, the above rates are found too heavy for other shops which though in the same towns are not so favorably situated. The Taluk kasbas are not all of the same importance and the distinction of Hobli kasbas from villages is one without any significance and can scarcely be required.

Rs 15 per mensem in Town.
„ 8 per mensem in Taluk kasbas.
„ 4 per mensem in Hobli kasbas.
„ 2 per mensem in Villages.

2. The Dewan considers that the following rates will better meet the circumstances of the case, and he directs that the same may be adopted from the current official year in all the Districts:—

Large Towns, viz. Bangalore, Mysore and Shimoga, and if found applicable Chikmagalur also.	15 Rs. per month with 4 annas in addition on each gallon sold in the month in excess of 60 gallons.
Other District Head-quarters and the larger Taluk kasbas to be determined by the Deputy Commissioner with reference to population and importance.	10 Rs. per month with 4 annas in addition on each gallon sold in the month in excess of 40 gallons.
Other Taluk kasbas.	6 Rs. per month with 4 annas in addition on each gallon sold in the month in excess of 24 gallons.
Villages.	2 Rs. per month with 4 annas in addition on each gallon sold in the month in excess of 8 gallons.

3. These rates, while providing a proper minimum for all shops at each class of station below which it cannot be desirable to permit the opening of shops, secure to Government a fair share of the profit derivable from larger sales. The sales are easily ascertainable from the accounts of issues under the excise system.

4. Any different arrangements carried out for last year need not be disturbed.

Proceedings of the Dewan to His Highness the Maha Raja of Mysore, (Revenue),—dated 18th April 1882.

5. The proposal of the Deputy Commissioner of Shimoga to rent out all the shops in Shimoga to a single person who offers the highest rate for them is open to serious objection, and the arrangement should be at once stopped. The shops under the present excise system are in no instance to be put up to competition. Those who previously held the shops and their heirs ought to be given preference if they are well conducted and able to discharge their obligations. If there are no such claimants, the shops may be granted to other well conducted applicants with reference to their circumstances and claims. No addition to the existing number of shops is to be sanctioned except on grounds of real public necessity. The mere fact of a person applying to establish a shop at a new place is not a sufficient ground for granting the application. It is of importance that the shops should be limited to as moderate a number as practicable with due regard to the interests and convenience of the public.

No. 375—13, DATED BANGALORE, 18TH APRIL 1882.

ORDER.—The manufacture and sale of Akki Bhoja in the Malnad taluks has been separated from the arrack contracts, and it now rests with the Deputy Commissioners to take the necessary steps to authorize the manufacture. The manufacture and sale should not be permitted in the larger kasba towns where it might interfere with the sale of arrack, but may be allowed in the villages on licenses charged with fair rates of fees. The Deputy Commissioners concerned should report, after enquiry into the circumstances connected with the consumption and the profits to be made by it, what would be the proper rates of license fees to be charged. The fees must vary for persons wishing to manufacture for private consumption by their own families and for those who propose to manufacture for sale. It will be desirable to prohibit the manufacturers from carrying the article beyond the limits of their villages, and other usual stipulations should be entered in the license to prevent disorderly conduct and other irregular practices in the shops.

Letter from the Deputy Commissioner of the Hassan District No. 3107—936 of the 11th February 1882.

No. 376—14, DATED BANGALORE, 18TH APRIL 1882.

ORDER THEREON.—The Deputy Commissioner proposes to bring the sale of the Bagani toddy under strict regulations, prescribing the place and hours of sale, the quantity to be sold and the prices to be charged, and requiring that licenses should be taken out by the sellers. The Dewan is opposed to introducing any innovation in existing practice without consulting the wishes of the Malnad population who are likely to be affected by it. The bagani toddy rents are sold by villages, so that the renters will not be at liberty to sell beyond the limits of their own village and any system of licenses for them or their servants selling the toddy may entail needless hardship. Bagani toddy taken beyond the villages and sold to the general public at the fairs are charged separately at prescribed rates per pot of toddy by the separate contractor who purchases the right to the same under the name of Kylejajjary. Any alteration in these arrangements which at present work smoothly would require careful consideration.

2. It can scarcely be required to fix the prices. A minimum price is in any case objectionable. Selling after a certain hour in the night may be prohibited. Any specific proposals made with due regard to the above points and after ascertaining the wishes and convenience of the people will be taken into consideration.

Docket No. 414 of the 7th November 1881, from the Deputy Commissioner of Kadur.

No. 390-3—24, DATED BANGALORE, 19TH APRIL 1882.

ORDER THEREON.—If lands are held on the full coffee acreage assessment, it is not clear how a right to the trees could be withheld from the landholders, who must clear the trees and bring the lands under cultivation to be able to pay the assessment. At the same time, the Government have a right to the present value of the reserved trees on the lands, which can be fixed at moderate but not nominal rates and collected at once or in instalments or on the felling and sale of the timber by the owners But the planter cannot be expected to go on paying assessment on the lands as he must do under the rules, keeping the trees for the benefit of the Government. It is not necessary for the purposes of the above valuation that the cubical contents of the trees should be calculated. It will suffice to fix a rough valuation on the approximate number and general size of the trees allowing for the cost of cutting and transport.

2. The above remarks apply to lands paying the full acreage assessment, upon which it is presumed there are not likely to be many trees. The forests of valuable trees referred to must be mostly situated on lands held on grass assessment, which conveys a right to the pasturage only and upon which the trees now standing will be properly reserved unless the owners of the estates are prepared to pay the proper value of the trees and thereby obtain the right to them. The Deputy Commissioners concerned should report if any difficulties are apprehended or any objection exists in carrying out the settlement in the above manner, and should also bring specially to notice the circumstances of any valuable forests situated on coffee estates which they deem it necessary to reserve.

Letter No. 3231 of the 25th February 1882, from the Deputy Commissioner of Hassan.

No. 395--15, DATED BANGALORE, 19th APRIL 1882.

ORDER THEREON.—If neither the Kartika nor the Vaisakha crops were raised on the wet lands referred to during the year, the lands will of course be entitled to the remission of ½ assessment prescribed by the rules. As the Vaisakha cultivation does not commence till very nearly the end of the official year, the remission should not be granted till the non cultivation of the lands finally is satisfactorily ascertained by the inspection of proper officers. The cases in which the lands are waste and there is no probability of their being cultivated with Vaisakha crops should be noted at the time of jamabandi, and a further inspection of the lands should be made by the Shekdars and the higher Taluk Officers with occasional test examination by the District Officers also when the season for cultivation is past and the remissions should be granted only after this inspection.

Proceedings of the Dewan to His Highness the Maha Raja of Mysore, (Revenue),—dated 25th April 1882.

From the Superintendent, Revenue Survey and Assessment, Mysore, To the Secretary to the Dewan to His Highness the Maha Raja of Mysore, No. 169, dated Saklespur, 18th March 1882.

I have the honor to forward the marginally noted papers relating to the revision of the assessment of the still unsettled portion of the Hassan Taluk.

1. Survey Superintendent's Report No. 131 of the 6th March 1882, with its accompaniments

2. Hassan District Deputy Commissioner's letter No. 3430—1270 of the 15th ulem with 1 enclosure.

2. The Deputy Commissioner, it will be seen, concurs in the suitability of the rates proposed, his concurrence in one or two points of subsidiary importance being, however, not quite unqualified. To these latter I will briefly allude.

3. First, with reference to the gardens of the Madihalli magani the proposed assessment of which the Deputy Commissioner considers light, when taken in conjunction with the garden rates in force in the Belur Taluk. The detailed statements for the villages specified are not at hand, they having been sent to head-quarters for the preparation of the akarbands. The gardens in question are however to my knowledge of a very ordinary description and in poor condition and I was unwilling to assess them much higher than rice land enjoying similar water supply. No doubt the tendency, of late years, of our settlements has been to approximate garden rates more closely to those adopted for rice, a procedure in accordance, I believe, with the wishes of Government, now that all the Taluks in which gardens are of any great extent and special value have been settled. The garden rates in the Belur villages quoted by the Deputy Commissioner average Rs. 7 per acre, intrinsically a light rate for garden. Those now under discussion in the Madihalli magani average Rs. 4 and 5 per acre. This is no great difference in garden land assessment and it is scarcely probable that the circumstances of these gardens in Belur and in Hassan can be precisely the same, or that no difference of assessment should be called for. As regards the complaints of high garden assessment in the Belur Taluk generally, the working of the settlement should be judged from the accounts and individual complaints carefully enquired into, oral testimony furnished by the parties concerned being in my experience comparatively worthless The average rate on the occupied gardens of the Belur Taluk was only Rs. 5—1—5 per acre.

4. In para 4 the Deputy Commissioner remarks upon the garden rates in some villages being higher on the waste than on the occupied land. This of course must be due to the soil and water being superior in the former. Perhaps these waste lands were for this very reason more highly assessed, formerly, and on that account relinquished. I quite agree with the Deputy Commissioner in thinking these waste gardens may be again taken up for cultivation.

5. I am very glad to find such unqualified approval by the Deputy Commissioner of the rice and dry rates. I most heartily endorse the views expressed by the Deputy Commissioner regarding the necessity of spending the contribution to the Irrigation Fund in its entirety, and locally. There will be no lack of fitting objects and I certainly think that the strict observance of the rule of not spending anything upon the repair of tanks with a revenue of less than 100 Rs. will be suicidal as regards Government's own interests. The revenue actually paid on the lands under any particular tank appears to me to be of less importance than the possible revenue under such tank. This subject is too extensive to admit of its being dealt with in a report of this nature. Enough however has been said to show that the increase of the assessment of the rice lands is as necessary as it is prudent. The same remark applies to the general increase by the settlement, when it is considered that the pay of village officers has to be provided and that there may be considerable resignations of land.

6. The next point, and one which the Deputy Commissioner considers of very great importance, is the concession to ryots, whose assessment the settlement has had the effect of raising more than 100 per cent, of levying only half the increase in the 1st year. In the Manjarabad Taluk the settlement of which is now far advanced. I have not found a single instance in which I considered it necessary to pass any special orders to the effect in question. The rates have been received so well and have been considered so moderate that their weight was not taken into account by a ryot in regulating the extent of his holding. He kept as much of his land as he wanted, and no more, and no concession would have induced him to keep what he could not cultivate. The truth is that land is in great request here and resignations are of rare occurrence, excepting as regards some of the dry lands. I could not of course tell the people beforehand that the concession in question was open to them; had I done so every ryot would, as a matter of course, have asked for it. I could only watch the effect of the settlement and I can positively state that I saw no instance of increase in which any hardship appeared to me to be entailed. I think that if any concession of this kind is made it should be general and not exceptional. Then comes the difficulty of extreme cases, such for instance as a ryot's assessment being raised from 4 annas to say Rs. 1—8, by no means an uncommon occurrence. There really is no object in remitting half the increase for the first year in such a case as this, indeed my own opinion is that moderate rates will never deter a ryot from keeping any land he wants and, if he does not want it, it would be a positive mistake to try and induce him to keep it. I fully appreciate the motives which have induced the Deputy Commissioner to try and provide against cases of hardship, but I unfortunately cannot view the question in the same light as he does. I must leave the matter in the hands of Government stating only my opinion that any concession must be general and not exceptional.

7. I shall be prepared to commence giving out the rates very early next month and I trust therefore that sanction to the proposed settlement may be accorded as soon as possible.

Proceedings of the Dewan to His Highness the Maha Raja of Mysore, (Revenue,)— dated 25th April 1882.

From the Superintendent, Mysore Revenue Survey, To the Secretary to the Dewan of Mysore, No. 131, dated Seshadripur, 6th March 1882.

I have the honor to submit the following proposals regarding revision of the assessment in the whole of the unsettled portion of the Hassan Taluk of the District of the same name. The three maganis of Alur, Chikkanagal and Palya have already been settled under the sanction conveyed in the Government of Mysore Proceedings No. 516-2—4 R, dated the 22nd April 1881.

Mr. Butcher's report appended

2. Accompanying this letter is a report by the officer in charge of classing operations which affords interesting information and renders it quite unnecessary for me to go over the same ground again, excepting as regards a few salient points immediately bearing upon the subject of this report. I must request that Mr. Butcher's figures, on all points of statistics, may be kept out of sight as at the early date on which he wrote his report his information was necessarily imperfect.

Ancient sub-divisions.

3. The villages under report comprise the following maganis or ancient sub-divisions :—

No.	Name of Magani.	Government Villages.	Inam Villages.	Kavals.	Total.	Remarks.
1	2	3	4	5	6	7
1	Hassan	81	5	...	86
2	Grama	65	1	10	76
3	Kaushika*	59	3	3	65	*Includes 6 villages and 1 kaval recently transferred from the Arkalgúd Taluk.
4	Kanagal	40	2	2	44
5	Madihalli	25	1	1	27
6	Salgame	41	...	3	44
7	Honnavara	46	3	3	52
8	Atavara	43	1	3	47

General description.

4. The tract under report occupies a very favorable position on the plateau of Mysore. It is usually considered to be a maidan or plain taluk, but the proximity of the western ghats and jungles secures for it both a more pleasant and a more certain climate than in the ordinary plain taluk of the Province. The central and western villages are closely packed, with sufficient, but not excessive, pasture land, but to the east the villages are far apart, with large stretches of waste between more than sufficient for the ordinary grazing wants of the people and consequently there is room for sheep which are maintained in fairly large numbers. The soils which run through many gradations, from light sandy gray to rich dark brown, are superior in the vicinity of the Yagachi river, which forms the western boundary of the tract, deteriorating on the uplands as the river is receded from.

Climate and products.

5. The rain-fall averages about 30 inches and is unequally distributed, being heaviest to the west. Ragi is the staple crop in dry lands and, in the wet, rice with a fair proportion of sugar-cane under the larger irrigation works. There are some good gardens producing supari, cocoanut, panvel, plantains and minor produce, but these have suffered a good deal from the drought attendant on the late famine. With reference to dry crops I would draw attention to Mr Butcher's para 9 from which it will be observed that the dry lands in the western part produce "Gid Ragi" which is sown early and is followed by a second crop suitable to the soil such as horse-gram and Bengal-gram. In this fact we have a clear indication of superiority of climate.

Roads.

6. The means of communication are, on the whole, excellent, roads from every direction converging at the town of Hassan. These are fully described in Mr. Butcher's para 7.

Proceedings of the Dewan to His Highness the Maha Raja of Mysore, (Revenue),—dated 25th April 1882.

7. The following statement shows the statistics collected by the Classing Establishments during classification :—

Statistics

No. of Villages.	Houses.	Population.	Square miles.	Cattle.	Carts.	Ploughs.	Markets.	Remarks.
1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
400	12,269	55,901	*283	134,206	1,007	11,989	5	*Does not include inam villages and kavals.

8. We have, in the above figures, evidence of agricultural prosperity somewhat in advance of the Taluks of the District as yet settled. Making allowance for 16 inam villages not dealt with in this report, the population of 55,901 souls shown above tallies pretty fairly with the results of the recent Census which are, as stated by Mr. Butcher, 65,000. The Classers' returns show a somewhat lower figure being, very naturally, limited more strictly to the agricultural population; but I must observe that for the town of Hassan the Census figures have been substituted for the Classers' figures thereby reducing the chance of error. There has of course been a considerable reduction in the population by the recent famine, although Hassan is classed amongst those taluks which were not very severely affected. The population to the square mile in the 400 Government villages under report is 198, that is to the gross area, but to the occupied square mile it is 454 which must be considered high. These results are of course greatly contributed to by the comparatively large non-agricultural population of the town of Hassan. The maganis of Hassan, Kaushika, Kanagal, Madihalli and a part of Salgame are more thickly populated not only to the gross but to the occupied area than the remaining magani's of Grama, Honnavara, Atavara and the northern portion of Salgame.

9. The manner in which the villages under report have been divided up by survey may appropriately be shown here —

Division of lands by Survey.

Description of Land.	Government.		Inam.		Total Government and Inam.		Grand Total, Government and Inam.
	Occupied acres.	Waste acres.	Occupied acres.	Waste acres	Occupied acres.	Waste acres.

Area of 16 inam villages							14,762
Gross area of the tract under report, i. e. 367 square miles							2,34,979

10. The most noticeable feature in the above figures is the very large proportion of waste arable land, both wet and dry, to the cultivated area. We have here a pretty clear proof that the old assessment must have borne unequally, and very often heavily, upon the ryots. No doubt the famine has been the cause of a large extent of land becoming waste, but making every allowance for this fact, the unoccupied area is very large. When, in a comparatively well-to-do tract, a large extent of fairly good land is found lying waste it is not unreasonable to suppose that the rates have been prohibitive and the lesson to be read is that in substituting for the old assessment one based upon the actual capability of the land, and equally distributed, an extension of cultivation may reasonably be expected ere long, while at the same time the desirability of moderation in the new assessment is clearly indicated.

Waste lands

Proceedings of the Dewan to His Highness the Maha Raja of Mysore.
(Revenue),—dated 25th April 1882.

Past revenue management.

11. I do not propose to say much regarding the past assessment and revenue management generally the information forthcoming on both these points being very limited. We know that the settlement was ryotvar and that the assessment is supposed to be based upon fixed rates, tables of which are readily produced; but in the absence of any true record of the area of each field, those rates, it is obvious, can never have had any practical existence. It is better, in order to judge approximately of the weight of the old assessment, to apply the survey area to the collections of 1881. This is done below :—

Description.	Acres by Survey.	Collections of 1880—81.	Average Rate.
1	2	3	4
Garden	2,725	10,722	3 14 11
Rice	12,199	42,086	3 7 2
Dry Crop	56,024	60,830	1 1 5
Total.....	70,948	1,13,638	1 9 8

12. In the above statement the general incidence of the old assessment is alone shown; its application to villages, holdings and individual fields is a very different matter and will be touched upon further on. In the case of an equally distributed assessment I should not consider the average rates, as above shown, by any means high, but I do so regard them when the extraordinary inequalities, in the case under report, are considered. When we bear in mind that in whole villages the assessment is little or nothing at the expense of other villages where it is very high and that this inequality is still further intensified in individual holdings, an average rate of Rs. 3—7—2, for wet and Rs. 1—1—4 for dry land is by no means low.

Past collections and prices.

13. The following statement shows the realizations in the villages under report for the last 25 years. To save space the prices of ragi and rice are given side by side with the collections :—

Proceedings of the Dewan to His Highness the Maha Raja of Mysore, (Revenue),—dated 25th April 1882.

14. Cultivation and consequently the revenue increased, it will be observed, with the high prices of 1863, and again in 1866, but when the famine gave rise to still higher prices there was no corresponding extension of cultivation, for the simple reason that what caused a rise in prices also sapped the agricultural resources of the country as comprised in labor and agricultural stock. The revenue history of one Maidan taluk in Mysore, about this time, is the history of all. Hassan is classed among those taluks which were less severely affected by the famine than most plain taluks; but there can be no doubt, if the heavy remissions granted in 1876—77 and future years are any guide, that it suffered greatly from either the direct or indirect influences of that disaster. The batayi system, under which Rs. 12,142 were realized in 1859—60, entirely disappeared in 1866—67, and therefore the high realizations in that and following years cannot be ascribed, as may fairly be done in the case of many Taluks of the Tumkúr and Bangalore Districts, to that exhaustive system. On the contrary the substitution of the nagadi for the batayi tenure appears to have been on the whole a success, the revenue having been maintained at a high figure ever since the nagadi system was substituted. Judging from the collections, a fair period of prosperity had set in which was only interrupted by the exceptional circumstances of the famine which necessitated heavy remissions in 1876—77, and up to last year. The revenue has not recovered yet although in 1880—81 there were signs of improvement, some fresh lands having been taken up for cultivation. I do not think that we should be too much guided by the exceptional circumstances of the famine in estimating the revenue paying capabilities of the villages under report. The country is rapidly recovering itself and the period from 1867 to 1877 may be taken as a fair criterion of what might be expected from the villages under report during ordinary years when prices were comparatively low.

Grouping of villages and maximum rates to be adopted.

15. I propose to adopt but two groups into which to divide the villages under report for the purpose of assessment. These groups and the maximum rates to be adopted are shown below:—

Group.	Number of Villages.	Maximum Dry Crop Rate.	Maximum Rice Rate.	Maximum Garden Rate.
1	2	3	4	5
I	252	2 8 0	8 0 0	12 0 0
II	148	2 4 0	7 3 0

In the first group are the central and western villages, in fact all, excepting the poorer parts of the taluk to the north and east comprising the greater portion of the Grama, Attavara, Honnavara and Salagame maganis As I have already stated, the villages to the west enjoy a superiority of climate quite compensating for some superiority in respect of communications enjoyed by the central and southern villages and there appears no reason for adopting more than one set of rates for these villages the population and general condition of which vary but little. In the case of the northern and eastern villages some slight modification of the maximum rates seems called for. The means of communication are so good throughout and the markets so generally accessible that a fewer number of groups than usual will serve our purpose.

16. The assessment of the occupied lands under the proposed rates will be as follows:—

Result of the proposed rates on occupied lands.

18. We learn from the two above statements that the waste lands are of very fair quality; indeed as regards rice lands the waste according to classification is of superior capability to the occupied, a very unusual state of things.

19. The extent and assessment of the minor inam lands are shown in the next statement :—

Results of the proposed rates on minor inam lands.

Proceedings of the Dewan to His Highness the Maha Raja of Mysore, (Revenue),—dated 25th April 1882.

21. The general effect of the proposed settlement is shown in the following statement :—

22. The average dry rate is raised only 1 anna and 8 pies, while the rice average rate is raised 13 annas and 1 pie. The increase in garden assessment is immaterial and I may here remark that I have not had occasion to exceed the rice maximum in the case of any of the gardens and that every consideration has been given to their somewhat deteriorated tion. In the three settled maganis the average rates were as per margin, but they are not favorable for drawing any useful comparison, their circumstances, notwithstanding their proxi- to the villages under report, being very different ; still the comparison will serve to show how ssessment of dry lands relatively to rice, has been kept up, quite a different treatment of the lescriptions of cultivation having been found necessary in the three settled maganis.

23. The realizations from the sale of grazing, &c. in 1880—81 came to Rs. 1,033. Under the proposed settlement I will estimate it at the same figure.

ng.

24. The one anna local cess in 1880—81 brought in Rs. 7,704 ; under the proposed settlement the amount will be Rs. 8,254 on the occupied Government land and Rs. 919 on the minor inam lands, in all Rs. 9,173.

25. There is a gain to Government on the occupied land, without any calculation of local sses of Rs. 18,426 or about 17 per cent. Considering that of this a sum of about Rs. 3,855 presents irrigation cess merged in the ordinary assessment and that the pay of village officers to placed on a proper footing will require at a rough guess about Rs. 7,000, the increase is very oderate. Still it is impossible to ignore the extraordinary extent of arable waste bearing assess- ent under the proposed rates of Rs. 66,885. I have always considered great moderation adviss- e where the waste is of good quality and great extent. In the present instance there are no less an 3,966 acres of wet land alone assessed at Rs. 18,289 lying waste.

26. There will be a clear gain to Government, after deducting what is required for irriga- n and pay of village officers, of in round numbers Rs. 8,000 over the collections of 1880—81. elieve that at the close of the settlement this sum will still show as clear gain and the prospects an extension of cultivation are in my opinion very hopeful. I have every confidence in the set- ment now proposed, for with intrinsically moderate rates very much lower than the old nominal tes it ensures a moderate gain upon an assessment which in my experience is as unequal and systematic as any of those hitherto revised in Mysore. I will not lengthen out this report by ring, in abstract, any illustrations of the inequality of assessment to which I allude. The class- r statement attached, which gives the area, assessment and other statistics for each village, con- ns ample instances which can be taken out at pleasure.

27. The classvar statement, list of inam villages and the Classing Officer's report, together with a sketch map of the taluk, are attached to this report.

Appendices to this Report.

28. It only remains to request sanction to these proposals in time to admit of my commencing e settlement in the beginning of April next.

Report on the Hassan Taluk, by E. H. Butcher, Esq., Assistant Superintendent, Revenue Survey, dated 25th October 1881.

Physical characteristics.

The Hassan Taluk of the District of the same name is bounded on the north by the Belur Taluk, south by the Arkalgúd and Narsipur Taluks, east by Channarayapatna and Haranhalli, and on the west by Manjarabad. The country is generally undulating in character, there being a few small hills on the north-eastern frontier.

Area.

2. The taluk has an area of 240,579 acres or roughly 376 square miles.

Sub-division.

3. As at present constituted the taluk comprises 11 maganis, of these however 3 have already been settled: this report therefore refers only to the under-noted maganis :—

No.	Name of Magani.	Government Villages.	Inam Villages.	Kavals.	Total.
1	Salgavi	51	..	4	55
2	Honnavara	41	4	3	48
3	Madihalli	39	2	1	42
4	Attavara	48	..	2	50
5	Kanagal	63	2	2	67
6	Hassan	36	3	..	39
7	Grama	60	1	8	69
8	Kaushika	55	4	4	63
8	Total..	393	16	24	433

The above 16 inam villages are measured in the same way as the Government villages.

Soils.

4. The soils vary from a sandy grey to rick black or brown, the latter being of very limited extent. Red soil of fair quality abounds. As a rule the soils of the southern portion of the taluk, more especially of the Kaushika magani, are better than those to the north; the drainage of the taluk also is towards the south.

River.

5. The only stream is the Yegachi, which flows from north to south, joining the Hemavati in the Arkalgúd Taluk. The water of this stream is but little used for irrigation purposes in the portion of the taluk where I was employed: there were one or two channels, but these have been out of repair for many years past.

Tanks.

6. Tanks are numerous in all parts of the taluk, but many of these are in a bad state of repair being either silted up or breached.

Roads.

7. A reference to the map will show that the Hassan Taluk is particularly well supplied with roads, every portion being within easy reach of one. An imperial road from Bangalore passes through the centre of the taluk to Manjarabad. This road has a branch to the east, passing through the Attavara and Honnavara maganis to Haranhalli and Tiptur. The Madihalli sammat has a road passing through it from Hassan to Belur and Chikmagalur. Another road, a good deal out of repair, leaves the kasba in a northerly direction, passing through the Salagave magani to Halebid; this is only usable in the dry months. Two roads also leave Hassan to the south, one to Narsipur and the other to Arkalgúd. The only portion of the taluk that is somewhat difficult of access is the northern portion of the Honnavara and Salagave maganis where there is a good deal of low scrub jungle, with small villages among the hills. The projected line of railway will also greatly improve the position of the taluk.

Markets

8. The principal markets are held at Hassan, Alur and Dudda, with smaller ones at Salagave and Shettihalli.

Crops.

9. The chief dry crops raised are ragi and beans, togari, sáme, horse-gram, chillies and oil-seeds. Ragi is the general dry crop. In the maganis to the east "Dod-ragi" is grown, whilst in those to the west the variety known as "Gid-ragi" is cultivated; this is sown early and comes to maturity in about three months being followed in favorable years by horse-gram in black soils. In the eastern maganis a crop grown extensively is chillies between rows of castor-oil. This crop is grown in light sandy and gravelly soils that would not suit ragi.

Wet crops.

10. Sugar-cane is grown to a considerable extent under the large tanks. "Chani" and "Pattapatti" come to maturity in 12 months, whilst "Ramkattu" takes 18 months. Rice is commonly met with, the chief kind grown being bilebhatta, sannabhatta, puttabhatta and kembhatta as Kartika crop, whilst for the Vaisakh a dodkyasaru, matharabhatta and kwaradi are grown. I have nowhere met with double crops of rice being raised in the year.

Gardens.

11. The gardens met with contain supari, cocoanuts, pán, plantains and fruit trees. They are not generally in a very flourishing condition, and have suffered a good deal from drought in past bad years and neglected in consequence.

Population.

12. The population of the taluk, before the late famine, was said to be some 72,000 souls; by the late census it would appear to have been reduced to 65,000. The maganis that have suffered most are the Madihalli magani reduced from nearly 9,000 to 4,500, Grama reduced from 10,500 to 8,500. Taking the present figure as 64,896, will give an average of 173 souls per square mile. This is not however evenly distributed, that portion of the taluk lying to the north on the Belur frontier being more sparsely inhabited than that to the south of Hassan.

Exports.

13. The chief articles of export are—

Chillies to Chikmagalur and Bangalore.

Castor-oil seed.
Jaggory.
Gram.
Rice.
Ragi.
Garlic and onions.
} To Tippur and Maidan Taluks generally.

Imports.

14. The chief articles imported into the taluk are—

From Tiptur—Cocoanuts.
Pepper.
Salt.

From Kodiyal—
Gingelly oil.
Togari.
Hesaru.
Jirige.

Rain-fall.

15. The rain-fall in this part of the country is well distributed averaging about 35 inches i the western maganis and about 25 to 30 inches in the Gram and Attavara Maganis. The climate is fairly healthy.

Sub-letting.

16. Khushki and tari lands are sublet either on the "Argore" system or on "Wara." I the former case the pattadar pays the kandayam, receives hal the crop; if manure is given by the pattadars, he receives hal the grass also. In bagayat "Mad Tota" is the system that prevails, that is the pattadar pays th kandayam and takes all the supari and cocoanut produce, plantains, pán, vegetables and othe minor produce being taken by the cultivator.

Cattle and grazing lands.

17. Grazing lands in all the maganis is abundant and cattle seem to thrive. There are als several Amrut Mahal Kavals in the taluk in which the grazin is good.

Condition of the ryots.

18. The general condition of the ryots is decidedly good; in the villages al along th northern borders they suffered considerably in the famine also in many of the villages of the Honnavara and Gram Maganis.

From the Deputy Commissioner, Hassan District, To the Superintendent, Mysore Revenue Survey, Genl. No. 3430—1270.

I have the honor to return your letter No. 131 of the 6th instant to the address of the Secre tary to the Dewan of Mysore, received with your No. 132 of the 6th idem, on the subject o introducing the survey settlement into the unsettled portion of the Hassan Taluk. The report I need not say, has been very carefully drawn up, and I generally subscribe to your views, and con cur in the principles which you have laid down for the moderation of the rates.

2. They are especially low with regard to the gardens, and I would prominently place before you the villages of Madihalli and Doddaguddavalli of the Madihalli Sammat, where the proposed settlement will reduce the present revenue under this head by about one-half. From the figures quoted in the *margin you will perceive that the garden area shows in many cases an increase while the assessment thereon decreases in the inverse ratio. But this circumstance has to be considered with the fact that the gardens have greatly deteriorated from the past unfavorable and uncertain seasons, and the arecanut produced in them is generally of a very inferior description, on which a sayer excise duty of ¾ rupee per maund is levied. At both the meetings held by the Dewan on the occasion of the Installation and during the last Dasara, the representatives from taluks agitated to have the sayer tax reduced, and secured the promise of the Dewan to consider the subject. If such a reduction in that taxation is contemplated, it will not be inopportune to consider the bearings of that measure on the present settlement, and especially so having regard to the rather low rates now adopted.

* Vide statement attached.

3. Apropos of this subject I may be permitted to compare the rates now proposed for the villages of Madihalli and Doddaguddavalli of the Hassan Taluk with those of Haltore and Ibbidu of the Belur Taluk lying in close vicinity of each other and enjoying equal advantages of climate, soil and communication. The rates for the two former villages are respectively 4—15—6 and 4, while these for the two latter are as much as about 7 Rs. an acre. From my personal experience I am in a position to state that the gardens in the Belur Taluk cannot bear the heavy assessment put upon them, and my object in referring to them is not so much to urge the fact as a ground for the increase of Hassan rates as to give intimation of the possibility of this contrast giving rise to, or rather reviving afresh, the sense of heavy and unequal assessment entertained by the holders of the Belur gardens, who are also principally Aiyangar Brahmans and perhaps also, relations of the Hassan villagers.

4. On the subject of the gardens it remains for me to state that the arable waste of 105 acres assessed at 483 Rs. is inconsiderable, but it is significant that in not a few instances, as noted in the margin, the waste is more valuable according to classification than the cultivated land. The moderation of rates under these circumstances cannot but create a reasonable hope that ere long the waste may be taken up for cultivation.

Proceedings of the Dewan to His Highness the Maha Raja of Mysore, (Revenue),—dated 25th April 1882.

5. Regarding the rice lands I have to state my unqualified approval of the rates. Compared with the present collections, the proposed assessment on cultivated lands shows but an increase of about 10,000 Rs., but out of this sum will have to be deducted the money which has to be set apart for the irrigation fund and for the remuneration of village officers. The latter though not an entire charge upon this revenue is doubtless a fair fractional set-off; but the former will, in my opinion, be required almost every year for the up-keep of the numerous small tanks which abound in this taluk and mainly contribute to the income from this source. At present both owing to the unsettled state of obligations of the Government and the ryots in this respect and the stern and uncompromising rule of not spending a pie over the repairs of tanks the revenue of which is less than one hundred rupees, many of these tanks are in a lamentable state of disrepair. By the bye, this cause alone is sufficient to explain the large extent of arable waste which lies unoccupied though possessing, according to the rules of classification, superior sources of fertility. Any amount of resource, therefore, to keep these works of irrigation in a state of perfect repair is desirable and bearing this necessity in mind, I have no hesitation in saying that the increase is very moderate. In saying so I have not lost sight of the slight accession to the revenue which has been caused by the abolition of "Kerebandi" inams of the past administrations. I have not the exact figures before me to state how far the saving effected by this measure has, or rather will, on the death of the present holders of the inam to whom it has been confirmed for life, contribute towards our expenditure. But the solicitude and the wisdom of the past administrations in providing this permanent and separate machinery for looking after the welfare of the tanks as displayed by these inams, though such was admittedly clumsy and crude, will, it may be trusted, be a strong incentive for the present Government to keep this very important subject of tank repairs always and steadily in view, and maintain all our irrigation works in the maximum state of efficiency. It is only when they are so kept that an expression of the hope may be ventured that all the arable waste or any appreciable portion thereof will be taken up for cultivation.

6. Relatively with the rice and garden rates, those adopted for dry lands are certainly very fair and may be adopted with every sure prospect of encouraging cultivation of the vast tracts of arable waste which mar the aspect of land everywhere in this taluk. The increase therefore of a trifle over ten thousand rupees under this head is by no means excessive. It must be remembered that this increase is subject to a deduction on account of the remuneration of village servants. It cannot also be predicted with any degree of accuracy what quantity of this land will be thrown out during the time of the settlement. The increase above mentioned is, under these circumstances, nothing more than a prudent reserve for any such contingency.

7. I have now to invite your attention to the most important subject of individual inequalities referred to in para 12 of your letter to the Secretary. I append in the margin a few of the villages where this contrast is more striking. It is beside our purpose to trace out and account for the inequalities, but the stern proposition remains unresisted that the occupier of a certain extent of land was paying for a number of years a certain sum of money as kandayam which if suddenly raised on however equitable principles to more than hundred per cent must be a cause of great though a temporary hardship. I have therefore to solicit your considerate support of my humble request to the Dewan in behalf of the people of this taluk, that the concession be so graciously permitted in reference to the Manjarabad Taluk, of levying only half the increase in the first and the other half in the second year when such is more than 100 per cent, may be extended to this taluk also.

8. In conclusion I beg to point out a small clerical error in the entry in column 19 of the amount of assessment on Government cultivated garden land against the village of Kattaya (143) in the statement forming an accompaniment of your report to the Dewan which I have taken the liberty of correcting in pencil.

Proceedings of the Dewan to His Highness the Maha Raja of Mysore, (Revenue),—dated 25th April 1882.

No. 632-40—19, DATED BANGALORE, 25TH APRIL 1882.

ORDER.—The subjoined statement gives the details of the proposed settlement :—

2. The rates of assessment adopted on all descriptions of land appear to be moderate. The Deputy Commissioner remarks that the rates on the garden lands are markedly lower than those fixed in adjoining villages of the previously settled taluk of Belur, and that in individual villages they reduce the existing assessment by one half. The Survey Superintendent explains that he was unwilling to assess the garden lands much higher than rice lands enjoying similar water-supply and that the tendency of late years has been to approximate garden rates more closely to those adopted for rice. This view is entirely in accordance with the wishes of the Government, and it is requested that the same may be adhered to in future settlements.

3. It is of great importance to encourage the outlay of capital on gardens, and the object can scarcely be met by the old system of garden assessment which directly taxed the increased productive capabilities of the land brought about by the outlay of capital. Such a high assessment could not have been paid but for the remissions and other considerations shown both when the trees were young and afterwards when they decayed. The indulgence having been removed under the survey system, a special high garden assessment operates with great hardship, and has led to the abandonment of valuable gardens. The garden assessment imposed in the taluks previously settled may hereafter require some relief, but that is no reason why in future settlements the correct principle of assessing garden lands with reference to the natural capabilities of the soil and the means of irrigation should not be adopted.

4. The gardens in the hoblis now under settlement appear to be of a very ordinary description and generally in poor condition, and the proposed settlement though involving loss in cases in which the former assessment was fixed at high rates on the old faulty system, must, on the whole, prove encouraging to this useful description of cultivation. It is however noted that by the correction of inequalities and abuses, the survey settlement in the aggregate shows an increase over the former assessment even on the garden lands

5. The large extent of valuable rice land which lies waste calls for the special attention of the District Officers. The area and assessment of the wet waste is so large as one-third of the extent under occupation. The reason assigned for this is the very neglected condition of the tanks in the taluk, and the somewhat arbitrary rule which prohibits expenditure on tanks yielding a less revenue than Rs 100. Steps will be early taken to place the arrangements regarding the maintenance and repair of tanks on a more satisfactory footing and to define the obligations of the ryots in the matter, and by devoting for the purpose the irrigation cess provided by the settlement, it is hoped that the tanks may be ere long placed in an efficient state, and that the large extent of wet waste land may be brought under cultivation and add to the revenues of the taluk.

6. A somewhat unusual circumstance noticed is the high average assessment on the garden and rice waste lands. The average of the former in the 2nd group of villages and the average of the latter in both the 1st and 2nd groups actually exceed the average assessment on the lands under occupation. This as regards the small extent of garden waste, may perhaps be due to the fact that the waste referred to consists to a great extent of old gardens abandoned owing to their deteriorated condition and the heaviness of the old assessment, and it is to be hoped that they may be taken up again under the fair rates of assessment fixed by the survey, and if necessary a temporary remission of a portion of the assessment may be granted for the first year or two under the instructions conveyed in Proceedings No. 4563-72—812, dated 10th November 1880, to induce persons to take up such abandoned gardens.

7. The high assessment on the rice waste may be also due to the fact that the assessment on wet lands situated under the same source of irrigation has been fixed at more or less uniform rates and that the waste consists to a large extent not of the small area of inferior lands at a distance from the source of irrigation which remain usually unoccupied, but of nearly the whole or a considerable portion of the Atchkat under several tanks in a state of disrepair, and probably also lands of superior quality thrown up owing to the high assessment hitherto charged on them. The subject however is one deserving of investigation, and the Deputy Commissioner should go over the individual list of villages carefully and institute a local enquiry into those cases in which large areas are shown as waste, and ascertain how far they consist of superior lands thrown up owing to the heaviness of the former assessment and what prospects there are of their being taken up under the rates of assessment fixed by the survey, and he should in due course submit a special report on the subject.

8. With regard to the Deputy Commissioner's suggestion that where the survey settlement has resulted in an increase of more than 100 per cent, only half the amount of the increase should be levied in the first year as authorized in Proceedings No. 4—5 of the 24th February 1882, it is observed that the increase though exceeding 100 per cent is in no instance so great as was noticed in other taluks previously settled. It is not therefore deemed necessary to press the matter on the Survey Superintendent who has already been given discretionary authority to show the consideration if required in exceptional cases of real hardship. In such cases, the full assessment should be charged, and the half assessment not enforced in the first year should be shown in the accounts as a remission.

9. The total settlement exclusive of local cess amounts to Rs. 1,32,064, being an increase of Rs. 18,426 or about 17 per cent over the former assessment. Deducting however Rs. 3,855 on account of irrigation cess merged in the assessment and Rs. 7,000 on account of the probable pay of village officers, there remains an increase only of about Rs. 7,500, and allowance has also to be made for any dry lands which may be thrown up at the settlement. But as already observed there is in the large area of valuable wet land remaining waste a source of addition to the revenue hereafter.

10. With these remarks the proposed settlement is sanctioned with the usual guarantee for 30 years.

Proceedings of the Dewan to His Highness the Maha Raja of Mysore,
(Revenue),—dated 25th April 1882.

11. The villagevar statement of the details of the settlement will more readily show the bearing of the assessment if the assessment on each description of land, cultivated and waste, were entered in a col[illegible]n immediately after the area in each case instead of in a separate part of the s[illegible]ent.

12. It is noticed that in the village of Kenchanhalli No. 125, the assessment on 30 acres of waste rice land is entered at only Rs. 24 which is probably a clerical error for Rs 124.

13. The villagevar statement was intended to give to the Deputy Commissioners the details of the proposed assessment in individual villages that they may be in a better position to judge of the bearing and effects of the settlement by examining a few select villages. This is not now done and the reports of Deputy Commissioners merely contain general opinions. It is not desirable that their reports should be delayed by any lengthened enquiry, but an examination of a few villages might be easily made in a few days and enable the Deputy Commissioners to judge better of the bearing of the assessment.

" 92 of the 14th October 1881

Letters from the Deputy Commissioner of Bangalore, Nos. 525 and 667 of the 20th October and 8th December 1881 respectively.

No. 739-40—28, DATED BANGALORE, 27TH APRIL 1882.

ORDER THEREON.—In the reply of His Highness the Maha Raja to an address resented to him in July 1881 by a deputation from the Mysore Branch of the Eura-an and Anglo-Indian Association, it was intimated that any reasonable proposals hich the Association might submit for the formation of agricultural settlements of urasians and Anglo-Indians would receive careful consideration from Government.

2. With reference to the above, the Secretary to the Association has selected lands n three different blocks as per annexed statement amounting in all to 3,025 acres, 9 guntas, bearing an assessment of Rs. 3,574-8-0, and these lands have been reported pon by the Deputy Commissioner who states that they are unoccupied and available to he Association. Two of the three blocks are situated not far from each other in the Vartur Hobli of the Bangalore Taluk near the Kadgodi Railway Station, and the 3rd block comprises a tract of land called the Srigandham Kaval, 7 miles distant from Bangalore on the road to Magadi, but in which there are now no sandal trees. There is no source of water supply in this tract of land, and it is questionable whether t is well suited for an agricultural settlement of the kind contemplated, but the Asso-ciation is desirous of taking up this land on account of its large area and its proxi-mity to Bangalore.

3. His Highness the Maha Raja is pleased to sanction the grant of the above lands to the Association on the following terms:—

Free of assessment for the first two years,
¼th assessment for the 3rd and 4th years,
½ assessment for the 5th and 6th years, and full assessment from the 7th year.

4. The Association is to be at liberty to relinquish any portion of the lands in entire numbers at any time.

5. The grant will be liable to resumption in the event of the Association failing to carry out the object of the concession which is to encourage agricultural settlements of Eurasians and Anglo-Indians.

6. The question of the criminal jurisdiction over European British subjects in Na-tive States may occasion some difficulties, but His Highness hopes and believes that these may not prove to be of such a nature as to defeat or discourage such a highly desirable object as the Association has in view.

Docket No. 614 of the 14th March 1882 from the Deputy Commissioner of Kadur.

No. 753-5—44, DATED BANGALORE, 28TH APRIL 1882.

ORDER THEREON.—Mr. Brooke Mockett should be asked to give the date of the letter of the Mysore Planters' Association regarding cardamom lands to which he refers, as the Dewan is not aware of any such letter which is pending reply. Meanwhile, it is observed that the rules sufficiently provide for all the points referred to in Mr. Mockett's present letter.

(1) The rocky and uncultivable portions of the cardamom estates can be held on the grass land tenure bearing an assessment of 4 annas per acre as provided in Rule IV.

(2) Half assessment for five years may be allowed for the unplanted portion of the estate under Rule VII. The large extent of the uncleared portion in the Bairapur estate under notice as represented by Mr. Mockett and the comparative difficulty of planting up cardamom lands seems to entitle him to this consideration.

(3) The case of abandoned lands is also provided for liberally in Rule VI. If Mr. Mockett does not wish to replant such land with coffee or anything else, he can hold the land on grass assessment, the portion by the sides of the ravines planted with cardamom paying the acreage rate, or if he can relinquish the useless parts in compact blocks under Rule IX, the portion intersected with ravines and where cardamom is growing may alone be retained under the acreage assessment. Of course small bits of land here and there cannot alone be selected and retained. The portions retained and selected must be in one or more compact blocks easily separable from the rest.

No. 176—5, DATED BANGALORE, 8TH APRIL 1882.

ORDER.—The Local Fund Engineering scholarships for the current year have been already sanctioned to the pupils named in the margin who have already been prosecuting their studies for a year in the Engineering School. As it will be attended with inconvenience to open a new class for any few pupils who are to be expected from the remaining Districts, no scholarships to new pupils will be sanctioned for the current year. It is proposed when the present batch of students shall have passed out of the school by the end of the current year and the existing scholarships for all the Districts will have expired, to open a new class in the beginning of the next year with a fresh batch of scholarship and other pupils from the several Districts in accordance with the rules laid down in Proceedings dated 17th August 1880, No. 2989—Edl. 43. The Deputy Commissioners of the several Districts are requested to arrange accordingly early next calendar year.

Also Proceedings No. 4738-48—Edl. 81, dated 16th November 1880.

No. 184-7—2, DATED BANGALORE, 10TH APRIL 1882.

ORDER.—The system of Government scholarships sanctioned in Proceedings dated 17th August and 16th November 1880 for students desirous of studying for the Degree examination in Engineering and Medicine was not intended to secure men for the service of the Local Government, as the demand for such higher class of professional men is very limited in the Province. The object of these scholarships was simply to encourage the students passing out of the higher classes of the Government Colleges to betake themselves to these professional and useful branches of knowledge. Having regard to the large number of deserving students who apply for this help, it appears to the Government that the object in view will be better met by reducing the amount of these scholarships and distributing the same amongst a larger number of students.

2. It is not proposed to undertake the whole cost of the maintenance of the students, but simply to extend some Government assistance to those who endeavour to help themselves to some extent from their own means. Instead of the three Engineering and Medical scholarships at 25 Rs. each per month, six Government scholarships of 15 Rs. each will from the present year be annually given to deserving graduates, or, failing them, to students who may have passed the First-in-Arts examination to study for degrees in the Engineering and Medical Colleges of Madras or Bombay. The Principals of the Bangalore and Mysore Colleges are requested to forward the names of any deserving students who were successful in the last B. A. and F. A. examinations and who may be desirous of availing themselves of these scholarships. The age and caste of the applicants with their fathers' names and profession, together with the Principal's opinion in regard to their conduct and qualifications and general health, should be given.

Proceedings of the Dewan to His Highness the Maha Raja of Mysore, (Revenue),—dated 1st May 1882.

Letter No. 695 of the 17th March 1882 from the Deputy Commissioner of Tumkúr, submitting for orders Kadaba Amildar's report regarding the application of certain Bestars for fishing in certain tanks in the Kadaba Taluk,

No. 849—24, DATED BANGALORE, 1ST MAY 1882.

ORDER.—The arrangement for getting the villagers to remove silt from tank beds in return for the fishery can only be feasible in the case of the smaller tanks. Where the tanks are large, there is no reason why the fishery should not be rented out and the proceeds credited to the revenues of Government who bear the cost of maintaining the tanks in repair.

R. VIJAYINDRA RAO,
Secretary.

To—The Deputy Commissioner of Tumkúr.
The Deputy Commissioners of other Districts.

From the Deputy Commissioner of the Kadur District, To the Secretary to the Dewan of Mysore, No. 35, dated Chikmagalur, 13th April 1882.

I have the honor to report that I have completed the coffee settlement of the Kadur District in accordance with Proceedings, No. 3662-70—98, dated 2nd August 1881.

2. The result of settlement for this year is Rs. 57,021—4—0. The coffee halat for last year for the District was only Rs. 22,322, the average for the last 5 years being Rs. 35,801—12—0. Thus the acreage assessment has resulted in a clear gain to Government of Rs. 34,699—4—0.

3. This amount will, moreover, in five years' time be largely increased by Rs. 39,760 making the total 96,681, as I thought it best to give a most liberal interpretation to the rule under which I was empowered to give out deteriorated coffee land for a period not exceeding 5 years at half rates, and allowed nearly all native coffee to come under the rule, in hopes of encouraging the owners to keep them on and to cultivate them carefully.

4. The appended table shows the result of the settlement by taluks.

5. Lands called coffee land, to the extent of 38,171 acres, 37 guntas, were resigned during the settlement, the heaviest resignations being in the Lakvalli Taluk. In remarkably few cases however has any good plantable jungle been resigned, but scrub and grass land, which had been given out under pattas, the ryot quite appreciating the fact of being able to hold grazing land for nothing (which under the halat system he did), were given up freely.

Proceedings of the Dewan to His Highness the Maha Raja of Mysore, (Revenue),—dated 1st May 1882.

6. European planters, with 2 exceptions, invariably took their estates on the permanent rates, as also did two or three of the larger native estate holders; but the smaller holders, except in the case of a few who took up their hittal or compounds on the permanent tenure, were satisfied with the 30 years' rate.

7. The coffee jungles in the temple lands of Kalasa were settled, but the settlement is held in abeyance, pending the orders of Government on my letter No. 516, dated 13th January 1882.

8. The coffee jungles in the lands claimed as inam by the Bababudan Makandar have not been settled, pending a reference to the Inam Superintendent on the matter.

9. The coffee jungles in the inam villages of * 1 Gonibidu, 2 Kannapura and 3 Madapura have only been settled so far as was necessary to ascertain the amount of local cess payable by them. But I would beg to point out that all these inam jungles had formerly to pay halat on their produce, and that now that the halat is abolished, they have not been as yet asked to pay anything in lieu thereof, which they might not unfairly be required to do.

	Assessment.	Local Cess.
*1.	79—0—9	4—1—0
2.	26—4—0	1—10—3
3.	4—8—0	0—4—6
	109—12—0	6—13—9

10. This settlement has rendered a good deal of heavy resurvey work absolutely necessary, indeed in some taluks, such as Koppa, many of the new estates have been opened out since the survey, and I had to fix the assessment temporarily, pending resurvey, on a rough estimate of the area. Again, in some places, I found there had been a regular systematic attempt made by the gaudas to get more hold on the Holeyars by having, in the time of survey, all the Holeyars' houses included in the coffee numbers. They state that the Holeyars' houses are within the boundaries shown in their pattas; but the houses were there before the pattas, and the Holeyars never paid rent for them to the gaudas, who now claim them and the hittalus round them. In one case in which I went to see the hatti so claimed, I found it built on a piece of grass land, and about the huts were some coffee trees planted by the Holeyars, for which the owners were quite willing to pay Government anything demanded, but they objected to being told that their houses and lands belonged to a gauda with whom they had hitherto nothing to do. Mr. Allardice says he knows these houses to have been there during the 20 years he has been in the country, as the people always work on his estate, yet the gauda at settlement on the strength of his patta claimed all the land as his own. In such cases I beg to recommend that the Holeyars' hattis should be measured into a separate number wherever it is clear that they have not recently settled, but have lived unmolested and without paying rent in their houses for more than 10 years. I have, of course, deducted the area of land occupied by them from the rent paying area.

11. In the Jagar valley I found that Patels and others held large jungles on patta. These they had sold to others, or sub-let or given away, retaining, however, a right to 3 seers of coffee on every maund picked. I held the Pattadars as responsible to Government, the pattas for the land not having been transferred to any one else, and settled with them. The sub-holders, however, are very numerous, and their ignorance of the correct boundaries of the portions of jungle each has is a fruitful source of quarrels. It is not saying too much to state that scarcely any one picks his own coffee, each man tries to pick his neighbour's crop claiming it as his own. I would strongly recommend that a survey should be held, and all these sub-divisions be measured and their ownership finally settled summarily by the Assistant in charge of the party.

12. Already I can see that the introduction of the acreage tax is having a good effect in stirring up the ryots to try and improve their gardens. Nurseries for Coorg plants are everywhere being put down, and felling and other attempts at pakka cultivation are being made, which, if persevered in, will be of immense benefit to the gardens and their owners.

13. The Dewan's Proceedings, arranging for the settlement of timber in coffee estates, only reached me after the work of the last taluk had been finished. I, however, have reserved the right to the timber throughout, pending the settlement of the question by Government, so that the orders can easily be carried out when the estates are surveyed and the final settlement made.

Proceedings of the Dewan to His Highness the Maha Raja of Mysore, (Revenue),—dated 4th May 1882.

No. 840-8—23, DATED BANGALORE, 1ST MAY 1882.

ORDER THEREON.—The results of the coffee settlement of the Kadur District as reported in the above are very satisfactory. Whilst securing a fair revenue to Government, it confers a better tenure on the Planters and induces and encourages them to improve their estates.

2. The question of the Kalasa temple lands and of the lands claimed as inam by the Bababudan Makandar will be hereafter disposed of when the necessary reports are received.

3. The halat hitherto levied on coffee cultivated in inam lands was of questionable propriety and it cannot be continued when the halat has ceased to be an item of the general excise revenue of the Province.

4. The land occupied by the houses of the Holeyars referred to in para 10, if the houses are in a group, may be marked as village building site, and excluded from assessment.

5. Where the portions of the large jungles of the Patels in the Jagar valley referred to in para 11 have been sold or absolutely given away to others, the alienees are entitled to a separate survey and settlement of their lands, which should be given effect to.

6. The results of the settlement of timber rights in coffee estates when made in accordance with the Proceedings issued on the subject should be reported.

Letter No. 3206—968 of the 22nd February 1882 from the Deputy Commissioner of Hassan forwarding a letter from the Sub-Assistant Conservator submitting a scheme for cardamom cultivation in the Manjarabad Taluk.

No. 1059-61—51, DATED BANGALORE, 4TH MAY 1882.

ORDER.—It cannot ordinarily be expedient that the Government should undertake such cardamom plantations as those proposed which are costly and require great care. At the same time there is serious objection to granting to private individuals these small bits of cardamom lands which are in the midst of great and valuable forests, the preservation of which is of the utmost importance. The Government is therefore obliged to be content with annually selling the cardamom which spontaneously grows in isolated tracts in these forests. The Sub-Assistant Conservator considers that by clearing the undergrowth and other brushwood in these cardamom growing tracts and by removing and transplanting the irregularly growing cardamom plants and keeping the ground free of weeds and by generally giving more care to them, they may be made far more productive to Government, and he proposes and the Deputy Commissioner recommends to work in the above manner two plots comprising 20 and 25 acres respectively in the Devagal Hannal in Kempholle Ghat and Nadathapallu Malé in Kaganeri at a cost not exceeding Rs. 1,400. Sanction is accorded to the same on the distinct understanding that both the above officers will give every care and attention to make the experiment a success. The cultivation is a long established one and its peculiarities should be studied from private plantations. The experiment should be restricted to the small tracts where cardamom is now spontaneously growing, and even there only such few trees as may be necessary should be felled to shake the ground and stimulate the germination of the seeds.

Proceedings of the Dewan to His Highness the Maha Raja of Mysore, (Revenue),—dated 12th May 1882.

From the Superintendent, Mysore Revenue Survey, To the Secretary to the Dewan of Mysore, No. 252, dated Hassan, 27th April 1882.

I have the honor to forward the marginally noted papers relating to the proposed revision of the assessment of the Kadaba Taluk of the Tumkúr District.

1. Survey Superintendent's Report No. 5, dated 22nd March 1882, with all its compartments, as well as a sketch map of the taluk.
2. Tumkúr District Deputy Commissioner's letter No 20 of the 15th instant.

2. The Deputy Commissioner in his letter No. 20 of the 15th instant concurs generally in the moderation of the proposed rates, but raises an important question regarding the suitability of the grouping of villages adopted for the purpose of assessment. The Deputy Commissioner asks why the large and important village of Gubbi with other villages in the neighbourhood should be placed in the 2nd class, while Dabbegatta and other villages have been placed in the 1st class. My reasons for making such a distinction will be found stated in para 15 of my report where I state that I consider the south-western portion of the taluk to be both better populated and enjoying a better rain-fall than elsewhere. The country in question in my opinion is not so dry, so to speak, as the remainder of the taluk. Not only is the rain-fall somewhat greater but its benefits are enhanced and eked out by the configuration of the surface which, here alone, is very undulating. The area of unoccupied arable land is moreover relatively less in this group than in groups 2 and 3.

3. The Deputy Commissioner, in touching upon the intrinsic value of the cultivation, with which the classification has already dealt, goes wide of the question of grouping of villages, but his remarks upon the importance from its position, both present and future, of Gubbi are strictly to the purpose and are worthy of every consideration. In discussing this question it will be well to bear in mind that Gubbi adjoins taluks in which rates have already been sanctioned and which we are in a measure obliged to take for our guide; but as regards Dabbegatta and other villages of the 1st class there are no such rates, with the exception of those of the Honnavalli Taluk for a short distance of the boundary and with which my proposed rates coincide, to guide us. The villages of the 1st class are stated to occupy a corner in the south-west of the taluk, but it must not be supposed from this description that the means of communication are deficient; on the contrary these villages enjoy very good means of communication generally, and if not on, are at any rate very close to, the Bangalore-Hassan high road, while the Railway, should it be extended to Tiptur, which is within easy reach, cannot fail to benefit the villages of this group and enhance the value of the land. These facts combined with the superiority of climate regarding which I entertain no doubt compel me to adhere to the rates I have proposed for the 1st group.

4. But there is no doubt that the Deputy Commissioner's remarks on the present and prospective importance of Gubbi and the villages along the high road at that point are very true and I have therefore transferred 25 of those villages to the 1st class. A remark will be found in the ruled classvar statement opposite each village thus transferred from the 2nd to the 1st class. This was in a great measure in deference to the Deputy Commissioner's opinion expressed in para 12 of his letter No. 301 of the 20th September last and also because the former assessment was very low, that I kept my maximum rates for these villages so low, but in strict justice there is no doubt the rates of the 1st class are applicable. The effect of this change in my original proposals will be to raise my estimate of the assessment on the occupied lands [illegible]

But there is no doubt that the Deputy Commissioner's remarks on the present and prospective importance of Gubbi and the villages along the high road at that point are very true and I have therefore transferred 25 of those villages to the 1st class. A remark will be found in the detailed classvar statement opposite each village thus transferred from the 2nd to the 1st class. It was in a great measure in deference to the Deputy Commissioner's opinion expressed in para 12 of his letter No. 301 of the 20th September last and also because the former assessment was very light, that I kept my maximum rates for these villages so low, but in strict justice there is no doubt the rates of the 1st class are applicable. The effect of this change in my original proposals will be to raise my estimate of the assessment on the occupied lands of the taluk by about Rs. 1,500. This modification removes any difference of opinion between the Deputy Commissioner and myself regarding the rates now proposed.

5. As regards the maximum rate for well-gardens of Rs. 10 alluded to by the Deputy Commissioner at para 3, I regret to say that by a clerical error that rate was entered instead of Rs. which is the real rate adopted. The occupied garden lands have been divided as below and I think no doubt need exist regarding the perfect moderation of the rates :—

Description of Garden.	Acres.	Assessment.	Average Rate.
Tank	2,038	9,973	4 14 4
Well	1,666	4,680	2 12 11
Dry-cocoanut	192	419	2 2 11
Total.....	3,896	15,072	3 13 11

6. In para 6 the Deputy Commissioner gives a comparative return of the population per square mile of Kadaba and the adjoining taluks. The intervention of the famine of course destroys the value of statistics collected at the settlement for purposes of comparison and the Deputy Commissioner very fairly adopts and applies the last Census figures ; but even under this shows a higher population than adjoining taluks. When Tumkúr was settled, prior to the famine, the statistics then collected showed a prosperity very much in advance of anything we now find.

7. In his concluding remarks the Deputy Commissioner revives the question of the period within which settlement reports should be submitted to Government. The Proceedings of the Chief Commissioner's No. 2865--91 of the 3rd June 1876, quoted by the Deputy Commissioner, have given place to later orders of the Chief Commissioner's No. 7612--R. 33, dated 1st November 1876, in which 3 months before the time fixed for settlement is laid down as the time by which settlement reports should reach Government. In real practice however this rule has not been observed for the simple reason that, without throwing the settlement work back a whole year, its observance would be impossible. I do not think the difficulties and necessities of the case have been fully allowed for. In the settlements fixed for the current year, for instance, comprising Manjarabad, Hassan and Kadaba, the classification had only been completed at the close of last working season and the registers could not reach the Superintendent's Office in full till the close of the monsoon office work in November, and until the registers had been all received the heavy work of considering and reporting on the settlements could not even be commenced. In the Hassan Taluk some villages had actually to be classed during the current year. In the Bombay Presidency far less time is occupied, in the respect under notice, than in Mysore, 15 days being frequently sufficient for a settlement report to be reviewed by the Collector, then by the Revenue Commissioner and finally receive the sanction of Government. I think that more information might be given by the District Officers in the first instance especially upon this very point of an appropriate grouping of villages for assessment and I shall endeavour for the future to obtain a more definite expression of opinion beforehand. In the present instance the Deputy Commissioner recorded his remarks on the taluk on the 20th September last in his letter No. 301. Para 10 of that letter touches upon the grouping of villages but not in a manner sufficiently decided to enable me to make much use of the information.

8. In conclusion I can only trust that all difference of opinion between the Deputy Commissioner and myself may have disappeared in the modification of my original proposals as noted in para 4 and that sanction may be accorded to the proposed settlement in time to admit of my carrying it into effect about the middle of next month.

SURVEY SUPERINTENDENT'S OFFICE,
Sakleshpur, 22nd March 1882.

From

The Superintendent, Revenue Survey and Assessment,
Mysore.

To

The Secretary to the Dewan to His Highness the Maha Raja of Mysore.

Sir,

I have the honor to submit the following proposals for the revision of the assessment of the hole of the Government portion of the Kadaba Taluk of the Tumkúr District.

2. I append report No. 640 of the 29th August 1881 upon this taluk, drawn up by the Deuty Superintendent Major Rutherfurd, which enters very fully into the general circumstances of e taluk and other points of interest relating to the proposed settlement.

3. The Deputy Commissioner in his letter No. 301 of the 20th September 1881, which append, makes a good many suggestions regarding the manner in which the assessment should e revised which I will take up "seriatim" as I proceed to record my proposals.

4. The taluk under report is divided into the following maganis or sub-divisions :—

No.	Magani.	Government Villages.	Kavals.	Inam Villages.	Total.
1	2	3	4	5	6
1	Kadaba	49	1	2	52
2	Gubbi	53	4	4	61
3	Kalur	70	5	3	78
4	Maisandra	87	1	..	88
5	Turuvekere	69	...	3	72
6	Dabbegatta	57	1	1	59
7	Chittanhalli	68	5	1	74
8	Hebburu	62	3	3	68
8	Total.....	515	20	17	552

5. This taluk although extensive and, owing to its irregular shape, embracing between its exme points a very large stretch of country, presents but few variations either in climate, soils, ops or physical characteristics. It is uniformly level throughout excepting a few low hills in the uth-west corner. The dry cultivation is in no way remarkable, the soils being almost entirely e light, sandy and better reds, so peculiar to the central taluks of the Province, in which ragi, th the usual auxiliary crops, is the staple. The wet cultivation, if not of a very high order, is at ost of considerable extent and being susceptible of still further extension must be regarded as a ry important factor in the present and future well-being of the taluk. The two naturally fine stems of irrigation, headed by the Kadaba and Mullagatta tanks respectively, described at para of Major Rutherfurd's report, should command an extraordinary quantity of water for irrigaal purposes, but at present unfortunately much of this water finds its way unutilized into the Shimsha river. Wet cultivation, both garden and rice, have undoubtedly deteriorated of late years, from the combined effects of drought and breached tanks. It will be seen further on that the area of waste rice land falls very little short of that under occupancy. A glance at the topographical survey sheet comprising a large portion of the tract now under report will serve to show how numerous are the breached tanks, the bunds only being shown on the maps. In the rice lands sugar-cane is, on the whole, unusual. The gardens produce the superior kinds of garden crops, but are in a somewhat deteriorated and neglected condition.

Rain-fall.

6. The record of the rain-fall, as obtained from the Amildar's Office, shows an annual average, based on the last 10 years, of 21 inches, but as amongst these are several very exceptional years, and as the extremes are 7 inches and 39 inches in 1876 and 1880 respectively, I think we may estimate the annual average fall as nearer 25 than 21 inches. I am not inclined to place much faith in the accuracy of the Amildar's register, for I observe at para 5 of the Deputy Commissioner's letter that the rain-fall, on the average of 5 years, is estimated at nearly 27 inches and the figures for individual years differ from those supplied by the Amildar.

Roads and Markets.

7. Roads and markets are described in detail in paras 17 and 18 of Major Rutherfurd's report The taluk is certainly well supplied in both respects, the roads affording an out-let in almost every direction while the markets are well distributed and at no great distance from any of the villages under report.

Condition of the people.

8. The taluk is remarkably uniform in its characteristics and the condition of the people, such as it is, is pretty much the same everywhere. The Deputy Commissioner and Major Rutherfurd agree in regarding the climate as fairly healthy and the condition of the people, apart from the exceptional circumstances of the famine, as fairly prosperous. This is a view which my experience fully bears out. The Deputy Commissioner at para 10 draws a comparison between Kadaba and Honnavalli and places the circumstances of the two very much on a par. The magani of Turuvekere is very similar to the taluk of Honnavalli, but the remaining magams present different characteristics, notably in the absence of cocoa-nut cultivation. Still I think the Deputy Commissioner, looking at it as merely a question of the well-being of the people, draws a very accurate comparison. The bulk of the taluk under report is more like Kunigal and Tumkúr than the other adjoining taluks. There are no parts of the taluk under report to which I could point as exceptionally badly off or the reverse. The climate I believe to be slightly better to the south-west than to the north and east.

Statistics.

9. The following is a statement of the statistics of the taluk collected at the time of classification :—

Number of Villages.	Houses.	Population.	Square miles.	Cattle.	Ploughs	Carts.	Market towns.
1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8
515	15,471	59,588	498	136 ,873	10,442	705	7

The area in square miles above shown is for the whole taluk, inam villages and kavals included, and the population per square mile is 119, but excluding inam villages, the population is 125 and, excluding both inam villages and kavals, 131 to the square mile. To the cultivated area there is a population of 313 to the square mile.

10. I must here provide against the acceptation of an erroneous impression likely to be conveyed by the Deputy Commissioner at para 6. He there states that the taluk under report is more thickly populated than the neighbouring taluks. Now this is not the case; Tumkúr, for instance, being in every respect, whether to the whole area, the whole arable area or the cultivated area, far more thickly populated, so also are Chiknayakanhalli and Magadi and, in short, Honnavalli and Kunigal are alone somewhat inferior in respect of population to Kadaba.

Old rates.

11. The tenure requires no particular remark being the same as that already described in adjoining settled taluks. The system of assessment however, which was based upon the unsatisfactory and unequal rates so fully illustrated by Major Rutherfurd at para 12, must be allowed its due weight in considering the new assessment to be imposed. We gather from the statement at para 8 of the Deputy Commissioner's letter that the rates on rice land under tanks went up as high as about Rs. 9 per acre and that moreover, where sugar-cane was grown, the rate of assessment was more than doubled. Gardens in comparison were moderately rated. Dry crop land was assessed at a rate reaching in some cases nearly as high as Rs. 5 per acre. These are the nominal rates. At Appendix B to Major Rutherfurd's letter some of the actual rates are given and it will be seen how little they tally with the rates given by the Deputy Commissioner. But the worst feature in the old assessment is the inequality of its incidence, now heavy, now light, without justifying circumstances. In imposing a new and at the same time moderate assessment extremes will be avoided. There are many instances in which the old assessment, for a whole village sometimes, averaged higher than any rates likely to be imposed under the survey assessment, but the instances in which the just demands of Government were evaded are far more numerous and we may therefore fairly expect a considerable increase to result from the adoption of very moderate rates.

12. The following statement in which, to save space, the prices current during the years concerned are also given, represents the realizations in the villages under report for the last 25 years :—

13. In the presence of the fluctuations of the revenue invariably attendant on the batayi system which, although now at an end, at one time prevailed in this taluk, the realizations of any one individual year are not a good guide for our present purpose. The average of a number of years more correctly denotes the weight of the old assessment. The highest realizations were from 1865—66 to 1870—71. In 1869—70 cultivation reached the turning point and since that time the revenue history of the taluk, as illustrated by the collections, is more instructive than satisfactory. The falling off since 1871 has been very serious and the area stated to be under cultivation in 1880—81 is less than has ever been known. I do not of course rely implicitly on the accuracy of the bijwari, but the collections show a corresponding decrease and it is therefore reasonable to believe that cultivation is really at the low ebb indicated. No doubt the dying period of famine, through which this taluk has passed, anything but scatheless, is chiefly answerable for the present state of the revenue, but the unequal pressure of the old assessment has also had a good deal to say to the same end. Again, the breaching and generally deteriorate condition of a large number of tanks have been, as a matter of course, the cause of much los of revenue. The revenue moreover, there can be no doubt, suffered in the transition fro batayi to nagadi. These are not very encouraging circumstances to usher in a new settlemen but we may look for some improvement under a change of system and, it is to be hoped, mor favorabla seasons.

14. The Deputy Commissioner's remarks at para 12 of his letter force me at this poin into a very unwilling discussion of the merits and working of the settlement of the Tumkú Taluk. This settlement has been frequently animadverted on but always on oral testimony an with a reckless disregard of the evidence afforded by the accounts which would have furnishe no ground for adverse criticism. The Deputy Commissioner now states that there has been a loss of revenue as a result of the settlement. The real facts of the case are as follows.

The ten years preceding the year of the survey settlement show gross collections of rupees 11,57,682, giving an annual average of rupees 1,15,769. The ten years immediately following the settlement show gross collections of Rs. 12,80,725 or an annual average of Rs. 1,28,072; thus showing an annual increase of rupees 12,303 during an exceptionally trying period, exclusive of Rs. 24,000 remitted in 1876—77. These surely are not results deserving the severe criticism applied to them by the Deputy Commissioner. It is true that the collections in 1880—81 are very low, a result fairly accounted for by the famine. Having written thus much it is not surprising that I should strongly repudiate the idea of there being any difference in the mode of assessment adopted for Tumkúr and for other taluks. The mode of assessment is precisely the same, in principle, in all taluks. As regards the old rates of assessment in the Tumkúr Taluk they were very much higher than any imposed under the survey settlement, but there are not unfrequently reasons why even the most moderate rates should be objected to, and an agitation set on foot, when concealment of the true extent of land occupied is the rule and not the exception.

15. For the purpose of assessment I propose to divide the taluk into 3 groups. The grouping, which, with the maximum rates proposed in each, is shown below, corresponds pretty accurately with that suggested by the Deputy Commissioner at para 10:—

Group.	Number of Villages.	Maximum Dry Crop rate.	Maximum Rice rate.	Maximum Garden rate.
				Tank.	Well.
1	2	3	4	5	6
I.	125	2 0 0	8 0 0	12	10
II.	265	1 12 0	7 8 0
III.	125	1 8 0	7 0 0

The villages in the 2nd group represent the bulk of the taluk and those villages which have been placed in the 3rd group are different from them simply in being a little more distant from high roads. The villages of group 1 differ in having, in my opinion, a slightly better rain-fall and in being somewhat better populated.

16. The proposed rates are very much the same as those adopted in Kunigal. I have already shown in para 10 that in point of population the taluk under report is in advance of both Kunigal and Honnavalli but somewhat behind Chiknayakanhalli and Magadi and greatly behind the Tumkúr Taluk. The rates cannot therefore be considered other than moderate.

17. The effect of the proposed rates is to give the following results on the occupied lands:—

Group.	Number of Villages.	Garden.			Rice.			Dry Crop.			Total.
		Acres.	Assessment.	Average rate.	Acres.	Assessment.	Average rate.	Acres.	Assessment.	Average rate.	Acres.	Assessment.	Average rate.

20. The next statement gives a comprehensive view of the effect of the proposed settlement, the old collections and the new assessment on Government occupied and unoccupied as well as on inam lands being shown for each group —

Total area of the whole taluk (square miles 498)		...	...	...	318,493

21. The following statement which shows the average rate under each head for both old and new assessment well illustrates the effect of the latter :—

Description of Land.	Acres by Survey.	By old Accounts.		By Survey.
		Collections	Average rate.	Assessment.	Average rate.
1	2	3	4	5	6
Dry Crop	97,424	61,612	0 10 1	79,240	0 13 0
Rice	7,639	25,671	3 5 9	28,817	3 12 4
Garden	3,896	12,315	3 2 7	15,072	3 13 11
Miscellaneous	...	152	...	...	...
Total.....	108,959	99,750	0 14 8	1,23,129	1 2 1

The above rates are intrinsically very moderate and the increase under each head is far more than accounted for by the excess area found to be in occupancy. The old accounts show, for instance, that the garden and rice lands are only 6,572 acres, while by survey the area of garden and rice under occupancy is found to be 11,535 acres, besides 6,257 acres lying waste. These figures require no comment beyond the remark that the old rates must have been extraordinarily high to produce so large a revenue on so small an area as appears in the old accounts.

Local cess.

22. The local cess at one anna brought in, in 1880—81, Rs 7,053 ; under the proposed settlement the amount will be Rs. 7,695 on the Government occupied land and Rs. 970 on the minor inam lands, in all rupees 8,665.

Grazing.

23. The realizations from grazing amounted, in 1880—81, to Rs. 5,335 and under the proposed assessment will certainly not be less.

General results.

24. The estimated results of the proposed settlement showas below against the collections of 1880—81, grazing being omitted in both cases :—

	Rs.
Collections of 1880—81	99,750
Local cess	7,053
Total under old system....	1,06,803
Survey assessment of occupied lands	1,23,129
Local cesses	8,665
Total under new or survey system....	1,31,794

25. The gross gain to Government leaving out all calculation of local cesses amounts to Rs. 23,379 or about 23 per cent.

Pay of village officers.

26. The pay of village officers will amount in round numbers to about Rs. 8,000.

Irrigation Fund.

27. The annual contribution to the Irrigation Fund from the ordinary wet assessment will amount to Rs. 2,582.

28. Deducting the sums shown in the two preceding paras the net gain to Government is reduced to Rs. 12,797.

29. In considering the effect of the proposed settlement it will be necessary to bear in mind that the year 1880—81 was one of extraordinary low collections. The statement at para 12 will show that in 1869—70 the collections were no less than Rs. 1,38,366, but at that time there was of course a good deal more land under cultivation, still the fact remains that the resources of the taluk once admitted of such extensive cultivation and the payment of so much revenue. Let us compare the assessment now proposed on the occupied lands with the averages of a consecutive number of years. The survey assessment of the occupied land is Rs. 1,23,129.

30. It is not improbable that there will be a good many resignations of land at the settlement, but I am not in a position to estimate the extent. The current year has not been favorable as regards crops and the contraction of their holdings at the settlement where the facilities for doing so are great, will no doubt be felt to be economical by many of the ryots. Still I feel certain that the net results of the settlement will be far above the collections of late years and that the foundation of a healthy extension of cultivation as seasons improve will have been laid.

31. The usual classwar statement showing the assessment, area and population and other particulars village by village is attached, as also a list of inam villages and the mode of survey which has been applied to each.

32. With reference to the question of dealing with the Amrut Mahal kavals, alluded to by the Deputy Commissioner in his concluding para, I think no great difficulty need be anticipated, as all the kandayam paying lands, with very few exceptions, have been duly brought to account by the survey and not included within the kaval boundaries. It will be only necessary to free these lands from any claim on the part of the Amrut Mahal Department, which should arrange with the holders of the land for the grazing if necessary. There should in short be no joint rights over the same land. Major Rutherfurd in para 26 of his report however raises a somewhat wider question and suggests that if valuable lands now lying waste in the Amrut Mahal kavals be required for cultivation they should be divided up into numbers and given out to the applicants. If Government approves, such lands, if the Settlement Officer is satisfied that they will really be cultivated, can easily be measured up after inquiry at the settlement. As regards the Deputy Superintendent's proposal to adjust the boundaries of the more inconveniently shaped kavals such an arrangement might no doubt be advisable but would be opposed by the Amrut Mahal Department.

33. I beg that sanction may be obtained as soon as practicable to the proposed assessment as I hope to be able to commence giving out the rates by the middle of May next.

I have the honor to be
Sir,
Your most obedient Servant,

J. P. GRANT,

Supt., Revenue Survey and Assessment,

Mysore.

Proceedings of the Dewan to His Highness the Maha Raja of Mysore, (Revenue),—dated 12th May 1882.

From the Offg. Deputy Superintendent, Mysore Revenue Survery, To the Superintendent, Mysore Revenue Survey, No. 640, dated Bangalore, 29th August 1881.

I have the honor to submit herewith the following report on the Kadaba Taluk in the Tumkúr District, the marginally noted sammats of which were classed during the current season by the "C" Establishment under my charge.

ayasandra (in part).

2. Boundaries.—The taluk is bounded on the north and north-east by the Chiknayakanhalli d Tumkúr Taluks, on the east by the Tumkúr and Magadi Taluks and on the west by Honnaval- on the south by the Kunigal, Nagamangala and Channarayapatna Taluks.

3. Area and Population.—The taluk is of irregular shape. The total length is 32 miles, d average breadth 15 miles; the area may be put down at about 500 square miles. According the Census taken in February last the population was 68,201 giving 136 souls to the square ile.

4. Sub-Divisions.—The taluk is divided into 8 sub-divisions or sammats, viz., Chitanhalli, abbegatta, Gubbi, Hebbur, Kadaba, Kallur, Mayasandra and Turuvekere.

5. General Description.—The taluk is more or less undulating with numerous extensive tracts perfectly level ground; here and there are scattered rocky elevations of no great height, and the south, in the Dabbegatta sammat, are hills which produce a black hornblende, formerly arried for building purposes. To the north-west and south-east there is scrub jungle, otherwise e country is open.

6. Drainage and Irrigation.—The Shimsha river flows through the taluk from a north-east- ly direction almost due south, and forms on its way several large tanks. Two other streams, e entering the taluk on the north-west, the other on the west, unite near Turuvekere, where there a fine tank, and, after a due easterly course of several miles, join the Shimsha river near Kallur. he above mentioned streams drain the greater portion of the taluk from the centre and west, the ainage of the rest of the taluk being effected by two large nullahs running from east to west along he northern and southern boundaries, and which eventually join the Shimsha. None of these reams are directly used for irrigation, but numerous tanks, which irrigate extensive tracts of rice nd, are formed in their course.

Wells.—Pakka or stone built wells are few in number, but "Gundis" or holes ranging from 0 to 15 feet in depth are very numerous, especially in garden lands.

Tanks.—There are altogether 380 tanks in the taluk, of which nearly 200 are out of order, nd out of 38 anicuts 23 are out of repair. In Appendix A a list is given of some of the more nportant tanks and anicuts which are either breached or not in working order

7. Soils.—The soil, as a rule, is of good quality of a reddish or greyish red color, and of ufficient depth, but has in many places a considerable admixture of sand. Dark-brown and even lack loamy soil is sometimes met with in low-lying situations, and shallow gravelly soil is not ncommon in the high-lying lands.

8. Crops (Dry).—The dry crops sown in the taluk are ragi (the staple crop), avare, hurali, ogari, sámé, hutchellu, chillies, Bengal-gram, baragu, jola, haraka, haralu, hesaru, yellu, and unaji bhatta. Ragi, togari, and avare are grown together. Occasionally small patches of jola nd tobacco are met with. The first 10 are hingari, the last 5 are mungári crops.

(Wet.) Rice and sugar-cane.—There are various kinds of rice grown besides dodda and sanna- hatta, amongst them, one kind called " Putta Bhatta " which is raised on very sandy soil, and he produce of which is very large. It is a small round grain. Sugar-cane cultivation is chiefly onspicuous by its absence. Frequent enquiries made personally at test and at camp as to the easons why two crops of rice were not raised, and sugar-cane not more extensively cultivated, licited the invariable reply that, in the former case there was too much water, and in the latter t was not the " Mamul !". Bilemara and rastali are the two kinds of cane grown. Jaggory is roduced in moulds and is sold at the rate of one rupee per maund of 40 seers.

9. Gardens.—Supari and cocoanut gardens, especially the latter, are pretty numerous. Plan- ains and betel-vines, the former extensively, the latter to a limited extent, are also cultivated. n many cocoanut gardens, below the large tanks, the trees are either planted on the edges, or t long intervals from each other, and the ground, thus left free, is cultivated with rice. Many gardens had suffered from drought in consequence of the breaching of the tanks which irrigated hem, and many more were waste, and apparently abandoned by their owners. Some were even vergrown with scrub jungle. The average crop per supari tree is said to be 1½ seers, which would give nearly 4 maunds for 100 trees, or at the rate of 800 trees to the acre, 32 maunds per cre. The average produce of a cocoanut tree is in some places stated to be 30, in others 50 uts ; I have frequently counted as many as 70.

ording to the crop raised, whether rice, ragi, arisina, &c. In kasaba Sampagi the rate is Rs.)—5—10 on one vokkala Lagavari, (750 gaz), and Rs. 0—0—7 for each supari tree. There is o separate assessment on cocoanut trees which are generally planted on the borders of the "Numers." Betel-vines pay from Rs. 1—8—0 to Rs. 1—12—0 on 100 "Gunis," each guni equals l mundiges, each mundige containing 4 vines planted in a square. In kasaba Kantur the assessnent is on the trees after they have come into bearing, and before that on the land. In the former ase the rate varies from Rs. 7—4—4 to Rs. 10—0—0 on 100 cocoanut trees, and Rs. 3—10—2 n 100 supari trees in irrigated, and Rs. 2—14—0 in unirrigated lands. In the latter case the ate is Rs. 6—4—0 per khandi (wet). No extra assessment is levied on betel-vines and plantains. n kasaba Tandaga the rate is Rs. 0—1—2 on each cocoanut tree when in bearing; until which ime the assessment is on the land at the rate of Rs. 0—4—8 or Rs 0—3—6 per tari vokkala.)n each supari tree the rate is Rs 0—0—7. Nothing extra is levied on betel-vines. In kasaba Dabbegatta each cocoanut tree pays from Rs. 0—1—2 to Rs 0—2—4, and each supari tree Rs. 0—0—7. Betel-vines pay Rs. 1—7—4 for every 100 gunis, the land assessment being leducted.

13. Batayi.—Batayi cultivation still exists in some parts of the taluk, but to a very limited xtent; the total revenue under this head for the current year amounting only to Rs. 138—1—8.

14. Manure.—The droppings of cattle, ashes, and refuse of all kinds are collected in the village maidans and used as manure. Sheep are also penned on the fields, the shepherds being paid at the rate of Rs. 1—7—4 for 500 sheep for one night.

15. Wages.—Ordinarily a man gets Rs. 0—2—0, a woman Rs. 0—1—0 for a whole day's work, and though I ascertained that less than this rate was paid in some places, I no where found it exceeded. At harvest time a seer or more of grain is added. Yearly servants get from Rs. 15 to Rs. 20 per annum, together with a cumbly, dhotar and rummal, also advances on marriage.

16. Cattle.—As a rule, the cattle are of an inferior breed, small and weak. In Kallur sammat there is a superior breed, and numbers are exported to other parts of the Province. The price of an ordinary pair of plough bullocks is between Rs. 30 and 40. Sheep and goats are very numerous.

17. Roads.—The Imperial road from Bangalore to Shimoga passes through the north-east corner of the taluk for a few miles. The other roads are District or Local Fund roads and run one from Gubbi, through kasaba Kadaba in a southerly direction to Mysore; another enters the taluk in the south-east corner, and traverses the taluk in a north-westerly direction; from this two short roads diverge, one, south to Bellur in the Nagamangala Taluk, the other due west to Nonavinkere in the Honnavalli Taluk.

18. Markets.—Weekly markets are held at the places and on the days shown below:—

Gubbi.	Sunday and Monday.
Kallur.	Thursday.
Mayasandra.	Wednesday.
Turuvekere.	Monday.
Hebbur.	Friday.

Gubbi is the principal market, and business to the value of several thousand rupees is transacted weekly.

19. Exports and Imports.—Arecanuts, cardamoms and pepper are imported from the Malnad and exported to Vellore and Walaji, whence nutmegs, mace, and European cloths are obtained in exchange. Sugar, sugar-candy, silk and piece-goods are imported from Bangalore, and are sent together with locally raised cocoanuts to Dharwar. From the latter place cotton and thread are imported. Rice and ragi are also sent to Bangalore.

20. Manufactures.—Coarse cotton cloths, both white and colored, blankets, sackcloth, and black and red cloths of a superior description for females are manufactured. The latter are exported to various parts of the Province. Looms for the manufacture of coarse cumblies are numerous throughout the taluk. Oil-mills are also numerous. A tax of from Rs. 2 to Rs. 4½ is levied from each loom according to the quality of the cloth and Rs. 3 and sometimes Rs. 4 from each mill per annum. Glass bangles though not manufactured are imported and colored with lac. Earth-salt is also manufactured to a limited extent.

21. Weights and Measures.—The seer = 24 rupees in weight, and is used for weighing jaggory and chillies; the pakka seer of 80 Rs. weight is used for measuring all kinds of grain.

22. Grain levies.—I have appended to this report a detailed statement of the grain levies and cash payments received by the village officers and servants from the ryots. There are both Sammat or Hobli and Village Shanbhogs. The former are supposed to supervise and check the accounts prepared by the latter, as well as to prepare those of the villages under their immediate charge. Some Shanbhogs have service inams and draw pay besides; others have no land, but receive a small monthly stipend. In the Mayasandra sammat the Hobli Shanbhogs get a certain sum per mensem which is divided between them and the Village Shanbhogs in proportion to the number of villages in each man's charge. I came across numerous instances of evasion of the Chief Commissioner's order No. 3335 G.—62, dated 1st August 1878, directing payment of aya to Totis and Talaris. The excuse given was that it was not the "Mamúl" to give it. The Patels as a rule get nothing.

23. Forests.—There are no forests in the taluk, but scrub jungle is met with in patches of no great extent in the north-west and south-east of the taluk. The only produce is gall-nuts from which a trifling revenue is realized. Topes are numerous and generally consists of mango, tamarind and ippe trees.

24. Grazing.—Except in those parts of the taluk where the Amrut Mahal kavals encroach upon the village lands the area of grazing ground is very extensive, and the grazing itself is of very fair quality.

25. Deserted Villages.—There are altogether 35 Bechirakh villages in the taluk, accordin to returns furnished by the Amildar, and prepared since the famine.

26. Amrut Mahal Kavals.—There are altogether 33 Amrut Mahal kavals in the taluk They vary as much in quality of soil and configuration of surface as they do in extent. Some ar tolerably flat or undulating, others more or less hilly, and with numerous rocky or steep eleva tions; in some the soil is remarkably good, and in others equally bad. The quality of the grazing also varies from bad to very good. Owing to the enormous extent, position and peculiar shape o some of these kavals, great inconvenience is caused to the ryots of many villages who have to drive their cattle to graze in the waste lands of other villages, and who have even to cross some kaval to reach their own cultivated fields. Much valuable land (both dry crop and rice) is absorbed i these kavals, and therefore thrown out of cultivation, but from what the ryots told me, I believe that if such land were included in adjoining villages and measured up into "Numbers," application for permission to cultivate would be very numerous. The ryots of Chittanhalli Amanikere expresse their readiness to cultivate as much land of the Chittanhalli kaval as they could get, provided th anicuts were repaired. I would here beg to suggest that at time of settlement the boundaries o the more awkwardly and inconveniently shaped kavals should be rectified and that the smalle kavals should be absorbed and measured into the adjoining villages.

Nagadi Kavals.—There are 18 Nagadi kavals in the taluk, many of which being of very smal area might with advantage be included in adjoining villages.

27. Rain-fall.—From the register of rain-fall kept at the Taluk Cutcherry it appears tha the average is 21 inches per annum, which is pretty equally distributed. I should however b inclined to put the rain-fall down at 25 inches at the least.

28. Climate.—The taluk has the reputation of being feverish, especially the portion com prising the Mayasandra sammat. Ague is also said to be very common. During the 3½ month I was employed in the taluk I came across very few cases of sickness, and the men of my establish ment enjoyed, on the whole, very good health.

29. Condition of the People.—The taluk sufferd very severely during the famine, a fact onl too clearly apparent from the numbers of deserted villages, enormous areas of waste land an numerous abandoned gardens. The condition of the people, however, so far as it came under m observation during classing operations, appeared to be very fair and in the course of the next fe years, after they have had time to appreciate the advantages of the Survey settlement, I thin there is every reason to expect a very decided improvement.

30. Concluding Remarks.—The taluk, as already remarked, is of irregular shape, and I be therefore to suggest the rectification of the boundaries, especially that portion comprising part the Dabbegatta sammat, which might, with great advantage, be included either in the Channaraya patna or Nagamangala Taluk. Mudenhalli, the kasba of the Mudenhalli sammat, is completel isolated, being entirely surrounded by villages of the Honnavalli Taluk, in which it would be adv sable to include it. Gubbi, the head-quarters of the taluk, is situated in the north-east corner an more than 30 miles from the western boundary, and therefore from every point of view in a inconvenient a position as it could possibly be.

31. In conclusion I beg to state that only 3½ sammats of this taluk were classed by m establishment, and as I was only 3½ months in the taluk, and had to perform the duties of a Cla sing establishment in addition to my own as Officiating Deputy Superintendent, I regret that th report is not so full or complete as it might be.

32. The Amildar Saiyad Ahamad gave every assistance in his power and I beg to mend him for favorable notice.

Proceedings of the Dewan to His Highness the Maha Raja of Mysore, (Revenue),—dated 12th May 1882.

Proceedings of the Dewan to His Highness the Maha Raja of Mysore, (Revenue),—dated 12th May 1882.

From the Offg. Deputy Commissioner, Tumkúr District, To the Superintendent, Revenue Survey in Mysore, Mis. No. 301, dated Tumkúr, 20th September 1881.

With reference to your letter No. 479, dated 6th ultimo, calling for information regarding the past revenue management of the Kadaba Taluk, where the Survey settlement is about to be introduced, I have the honor to submit the following remarks.

2. The taluk lies in the middle part of the District, and is bounded by Tumkúr on the east and north, by Chiknayakanhalli, Honnavalli and Channarayapatna on the west, and by Kunigal and Magadi on the south. Gubbi, the head-quarter Town of the Kadaba Taluk, is situated by the side of the Bangalore-Shimoga high road, 12 miles on the west of Tumkúr.

3. Kadaba is divided into 8 maganis or sub-divisions, as particularized below :—

No.	Name of Magani.	Number of villages.	Population as per Census of 1881.
1	Gubbi	52	11,213
2	Kadaba	46	6,358
3	Mayasandra	80	11,231
4	Hebbur	58	8,173
5	Chittanhalli	62	7,688
6	Kallur	65	7,278
7	Turuvekere	61	8,488
8	Dabbegatta	54	7,772
		478	68,201

4. Of these Nos. 1, 2, 3 and 6 formed the late Kadaba Gubbi Taluk; Nos. 4 and 5 the Hebbur Taluk, and Nos. 7 and 8 formed part of the late Turuvekere Taluk.

5. Almost all the villages are plain and open, the climate is healthy, and the soil for most part of the taluk good. There are no hills, nor are there any perennial streams or artificial channels of any importance. The rain-fall is moderate compared with that in Tumkúr, where Devarayadurga hills attract more rain. The tanks are of ordinary size with the exception of those at Mullaghatta and Kadaba and do not contain water enough to last for some years. The following table shows the sources of irrigation and the extent of land under the different heads as per existing accounts :—

6. This taluk being more thickly populated than the neighbouring ones, there has been greater competition in the cultivation of land, and agricultural operations have been conducted by the people somewhat more briskly than elsewhere. The marginally noted statement exhibits the annual increase and decrease in the darkhasts and razinamas put in for lands in the taluk under reference, and the figures therein given not only strengthen my views in respect of agriculture in Kadaba, but also indicate how large the annual demand for land is, and how few relinquishments are made compared with the adjoining taluks. The amount of land taken up is 16 per cent in excess of that of relinquishments in Kadaba during the said period, while in the adjoining Taluks of Honnavalli, Tumkur, Kunigal and Chiknayakanhalli the proportion is less by 5, 22, 25 and 44 per cent respectively than the amount of lands resigned.

7. With regard to crops, ragi, ballar, horse-gram, dál, haraka, sámé and castor-oil seeds, &c., are generally grown on dry lands, paddy on rice land and cocoa, areca and betel on the bagayat lands Valuable crops, such as sugar-cane, mulberry, &c., are not grown extensively, but on a very limited area as already shown in the statement in para 5.

8. The rates of assessment vary for every village in the taluk and they do not seem to have been fixed with reference to the productive quality of the soil, nature of irrigation and means of communication, markets, &c. The late Superintendent of the Chitaldroog Division to which Kadaba was formerly attached, gave out the land on an assessment fixed on an average of the past 6 to 30 years' batayi revenue derived therefrom. About the year 1856—57, when the nagadiyat system was introduced in the room of batayi throughout the taluk, some modifications were made also in the then existing rates under the principles alluded to above. So increase and decrease of the rates of assessment on the complaint of ryots were of common occurrence in his annual jamabandi settlements. Since the formation of the District in 1862—63, changes of rates became few and far between. From the records it appears that the following rates are in existence in the taluk :—

Proceedings of the Dewan to His Highness the Maha Raja of Mysore, (Revenue),—dated 12th May 1882.

9. The dry cocoa gardens are not so abundant in the taluk under reference as they are in ıe adjacent Taluks of Honnavalli and Chiknayakanhalli. In the Turuvekere and Dabbegatta ›blis some valuable gardens of this description are to be found.

10. Considering the position of the Kadaba Taluk, its soil, population, roads facilitating the ɛtensive trade of supari, &c., advantages which are in every respect equal, though not superior Honnavalli, I think the taluk may be divided into two groups, one consisting of hoblis of ayasandra, Kallur, Turuvekere and Dabbegatta, and the other of Kadaba, Gubbi, Hebbur and ıittanhalli sammats.

11. The first mentioned group being on the borders of Kunigal and Honnavalli, the *rates of land assessment adopted in those taluks may be followed here.

12. The †incidence of the survey assessment in Tumkúr is generally considered too heavy and unequally distributed in some places, so much so the value of landed property has greatly decreased. Many of the valuable gardens and rice lands, which had been bought for good prices before the settlement, have been resigned, and the waste numbers are increasing every year in the Pad Patrikas, and the revenue has suffered. I would, therefore, strongly urge that the mode of assessment adopted for Tumkúr may not be followed for any part of the taluk under reference. The 2nd group being on the borders of Chiknayakanhalli, Honnavalli and Kunigal which has been recently settled by the Survey Department, the average rate of these three taluks or rates nearly similar to the same may be advantageously adopted for their lands as shown in the margin.

13. I would avail myself of this opportunity to bring to your notice another point of impor- ɔnce. There are 41 Amrut Mahal kavals attached to the Madras Commissariat Department easuring khandis 3,613—12—15. Of this 1,198—5—8¼ khandis are unassessed waste, while ıe remainder (khandis 2,415—7—6¾) bears an assessment of Rs. 19,360—11—9 per annum, ; per account for 1880—81. As the greater part of these kavals consist of superior land, ryots the adjacent villages take up every year portions here and there of these kavals for cultivation. ıder the existing rules the ryots pay kandayam to the Mysore Government for the year in which e lands are cultivated, and no rent when they are left waste. This course has not only caused ıctuations in the revenue, but also afforded room for frauds on the part of the Kaval Servegars ıd Shanbhogs. So, I beg that steps may be taken to put an end to this system by resuming such ıds and fixing once for all the rent to be levied on them.

om the Officiating Deputy Commissioner, Tumkúr District, To the Superintendent, Mysore Revenue Survey, Mis. No. 20, dated Tumkúr, 15th April 1882.

With reference to your letter No. 186, dated 22nd ultimo, giving cover to your report to the dress of the Secretary to the Dewan containing proposals for the settlement of Kadaba Taluk in s District, and calling for my remarks thereon, I have the honor to state that this office letter . 301, dated 20th September last, alluded to by you, having contained my views regarding the ıt revenue management and capabilities of the taluk, it only remains for me to consider such other tters as to whether the proposed grouping of villages in the taluk and the rates of assessment ɔpted for their lands &c. are reasonable.

Proceedings of the Dewan to His Highness the Maha Raja of Mysore, (Revenue),—dated 12th May 1882.

2. Gubbi, a large and important town along with other villages attached to the Gubbi Hobl is situated on and near the Bangalore-Shimoga high road, and contains large tanks witl a population sufficient to create great demand for landed property. Kadaba, which is in south at a short distance from Gubbi hobli, is second in respect of communication, population, etc. with the exception of large irrigation work, viz., Kadaba amanikere yielding a large revenue than that of the Gubbi tank. Mayasandra and Dabbegatta hoblis are inferior to the above mentioned two sammats in every respect. They are situated at a corner in the southern part of the taluk. Moreover the proposed Bangalore-Tiptur Railway when commences will make the Gubbi and Kadaba hoblis mor attractive than Mayasandra and Dabbegatta Sammats. However the last mentioned hoblis hav been brought under the group of 1st class, while Gubbi and Kadaba under that of the 2nd class and the reason for this is not apparent.

3. With respect to the rates of assessment, I observe that Rs. 2, 1¾ and 1½ for dry, Rs. 8, 7 and 7 for rice lands of classes 1, 2 and 3 respectively, and Rs. 12 for tank irrigated and Rs. 10 fo well irrigated gardens have been proposed. Although the rate Rs. 7½ per acre of 2nd class rice lan is slightly in advance, it is not in any way objectionable. So the proposed rates on dry, wet and gar dens under tanks being moderate may be adopted The assessment, viz., Rs. 10 on an acre of gar den under wells seems to be high, compared with that of Kunigal where a rate of Rs. 6 per acre c similar land is adopted. Kadaba is not rich in respect of gardens, and needs every encouragemen for the development of this class of industry. I would, therefore, venture to recommend for the re consideration of the matter.

4. The cultivated area of Government lands as per statement subjoined to para 17 of you report is 108,959 acres, and that shown in the revenue accounts is 7,583 khandis equal to acre 64,778, the difference being 68 per cent, a greater portion of which appears to have been due t the inaccuracy of the old account, and also to including waste lands in the existing holdings durin the survey.

5. The incidence of the proposed survey rates shows an increase of Rs. 23,379 distributed o about 23 per cent as per margin over the three groups into which th taluk is divided. The increase in groups Nos. 1 and 2 may, I thinl be due to wet lands under several big tanks therein being assessed a the average rates. In some villages the increment is so strikin that it is more than six times the past collections. Whether this in crease is due to the lowness of the existing rates, or to the under statement of the cultivated are in the old accounts cannot be explained, as it seems to me to be due to both these causes.

Group No.	Increase	Ratio
I	6,559	29 per cent
II	15,007	25
III	1,813	10
	23,379

6. Adverting to your remarks in para 10 on my allegation that Kadaba is more thickly populated than the neighbouring taluks, I beg to subjoin for your information a table showing the tota population as per Census of 1881, and the extent of the taluk in question as per survey statistic The population of Kadaba compared with that of its adjoining Taluks—Honnavalli, Chiknayakanhalli and Kunigal is great. Tumkúr being the head-quarters of the District is an exception to th above The statistics you give in para 9 do not seem to have been based upon the late Censu returns. Hence the difference in respect of population.

Taluks.	Population as per Census.	Total area in square miles as per survey.	Population per square mile.
Kunigal	58,757	430	136
Kadaba	66,153	498	137
Chiknayakanhalli	33,128	355	93
Honnavalli	38,922	344	113

7. With reference to Major Rutherfurd's list of tanks reported to be out of order, I beg t state that the marginally noted important tanks have alread been repaired and for the restoration of the remaining necessar steps will be taken in due course.

1. Sampige tank.
2. Virasagura tank.
3. Mayasandra.
4. Vadavanghatta.
5. Nigalapura.

Proceedings of the Dewan to His Highness the Maha Raja of Mysore, (Revenue),--dated 12th May 1882.

8. In conclusion, I regret to state that I had not sufficient time to pay such careful attenon to this important matter as it deserves. Your report reached me only about 20 days ago hen I was engaged in jamabandi and other out-door works. It is announced that the settlement f the taluk under report will take place in May next. So I was afraid that detaining your report in is Office for a long time will put you to inconvenience. If your letter had been sent to me in me in accordance with the late Chief Commissioner's Proceedings No. 2868—91, dated 3rd June 876, para 39, I would have gone more minately and carefully into the matter and discussed seveal points in detail.

9. The enclosures* of your letter under reference are herewith returned.

Proceedings of the Dewan to His Highness the Maha Raja of Mysore, (Revenue),—dated 12th May 1882.

No. 1333-42—39, DATED BANGALORE, 12TH MAY 1882.

ORDER THEREON.—The Kadaba Taluk, excepting a small portion on the south-west which is more undulating and has somewhat a greater rain-fall and is better populated, is uniformly level throughout with few hills or forests and with the prevailing red soil of the table land with a considerable admixture of sand in many places. There are numerous tanks, several of which, however, are in a state of disrepair, and irrigation wells are numerous. Sugar-cane cultivation is rare as under tanks it is not so profitably cultivated in open level lands as in valleys with natural moisture and in well populated villages. The supari and cocoanut gardens are stated to be in a somewhat deteriorated condition. Mulberry cultivation which was formerly extensively carried on in the Turuvekere, Chitnahalli and Dabbegatta sammats has greatly declined; and owing generally to the effects of the famine, and to the neglected condition of the tanks, the present revenue collections in the taluk are much below what they were under the batayi system in former years. Topes of mango, tamarind and hippe trees are reported to be numerous.

2. For purposes of assessment, the taluk has been divided into 3 groups of villages, the 1st comprising the more favored south-west portion of the taluk already referred to and in which have also been included 25 villages about Gubbi situated on the line of the proposed Railway; the 2nd the great bulk of the level portion of the taluk; and the 3rd the remaining few villages of the same description which are more distant from the high roads.

3. The rates of assessment adopted for all descriptions of lands are fair, the maximum fixed for well gardens being 6 Rs. and not 10 Rs. as erroneously entered in the printed report. The following statement gives the results of the settlement on the different descriptions of lands :—

Description of Land.	Occupied Lands.					Waste arable lands.

4. The garden lands under occupation are further sub-divided as follows :—

Total.....	3,896	15,072	3 13 11

Proceedings of the Dewan to His Highness the Maha Raja of Mysore, (Revenue),—dated 12th May 1882.

5. Information is requested as to the maximum rate adopted for the unirrigated cocoanut gardens which contain no wells.

6. The total of the survey settlement shows an increase of about Rs. 23,000 over the present collections, from which deducting Rs. 2,582, the irrigation cess merged in the assessment, and Rs. 8,000, the pay of village officers, and making allowance for lands which may be resigned at the settlement, the net increase is not very considerable. The available resources of the taluk in arable waste lands, however, are very large. Besides the usual large extent of dry arable waste, it will be seen that there is, under wet lands, an extent of waste nearly equal to the area under cultivation, and in going through the statement of individual villages, it is noticed that the whole or the greater portion of the area under several of the tanks is lying waste. The Deputy Commissioner should give his attention to this point, and should at once take steps to place all the tanks in a state of thorough repair, but the non-cultivation of wet lands must also be partly due to the want of population, and, it may be added, to the little interest shown in this description of cultivation by the ryot population. The wet lands are chiefly owned by the Brahman classes who do not take an active part in the cultivation. The ryots have no higher aspirations than growing their food for the year on their dry lands, and have no ideas of making money by the more profitable cultivation of wet lands. It is to be hoped that the opening of the Railway which will pass through this taluk may give a stimulus and turn to account the large available resources of the taluk.

7. There is a large number of Amrut Mahal kavals in the taluk. The Deputy Commissioner's report gives their number at 41, with an area of 3,613 khandis, whilst the Officiating Deputy Superintendent refers to 33 Amrut Mahal kavals and 18 Nagadi kavals, the nature of which is not explained. The statement of area in the Survey Superintendent's report shows only 20 Amrut Mahal kavals with an area of 13,658 acres. The Survey Superintendent reports that all the kandayam paying lands upon which the Amrut Mahal Department hitherto exercised certain rights of grazing have been excluded from the kavals. This is in accordance with the orders issued on the subject. The Deputy Commissioner should in communication with the Amrut Mahal Officer, arrange to enter into terms with the ryots for the stubble grazing of the lands where it is required for the Amrut Mahal cattle during the hot season. This should be at once attended to.

8. The Survey Deputy Superintendent's proposal to measure, assess, and give out for cultivation the valuable land now included and lying waste in the Amrut Mahal kavals seems scarcely called for, whilst there is already an unusually large extent of wet as well as dry waste land available to the cultivators. But there is no objection to the boundaries of the more awkwardly situated kavals which cause obstruction and inconvenience to the ryots being rectified by cutting off any small corners of the kavals which do not involve loss of valuable pasturage, and also to any small or insignificant kavals being absorbed into the neighbouring villages or being, what would be better, marked off into separate numbers and sold to the best advantage to private cattle breeders. The arrangements however should be carefully made in consultation with the Amrut Mahal officials in the taluk and should be submitted for previous sanction with full details.

9. The rectification of the boundaries of the taluk referred to by the Deputy Superintendent is also important and should be taken up by the Deputy Commissioner both as regards this as well as the other taluks of the District.

10. The Dewan concurs in the opinion of the Survey Superintendent that it cannot be possible to send in settlement proposals three months before the time fixed for the settlement. Two or three weeks' time ought to suffice for the Deputy Commissioner going into the whole question, examining a few villages in the taluk, and submitting his opinion and observations.

Proceedings of the Dewan to His Highness the Maha Raja of Mysore, (Revenue),—dated 12th May 1882.

11. With these remarks His Highness' Government sanctions the proposed settlement with the usual guarantee for 30 years.

PART I.

FORESTS.

Proceedings of the Dewan to His Highness the Maha Raja of Mysore, (Forests),—dated 4th May 1882.

No. 969-72—4, DATED BANGALORE, 2ND MAY 1882.

ORDER.—As a further supply of 12,000 sleepers is immediately required for the Railway between Mysore and Bangalore, the Forest Officer at Mysore should at once arrange to cart down to Mysore a sufficient quantity of the inferior teak cut for sleepers and remaining in the different Forest depôts, and deliver it to the officer appointed by the Railway Manager to receive the same, furnishing to this Office a statement of the quantity supplied, for recovering the cost from the Railway Department.

2. As a very large supply of teak sleepers will ere long be required for the Railway to Tumkúr, the Mysore Forest Officer should at once arrange for felling and storing in the nearest Forest depôts a sufficient supply of inferior teak which can be cut in the several forests without injury to them. There is reason to apprehend that on the last occasion, though trees of stunted growth were promised to be cut in all parts of the forests so as to promote a better growth of the trees, the nearer forests alone were more or less indiscriminately cleared for the purpose. This should be carefully avoided on the present occasion. A supply of inferior teak for 100,000 sleepers may be collected as above during the present year. The Assistant Conservator Mr. Abdul Karim, who has had some experience in the matter, should co-operate with Mr. Russell and give him all the necessary information and assistance in the matter.

Letter No. 3134—950 of the 13th February 1882 from the Deputy Commissioner of Hassan forwarding proposals submitted by the Sub-Assistant Conservator for planting the Bhaktarvalli sandal plantation in the Arkalgúd Taluk.

No. 1046-7—50, DATED BANGALORE, 4TH MAY 1882.

ORDER.—The Bhaktarvalli sandal plantation is stated to comprise 100 acres, of which 20 acres planted in 1872—73 are stated to be well stocked with saplings of 10 to 15 feet. But in the remaining 80 acres which have been sown year after year, there is scarcely 5 per cent of the plants to be seen. The expenditure incurred on this plantation up to date amounts to about Rs. 7,545. The proposals now submitted by the Sub-Assistant Conservator for planting an area of 5 acres at a cost of Rs. 450 seem of doubtful utility. The clearing and burning of the land to be planted may be open to objection, and the proposal for weeding and digging up the whole area seems needlessly expensive. If the sandal plant is put down in a pit of sufficient depth in a favorable season to admit of its taking root, it may to a great extent be left to take care of itself. The sandal tree better grows in the midst and in the shade of other vegetation than in regular plantations exclusively of sandal.

2. The Sub-Assistant Conservator's letter will be forwarded to Mr. Hutchins in view to his giving him such instructions and suggestions as may be necessary in the matter, a copy of which should also be furnished to this Office.

Letter No. 2476—733 of the 8th December 1881 from the Deputy Commissioner of Hassan on the same subject.

No. 1048-58—33, DATED BANGALORE, 4TH MAY 1882.

ORDER.—The security to be taken from the officials in the Forest Department above the grade of peons and watchers is in accordance with previous custom fixed at the amount of one year's pay of the official concerned in money or twice that value in land and other immovable property. The Rangers and Sandal Darogas and Mutsaddis ought generally to be able to furnish the security at once. But there will be difficulty in giving immediate effect to the measure in the case of the Foresters who have hard work and small pay and whose offices are not much sought after. Where they are unable tofurnish the whole or any portion of the amount of security prescribed at once, they may be allowed to make it good by a deduction of ¼th of their monthly salary.

Letters Nos. 3183—949, 3190—963, 3561—1090, 3562—1091, dated respectively 13th February, 21st January, 28th March, 28th March, from the Deputy Commissioner, Hassan District.

No. 1064-5—53, DATED BANGALORE, 4TH MAY 1882.

ORDER.—There can be no doubt that the valuable ghat forests have hitherto been totally neglected and that an undue strain has been put on the maidan forests which are comparatively thinly wooded and which if denuded are difficult of restocking. But it is necessary that the operations in these ghat forests should be conducted upon a carefully considered plan.

2. The Sub-Assistant Conservator's reports contain only general remarks and do not give sufficient data on the several points. He altogether overestimates the demand for wood at Arsikere, Hassan and Saklespur. The demand in the Public Works Department with the little need for any new buildings may be regarded as almost nil, whilst the demand of the local population for the superior descriptions of wood must be very limited. The proposal to cart down the timber to Bangalore for sale is of questionable expediency and cannot be approved. A profitable market at Bangalore may be hereafter found when cheaper transit is secured on the completion of the Railway from Bangalore to Tiptúr or Arsikere, and the wants of the Railway for timber will in itself be considerable. Meanwhile it does not seem expedient to initiate any extensive timber operations for the supply of places on this side of the ghats. In fact the Sub-Assistant Conservator seems altogether to overlook the fact that the ghat forests are chiefly of value for the supply of the Bombay market, and he does not give any data as regards the cost of sending down the timber to Mangalore, floating it down the Kempahole or other rivers and the price likely to be realized for the timber in that place.

3. The Sub-Assistant Conservator states that the forests are well stocked with trees of large dimensions: but he does not give any idea of the quantity of each description of timber which is available and of its value in the market. There is no teak in the forests, and for poon which is the most extensively growing timber in them, there is demand only in the western coast and there is no information as to the extent of that demand and the prices likely to be realized.

4. On the whole the Dewan is of opinion that the Sub-Assistant Conservator should not at present embark on any extensive felling operations. He should devote his attention primarily to the conservancy of the forests, and if any overgrown trees could be removed with advantage to the forests, he may arrange for felling and selling them in the best market. It will not be required to establish a depôt at Mangalore for the sale. If the timber is removed and stocked in a convenient place near the forests under the charge of the Forester, timber merchants may be got from the western coast to purchase them at fair prices by competition.

5. The Deputy Commissioner and the Sub-Assistant Conservator should make full and proper enquiries on these points and carry out such arrangements as may be deemed best, reporting the same to this Office. They should specially bear in mind the economical results of the undertaking and will be responsible for securing a fair return to Government from the timber after deducting all cost. If the rate of the timber for the markets on the western coast does not hold out good prospects, the fellings should be confined strictly to such trees whose removal is necessary for the growth of the forests, and the timber should be brought down to the depôt at Hassan at the cheapest rates possible and there stored pending the future requirements of the Railway.

6. There seems no occasion for a timber or bamboo depôt either at Arsikere or Saklespur. The coffee planters, it is believed, have generally a good deal of timber in their own lands, and the other miscellaneous classes of the population at Saklespur seem too small to render a depôt profitable The better arrangement is that the Foresters in charge of the several forests should store the timber and bamboos cleared by them at convenient accessible places and sell them by auction to the general public periodically, and under proper arrangements to secure good prices. No separate depôt Mutsaddi will be required for this. A forest peon ought to suffice to take charge of this timber while in store.

7. The Sub-Assistant Conservator should frequently inspect the forests and stores and arrange for the periodical sales and lay down clear instructions for the removal only of such timber and bamboos as may be desirable to promote the growth of the forests. If these arrangements are properly carried out and if chief labor is obtained for the felling and removal of the timber and bamboos by contracting with the Solegars or other coolies for delivering certain quantities at certain rates, there may be no occasion for granting licenses to private persons to cut and remove either timber or bamboos themselves. The licenses to private individuals may probably be found more advantageous in respect of bamboos. The timber and bamboos to be cleared should in either case be carefully marked out and the forests divided into convenient blocks for working by turns.

8. The Deputy Commissioner and the Sub-Assistant Conservator are required to make the necessary arrangements in the matter with reference to the above views and report the same to this Office, and should hereafter in due course submit a detailed report on the economical results of the working of these forests.

9. It is mentioned in another letter from the Sub-Assistant Conservator that the cost of sending down the timber from the ghats to Mangalore will be the same as that of sending it to Hassan, though the details of the cost are not given. If it is so, and as Mangalore will afford a much better market than Hassan, the timber felled in the ghats should be sent to a good Agent at Mangalore on the cheapest terms procurable and sold to the best advantage.

Letter No. 3290—1004 of the 2nd March 1882 from the Deputy Commissioner of Hassan [illegible] ting for orders Forest Sub Assistant Conservator Mr. Stephen's proposals for the cons[illegible] and working of 4 kavals in the Hassan District.

No. 1066-7--54, DATED BANGALORE, 4th MAY 1882.

ORDER.—The Sub-Assistant Conservator in the above letter brings to notic the wasteful destruction which has been permitted of the Aidahalla, Ramedevarhalli Sigegudda and Ranganhalli Kaval Forests near Hassan and urges their conservatior The Deputy Commissioner forwards the above for orders without any proposals fron himself, simply expressing his dissent from the proposed levy of a fee on firewoo cut in the jungles, but adding that additional establishment is absolutely necessary.

In making the forests over to the Deputy Commissioners, it was expected that they would take an interest in their successful management and co-operate in making them more profitable to the Government whilst meeting the wants and convenience of the people so far as they are not prejudicial to the preservation of the forests and the interest of the Government.

2. The manner in which valuable and useful descriptions of trees such as matti and dindiga have been allowed to be cut for fuel without restriction, laying these useful forests almost bare, reflects discredit on their past management. This state of things ought not to be permitted to continue any longer. The levy of a fee on fuel or timber cut in such Government forests cannot be open to any objection so long as the fee is moderate, and does not interfere with free and prompt supply to the public. But a systematic management is required to ensure reproduction in these forests so valuable from their vicinity to Hassan. The Sub-Assistant Conservator's proposal to divide the forests into 6 blocks working one block for a year or two at a time and closing in the remaining blocks seems proper and may be adopted.

3. The point which requires to be determined is how the block thrown open from time to time is best worked,—whether the fuel, timber and bamboos are best collected by the Forester and sold to the public, or whether it would be preferable to allow private men to cut and remove the wood themselves on payment of the prescribed seigniorage, the wood to be cut being previously marked out. A seigniorage of 8 annas per cart-load for fuel cannot be considered heavy or oppressive and could be easily paid by the consumers of the fuel. Unless there were other jungles near from which the people could get their supplies of fuel, the system of marking out the tracts and trees which are allowed to be felled, levying a seigniorage on the cart-load, will be the most convenient, and the Deputy Commissioner in communication with the Sub-Assistant Conservator should determine on the arrangements to be carried into effect.

4. The same seigniorage should be levied on wood cut for the manufacture of charcoal, leaving it to private persons to make the charcoal. The proposal that the Forest Department should make the charcoal and sell it cannot be approved. It is believed there is at present a good deal of wasteful cutting of valuable trees for this purpose. The Forest Officer should report what descriptions of trees are now used for the purpose, what are considered best suited, and by whom and in what manner the charcoal is now made.

5. With regard to the establishment, it is observed that a Forester and 5 Watchers are provided for what is called the Belur Circle which it is presumed will include all the kavals between Hassan and Belur. This Forester ought to manage the forests under notice, supervise their working, and mark out the tracts in which wood is to be felled from time to time. A separate Forester and establishment seem under the circumstances unnecessary except perhaps for the collection of the seigniorage.

Proceedings of the Dewan to His Highness the Maha Raja of Mysore, (Forests),—dated 4th May 1882.

It may be worthy of consideration whether the collection of the seigniorage may not be rented out. The objection to the measure is that it will be to the renter's interest to see as much wood cut as possible, but it is unlikely that more wood will be cut than there is a demand for. The system anyhow may be tried experimentally for a year, the seigniorage system being confined to fuel, and the building timber being collected by the Government Forester and soid by auction.

The conservancy of the forests about Hassan, Belur and Arsikere is very important on account of the demand which will hereafter arise for fuel for the Railway.

Letter No. 274 of the 14th July 1881 from the Deputy Commissioner of Hassan, forwarding proceedings connected with the petition of Subbegauda, Patel of Kundur in the Manjarabad Taluk.

No. 838—22, DATED BANGALORE, 1ST MAY 1882.

ORDER.—The families of the petitioner and his opponent appear to have both held the office of Patel. Owing to the orders fixing a single Patel for each village, the petitioner's opponent alone appears to have been appointed to the office and there is no ground to alter this appointment in favor of the petitioner. But as both families appear to be entitled to the office, arrangements should be made for appointing the Patel alternately from each family if the members of it are found qualified.

READ—

Letter No. 491 of the 10th December 1881 from the Deputy Commissioner of Kadur.

Also letter No. 953—656 of the 7th February 1882 from the Deputy Commissioner of Shimoga

No. 850-3—33, DATED BANGALORE, 1ST MAY 1882.

ORDER THEREON.—The establishments proposed in the above by the Sub-Assistant Conservator both for his office and for forest work in the Shimoga District, which is concurred in by the Deputy Commissioner, appear to have been well considered and are generally approved with the following remarks.

2. Only three sandal koti establishments have been sanctioned for the District, viz., for Shimoga, Tirthahalli and Anantapur. The necessity for a 4th establishment is not obvious. A koti at Honnali is certainly not required as the sandal of the Shikarpur Taluk and about Nyamti which hitherto supplied Honnali may be more conveniently taken to Anantapur. If the sandal in Sorab requires to be separately stored on account of the distance of the taluk from Anantapur, a smaller establishment with a Daroga on Rs. 35 and a Mutsaddi on Rs. 10 and two peons may be employed for the collection at Sorab of the sandal of that taluk as well as of the neighbouring parts of Ságar and Shikarpur, and the Daroga may also have charge of the timber depôt at the station.

3. Two Foresters are provided for the Shikarpur Taluk, one of whom it is stated is to collect timber for the Siralkoppa Depôt and any other temporary depôts in that part of the taluk from the forests in the neighbourhood, and the other it is presumed will be employed in the parts of the taluk nearer Anantapur. These may stand. But the necessity of a Forester for the Honnali Taluk where there are hardly any forests seems questionable. Indeed some explanation is required as to how the Foresters provided for each of the taluks are proposed to be employed. It is certainly not intended to supersede the responsibility of the Amildars for the conservancy of the forests in their taluks. The Foresters except where they are employed for the charge of individual State-forests or for any other large forest tracts can scarcely be required. These men on their low pay can hardly be expected to travel over the taluk and their employment would only impair the responsibility of the Amildars in the matter. The Forester provided for the Honnali Taluk is therefore transferred to Sorab and the Forester on Rs. 10 provided for the latter taluk with a peon on Rs. 5 attached is dispensed with. It is noted that the difficulty of finding suitable men from the ryots' classes for the work necessitates a somewhat higher pay being paid to the Foresters in this District. A list of the forests assigned to each Forester should be submitted.

4. The establishments provided for the two timber depôts at Shimoga and Siralkoppa seem costly, but they are sanctioned experimentally in order to judge at the end of the year how far the depôts prove remunerative.

5. A pay of Rs. 6 is provided for the Watchers instead of Rs. 5. This is perhaps owing to the difficulty of finding good men in the District on the lower rate of pay. But the Sub-Assistant Conservator should clearly lay down the length of the boundary line allotted to each Watcher to clear and protect from fire and should submit to this Office a detailed memo on the subject. He should further submit a full report on the working of these arrangements at the end of the year showing the results in each depôt and in each Forester's charge.

6. Ranger Srinivasa Rao, who has been temporarily suspended from office, will be employed as Daroga for the Sorab Sandal Koti on Rs. 35 per mensem without forfeiting his claims to past service. His conduct and efficiency should be reported upon at the end of the year.

7. The rate of Rs. 70 pay with Rs. 15 horse allowance provided for Ranger Gundappa is approved on the understanding that he will have a distinct responsible work assigned to him, such as the forest supervision of the four Malnad Taluks of Nagar, Ságar, Sorab and Shikarpur. They are too distant for frequent inspection by the Sub-Assistant Conservator himself.

8. The establishments sanctioned as above amount to Rs. 872 per month or Rs. 10,464 per annum.

9. It seems undesirable for the present at least to take away the forests of the Tarikere and Lakvalli Taluks which comprise the important State-forests of Lakvalli and which also supply sandal to the depôts at Shimoga and Tirthahalli from the charge of the Sub-Assistant Conservator at Shimoga. Any references regarding them will be made by the Sub-Assistant Conservator to the Deputy Commissioner of Kadur, though it will not be necessary to show the revenue from these forests separately to the credit of the Kadur District. For the immediate charge of the important Lakvalli State-forests a Ranger on Rs. 40 pay with Rs. 15 horse allowance may be provided and to this Office Abdul Rahiman for whom there is no place in the Shimoga Forest Establishment may be appointed and the Sub-Assistant Conservator should submit a nominal statement of the remaining Forest Establishment proposed to be employed in the above mentioned taluks of the Kadur District. The sandal collected in the Lakvalli Taluk may be sent to the depôt at Tirthahalli and the Amildar of Koppa may also be directed to send the sandal collected in those portions of his taluk which are situated towards Tirthahalli to this depôt.

10. The Sub-Assistant Conservator will be expected to give his close and constant attention to the State-forests of Lakvalli, Sakrebail and Shankargudda and to the sandal kotis at Shimoga, Anantapur and Tirthahalli.

11. For the forest and sandal operations in the remaining taluks of the Kadur District, which are to be supervised by the Deputy Commissioner directly, the establishments proposed and now sanctioned are as follows:—

		Rs.
1	Forest Ranger on	40
2	Peons at 6 Rs. each	12
2	Foresters at 7 Rs. each	14
4	Watchers at 5 Rs. each	20
1	Depôt Mutsaddi	12
1	Peon	6
	Sandal Koti.
1	Daroga	35
2	Peons at Rs. 6 each	12
	Rs. 151 per month or Rs. 1,812 per annum.

12. Where no separate Forest Officials are employed it is to be distinctly understood that the Amildars and their establishments are responsible for the conservancy of the jungles and trees situated on Government lands in their taluks.

13. It is presumed that under these arrangements the temporary sandal patrol establishments entertained in the Shimoga District will be wholly dispensed with.

14. No mention is made as to whether any establishments are entertained for the felling of sandal or how it is otherwise arranged. The Foresters employed in the several taluks should collect the sandal and where there are no Foresters the Amildars should arrange for the collection through the Shekdars and village officers. A petition received from Channagiri Rao is forwarded to the Deputy Commissioner for report. If his claims are well founded early measures should be taken for providing him with an appointment equal to or somewhat less than his former pay.

No.	Subject and Order.	Date of Order.	Date of previous Orders.
1	The Survey Superintendent was informed that the court room formerly occupied by the 2nd Judge of the late Small Cause Court was available for the survey records.	1st May 1882.
2	The Deputy Commissioners of Districts and the Inam Superintendent were informed that detailed reports should invariably be submitted on petitions upon which reports may be called for, together with the proceedings relating thereto.	2nd do
3	In reply, the Deputy Commissioner of the Hassan District was requested to take the earliest opportunity of re-appointing Surappa, late Sheristadar of the Nagamangala Taluk, to a Taluk Sheristadarship.	Do do	8th Sept. 1881, Part II, G.
4	In reply, the Deputy Commissioner of the Hassan District was informed that the alienation of temple services though not claimable as a right, may be allowed in favor of qualified persons when the Deputy Commissioner sees no objection on public grounds and when no rights of other parties interested are affected, and he was requested to dispose of the case of the office of Vottaddika attached to the temple at Melkote in the Attikuppa Taluk accordingly.	Do do
5	The Superintendent of the Government Press was requested to print 300 copies both in English and Canarese of the Rules for the arrest and prevention of the spread of cholera published as a miscellaneous paper in the Supplement to the Mysore Gazette, dated 11th June 1870 and forward the same to this Office as early as possible.	Do do
6	In forwarding certain correspondence, the Surgeon to the Mysore Government was requested to state whether a record of marriages in the mortuary returns was considered necessary.	3rd do
7	In reply, the Deputy Commissioner of the Mysore District was informed that the Dewan did not wish to decide the question of constructing Savars' stables at Heggaddevankote before personally visiting the locality, and that meanwhile no buildings of a permanent character should be constructed.	Do do
8	In reply, the Assistant to the Resident was requested to state whether the present arrangement of sharing the cost of the record establishment referred to by him may not continue till the record establishment to be retained by his office is finally sanctioned, when arrangements would be made for taking over the remainder by this Office, and he was informed that only a small portion of the existing establishment was likely to be required by the Durbar.	Do do

Letter No. 691 of the 16th March 1882 from the Deputy Commissioner, Tumkúr District, reportin on the complaint of Karigiriyachar and other inamdars of Tumkúr.

No. 1890-8—46, DATED BANGALORE, 10TH JUNE 1882.

ORDER THEREON.—The assessing of excesses in inams which have been long i he enjoyment of the inamdars, though strictly legal, is a measure leading to discon ent and not unfrequently attended with hardship to individuals. In carrying it int ffect therefore, every consideration should be shown to the inamdars concerned, an where they propose to relinquish the excess, every facility should be afforded fo omplying with their request. The limit of Rs. 10, above which alone such relinquish ients are allowed, is too high as regards the smaller inamdars and must often necessi ate the surrender of their inams owing to their inability to pay the assessmen harged on the excess. The Survey Superintendent is therefore requested to arrang or accepting the relinquishments and for separating the excesses into separate Sarka elds if the inamdars so desire within a fixed time, except in cases where the assess ient charged on the excess is very small, say 1 or 2 Rs.

2. In cases where the inamdars by a written application apply for the relin uishment of the excesses, the Deputy Commissioner should hold in abeyance the col ction of the assessment on the excess till their application is given effect to.

Proceedings of the Dewan to His Highness the Maha Raja of Mysore, (Forests),—dated 23rd June 1882.

EAD—

Letter from the Deputy Commissioner of Shimoga No. 225—160 of the 10th June 1882, forwarding for orders correspondence regarding a complaint by certain ryots of the Ságar Taluk that the Public Works Department subordinates cut trees without license in Soppinbettas.

No. 2200-8—53, DATED BANGALORE, 23RD JUNE 1882.

ORDER THEREON —The proceedings of the officers of the Public Works Department in cutting a large number of trees on the Soppinbetta land assigned to a ryot ere quite unauthorized, and should not again be permitted. The Soppinbetta tenure oes not convey any right to the holder to cut the trees himself, but this circumstance annot justify the officials of the Public Works Department interfering with such lands eld in private enjoyment though of a qualified character. Indeed it is necessary to ay down distinctly that the officers of the Public Works Department should not, except n lands situated on the margins of roads which are by authority made over to them, r in cases of extreme urgency, cut down trees without reference to the Revenue or orest officers who have the management of them. These officers will be expected o give prompt attention to any such requisitions from the Public Works Department, nd to meet their demands readily, though there is no reason why the timber should e supplied free of any charges which are usually leviable from the general public. Any such indirect advantages are apt to lead to abuse, and it is best that Public Works should be debited with all their proper charges.

REVENUE.

Proceedings of the Dewan to His Highness the Maha Raja of Mysore, (Revenue),—dated 10th July 1882.

READ—

Letter No. 367—151 of the 22nd June 1882 from the Deputy Commissioner of Kolar.

No. 2573-80—61, DATED BANGALORE, 10TH JULY 1882.

ORDER.—It is certainly undesirable that a long standing industry such as the manufacture of iron sugar boilers should cease ; but where the industry has stopped from want of firewood, nothing can be done to help the matter. No general rules on the subject can be of use. The tax on the forges could be made as light as possible, but it is necessary to place a tax on and otherwise regulate the cutting of wood for making charcoal in order to check a wasteful destruction of the forests. The Deputy Commissioner should report where the forges were formerly in existence and are now proposed to be revived, what forests are available for firewood in the neighbourhood and under what regulations and rates he proposes to make them available for the iron forges.

2. It is observed that the sums marginally noted have been realized in the several Districts from the manufacture of iron. The Deputy Commissioners concerned are requested to submit a list of the villages where the forges are established and the arrangements existing in regard to the supply of firewood for them, the descriptions of wood felled and used by them and in what quantities for each forge.

Proceedings of the Dewan to His Highness the Maha Raja of Mysore, (Revenue),—dated 14th July 1882.

READ—

Proceedings No. 1890-46 of the 10th June 1882.

From the Superintendent, Mysore Revenue Survey, To the Secretary to the Dewan of Mysore, No. 391, dated Kadaba, 20th June 1882.

I have the honor with reference to the Proceedings of the Dewan's order No. 1890-8—46 of the 10th instant, on the subject of assessing excesses in inams, to offer a few remarks on the necessity of the limit, within which separation of the excess from the authorized extent in a survey number will not be permitted, being definitely fixed. In the order under reference at para 1 that limit is fixed at 1 or 2 Rs. On this point I would make the following suggestions.

2. I am most strongly in favor of the policy of restricting the inams in the Province as much as is consistent with justice, and of allocating them as free as possible from all complications. It is a clear gain to Government whenever the excess in a survey number is relinquished and separated. The only possible objection to separating the excess in every instance is the inconvenience and cost of so much work having to be carried out by the Survey Department. I think Rs. 10, as a general rule, too high, but fortunately so high a rate of excess is not often approached in the Maidan Taluks, and in the Malnad Taluks, where it is, the inclination of the wargdars, owing to the different circumstances which regulate cultivation there, is to keep the excess in their inams For instance, in the Kavaledurga Taluk, out of 81 cases in which the assessment of the excess in a survey number was over Rs. 10, in no less than 67 instances the inamdars elected to retain the excess as "Kasar". In the other Malnad Taluks in about half the instances the inamdars elected to retain the excess. In the Plain Taluks, on the contrary, so far as we have yet dealt with the question, the inamdars have invariably elected to relinquish the excess where they were allowed to. These facts point to the advisability of fixing different limits for the Malnad and Maidan respectively.

3. The only objection to relinquishment and separation in every case, as I have already stated, is the cost and inconvenience to survey operations. What this is likely to be may be in some degree estimated from the following analysis of the Tumkúr Taluk.

Excess over authorized extent.						Number of Cases.
Under..	Rupees	1	..	..	..	372
"	"	2	..	..	..	90
"	"	3	..	..	..	63
"	"	4	..	..	..	35
"	"	5	.	..	..	26
"	"	6	..	..	.	26
"	"	7	..	..	..	12

"	"	9	..	..	..	3
"	"	10	..	.	..	3
Over	"	10	..	..	..	53
					Total Acres....	691

There is a very great deal of work of this nature to be carried out in the Province and it is a matter of great importance to fix as nearly as possible a limit for separable excess which shall not entail hardship on the inamdar nor yet unreasonable cost to Government. A limit of Rs. 2 would, in my opinion, give a great deal of work, without any commensurate advantage to Government or to the inamdar. I do not think Rs. 10 too high for the Malnad although it is so for the Maidan Taluks. I would submit for favorable consideration limits of Rs 10 and Rs. 5 respectively in the Malnad and Maidan Taluks. In the Malnad the inams run large and we have proof, as shown in para 2, that the gain in this operation of dealing with excesses has been more to the inamdar than to the Government, even at the 10 rupees limit.

4. The excesses in many instances are of a very serious character, some indeed almost incredible, so great is the extent now claimed compared with the original intention of the grant The inamdars pointed out the lands they claimed at the time of measurement and the village officers agreeing, the Measurer was bound to measure accordingly. It is needless to say that where the claim of the inamdar did not injuriously affect any other private individual, there was no reason why he should not get a great deal of land measured off as his inam. From the Dewan's order I gather that it is in the case of the smaller inamdars that apprehension of hardship is felt. To provide against this I would propose that where the excess in a survey number bears more assessment than the authorized extent of the whole inam, relinquishment and separation should be allowed even within the fixed limits of Rs. 10 and Rs. 5 as above proposed. This would render it impossible for any [illegible]

5. I would further propose that in no case of relinquishment and separation should the inamdar be permitted to select the part of the survey number to be retained. This proviso is in my opinion absolutely necessary to guard against abuse. It was the practice in the Bombay Presidency (see para 8 of Survey Commissioner's letter No. 1146 of the 12th October 1878, printed under Government of Mysore Order No. 937—R. 34, dated 30th April 1878.) and was attended by the best results. I have no hesitation in saying that if selection be permitted the applications will be double if not trebled in number. The Survey Superintendent should direct what part of the survey number is to be separated and he should do so fairly and impartially without trying to benefit either Government or the inamdar.

6. I would beg for an early order on this important question.

No. 2771-9—64, DATED BANGALORE, 14TH JULY 1882.

ORDER THEREON.—The limit proposed in the above, beyond which relinquishments of excesses in inam lands are to be permitted, might answer if it were supplemented by a further provision that relinquishment should also be allowed where the excess is more than one-half of the authorized value of the inam. His Highness' Government however consider that such arrangements would be unnecessarily complicated, and that as regards the Maidan Taluks, it would, on the whole, be simpler to allow excesses in inams to be relinquished where their value exceeds 2 rupees, provided that the application for the same is made within a period of six months after the settlement of the excess shall have been notified to the inamdars concerned, and that the inamdars undertake to erect the necessary boundary marks. The above low limit is considered necessary having regard to the generally small value of the inams in these taluks.

2. His Highness' Government is also of opinion that, except in cases where encroachment by the inamdars on Government land can be clearly proved and the Government land can be distinguished, the inamdars should be allowed to choose the portion of the land to be relinquished by them, subject to the condition that the portion relinquished should form a compact block easily separable from the rest. This might doubtless prove an encouragement to the inamdars relinquishing the excess in a greater number of cases than would be the case if the Survey officers were to choose the portion to be relinquished, but considering that the whole of the lands has been in the enjoyment of the inamdars as inam and that no recent encroachment has been proved, it seems but fair that the inamdars should be allowed to choose the portion which they would retain as inam.

3. The limit of 10 rupees may continue for the Malnad Taluks.

Letter No. 452—197 of the 10th July 1882 from the Deputy Commissioner of the Kolar District.

No. 2847-55—68, DATED BANGALORE, 17th JULY 1882.

ORDER THEREON.—The Deputy Commissioner's proposal that the kandayam lands held by village servants should be exempt from the payment of mirási equally with their service inams would work most unequally according to the extent of lands owned, and would be liable to abuse, and there seems no occasion for such consideration.

Petition dated 21st February 1882 from Sitaramaiya of Guttal praying for remission of assessment on his lands under Tagahalli and Guttal tanks, Mandya Taluk, which were not cultivated owing to insufficiency of water in tanks.

Letter No. 161, dated 7th July 1882, from the Deputy Commissioner of Mysore reporting on the above petition.

No. 2899-2906—71, DATED BANGALORE, 18TH JULY 1882.

ORDER THEREON.—The circumstances of the case referred to in the above, it will be seen, were expressly contemplated in para 8 of the Proceedings No. 4461—123, dated 29th August 1881. Though there was no want of water, the water not having been used and the lands having lain waste owing to petitioner's inability to cultivate or other causes, which it is needless to enquire into, the petitioner is entitled to a remission of half assessment on lands so lying waste, though the indulgence is not to be continued in the year following. The half remission should therefore be allowed for 1881-82.

2. With regard to the remaining arrears, a year's extended time for pyment may be allowed only on the condition of the petitioner paying up a moiety at once.

3. The petitioner seems from the report to be one of that type of respectable non-cultivating land-holders who own more or less extensive lands, often in several villages, without the means of cultivating them and who are generally in an indebted condition, but whom the Government does not wish to sell up abruptly and turn adrift without some effort to improve them. The Amildars can do a great deal in the matter if they were to explain to the ryots so circumstanced the advantage of selling portions of their lands and keeping only the remainder which they are able to cultivate, and attending to its cultivation themselves. If they do not benefit by the advice, they must of course be sold up for the arrears due.

Letter No. 172 of the 6th July 1882, from the Deputy Commissioner of Tumkúr, reporting on the petition of Kálá of Kadaba, complaining that field No. 485 under the Kadaba tank, applied for by him, was not granted to him, but was put up to sale

No. 2972-9—75, DATED BANGALORE, 20TH JULY 1882.

ORDER THEREON.—When more than one application are made for a land, the system of selling the same by auction to the highest bidder is proper, and has been properly adopted in the present case. It is however observed that the sale has been conducted at three different times from June to December 1881, when the cultivation season had nearly passed away. This could not have been necessary if the sale was conducted after due notice to all parties and before responsible officials. The petition of the 1st applicant Kálá is, under the circumstances, rejected.

Proceedings of the Dewan to His Highness the Maha Raja of Mysore, (Forests),—dated 8th July 1882.

READ—

Letter No. 141 of the 23rd June 1882 from the Assistant Conservator of Forests, Nagar Division, submitting proposals for revising the Forest Establishments in the Kadur District.

No. 2558-60—41, DATED BANGALORE, 8TH JULY 1882.

ORDER THEREON.—The proposed increase of Rs. 10 to the pay of the Head Clerk of the Assistant Conservator's Office seems uncalled for and cannot be sanctioned. The remaining establishments proposed for the Lakvalli and Ubrani State-forests, as noted in the margin, are provisionally sanctioned. They appear to be large compared with the establishments entertained for equally large forests elsewhere. The necessity of two Foresters besides a Ranger and two Head Watchers for the Lakvalli Forest is not apparent. The manner in which these Foresters and Head Watchers are proposed to be employed should be explained. The Ranger ought to suffice, the Head Watchers having the immediate superintendence of the Watchers. If the two Foresters are dispensed with, the two Watchers attached to them will not also be required. The Watchers should clear the demarcation lines and do all other work within the limits allotted to them.

GENERAL.

Proceedings of the Dewan to His Highness the Maha Raja of Mysore, (General),—dated 11th July 1882.

READ—

Letter No. 274—187 of the 21st June last from the Deputy Commissioner of Shimoga.

No. 2655-6—112, DATED BANGALORE, 11TH JULY 1882.

ORDER.—The additional Forester and Watcher considered necessary for the Honnali Taluk are sanctioned, but the two Watchers employed in the Assistant Conservator's and the Ranger's Offices to do clerical work are objectionable as sufficient office establishment has been provided. They should therefore be reduced.

2. The insufficiency of accommodation for sandal at Anantapur is not clear, as the Siledar Lines and other public buildings at the station which were made over to the Forest Department ought to provide sufficient accommodation for the sandal. A private building may, for the present, be rented at Sorab as proposed at a small cost. The storing of sandal at Honnali should be discontinued as early as practicable.

3. It is observed that, though the length of demarcation line allotted for clearing and maintenance to each Watcher is smaller than in Bangalore, the Watchers are expected in the rainy season to clear the trees of creepers and overhanging bamboos, plant seeds in the forests and do all other work in the forests.

4. The Assistant Conservator should, at the end of the year, submit a detailed report on the work done in the several forests, showing clearly how and with what results the establishments have been employed.

5. With regard to list A of the forests apportioned to each of the Foresters, it should be explained whether they are strictly reserved and whether the timber in them is felled by Government agency or on licenses by private individuals.

R. VIJAYINDRA RAO,
Secretary.

To—The Deputy Commissioner, Shimoga.

READ—

Letter No. 258—100 of the 4th June 1882 from the Deputy Commissioner of Kolar.

No. 2679-87—62, DATED BANGALORE, 11TH JULY 1882.

ORDER THEREON.—The importance of checking the spread of prickly-pear cannot be overestimated, but any penal provisions on the subject will be of doubtful propriety. More may be effected in this matter through the influence of District and Taluk Officials in the same manner as is reported to have been successfully carried out in the town of Kolar. On private building sites and on occupied lands, the ryots have every ground to seek the extirpation of this pest, which once neglected soon spreads over the whole ground, and the Taluk Officials can awaken them to the importance of their taking early steps in the matter. Very often ignorance of the best means of extirpating the shrub deter the ryots from taking any steps in t . matter. As remarked by the Deputy Commissioner, when the shrub is cut down and buried, it grows again rapidly. It ought to be rooted out and heaped and turned up several times to dry, and eventually burnt to prevent its taking root again. For the clearing of the shrub on waste lands where it is injurious, small money grants can be made to the villagers to remove and extirpate it completely. The Deputy Commissioners of the several Districts should annually report what progress is made in the matter during the year.

2. The Superintendent of the Lal-Bagh may be able to suggest the best means of extirpating prickly-pear.

R. VIJAYINDRA RAO,
Secretary.

To—The Deputy Commissioners of all Districts.
, Superintendent of the Lal-Bagh.

No. 2846—67, DATED BANGALORE, 17TH JULY 1882.

ORDER.—The daily reports of the fall of rain now submitted from the taluks direct are no longer called for. It would be useful, however, if the Deputy Commissioners could obtain from the taluks and forward a statement of the fall of rain from the 1st to the 10th, from the 11th to the 20th and from the 21st to the end, of each month, as early as practicable after the termination of each period. This does not dispense with the separate monthly rain-fall returns now sent. Any unusual fall of rain as all other unusual and important events should continue to be reported promptly by the Amildars direct to this Office.

R. VIJAYINDRA RAO,
Secretary.

To—All Deputy Commissioners.

No. 2890-8—70, DATED BANGALORE, 18TH JULY 1882.

ORDER.—As most of the Amildars are acquainted with English and will be better able to construe the intentions of Government and act up to them if copies of general instructions issued by the Government were furnished to them instead of their purport being more or less imperfectly communicated to them from the District Office, the Dewan directs that copies of printed Proceedings and copies of the monthly volumes of the Proceedings be furnished to all the Taluk Cutcherries direct from the Printing Office. This does not dispense with the necessity of any separate instructions which Deputy Commissioners may require to issue to the Amildars to give effect to any orders conveyed in such printed Proceedings.

Secretary.

To—The Superintendent, Government Press.
All Deputy Commissioners.

EDUCATIONAL.

Proceedings of the Dewan to His Highness the Maha Raja of Mysore, (Educational),—dated 17th July 1882.

D—

Letter No. 335—231 of the 5th July 1882 from the Deputy Commissioner of Shimoga.

No. 2856-64—69, DATED BANGALORE, 17TH JULY 1882.

ORDER THEREON.—The Government will be prepared to sanction a moiety of the , of the Girls' School proposed to be established at Ságar, but the Dewan does not sider it proper that the remaining moiety should be borne by the Municipal Funds ch are contributed by all classes of the population who are not expected to benefit the school. Municipalities may undertake to encourage any such useful institu- s by a grant, but it is essential, before any such measures are taken, that the ple directly interested or other private men should come forward to bear a portion he cost, whether in the shape of fees or subscriptions. The Government, in the of Girls' Schools, being prepared to bear half the cost, there is no occasion for any tribution from the Municipal Funds. The remaining moiety must be met by pri- subscriptions, if not by fees.

REVENUE.

Proceedings of the Dewan to His Highness the Maha Raja of Mysore, (Revenue),—dated 18th August 1882.

ORDER No. 3443-51—90, DATED BANGALORE, 10TH AUGUST 1882.

2. Deputy Commissioners are requested to issue orders to Amildars to abstain om resorting to the sale of houses for arrears of revenue, except in extreme cases, nd when their sale is resorted to, it should not be confirmed unless it is apparent nat fairly adequate prices have been realized.

R. VIJAYINDRA RAO,

To—The Deputy Commissioners of Districts.

No. 3674-81—91, DATED BANGALORE, 18TH AUGUST 1882.

2. It is of the greatest importance that in the exercise of the extraordinary powers ested in Revenue authorities for the recovery of arrears by sale, any needless risk o private property should be carefully guarded against. The attachment should ot be more than sufficient for the recovery of the arrears due. Extensive and aluable lands should not be attached for small amounts of arrears, if other proerty or means of recovering the arrears were available. All notices and other ormalities prescribed by the rules should be strictly observed. The notice of sale hould be given due publicity and should be specially made known to the parties nterested, and the date of the sale should be so fixed as to allow the prescribed inerval of time, and the sale should be held strictly on the date fixed and on the spot, are being taken to secure the attendance of all likely bidders to whom it should e made known that lands sold for arrears due on them convey to the purchasers he full right to the same free of any claims of mortgage or other encumbrances. f the defaulter or others interested offer to pay up the arrears before the sale, very facility should be afforded to them for doing so and getting the property eleased. If the price offered is unduly low, the same should be specially brought o the notice of the confirming authority to whom a report of the sale should be nade without delay as the sale can only have effect after confirmation. Any deect in these proceedings necessarily vitiates the sale and as cancellation of pubc sales formally held must destroy the confidence of the people in such sales, he officials whose irregular proceedings necessitate such cancellation should be isited with severe punishment.

R. VIJAYINDRA RAO,
Secretary.

To—The Deputy Commissioners of Districts.

Proceedings of the Dewan to His Highness the Maha Raja of Mysore, (Revenue),—dated 24th August 1882.

READ—

Reports from the Deputy Commissioners of Districts on the prices of salt both before and after the reduction of salt duty by the Government of India.

No. 3849—99, DATED BANGALORE, 24TH AUGUST 1882.

ORDER THEREON.—The statements received from the Districts show that the prices of salt have fallen in the three Districts of Bangalore, Kolar and Tumkúr since the reduction of duty made to the extent of 20 per cent, though the prices have not fallen to the same extent. In the remaining Districts and especially in Mysore and Hassan which get their salt from the Western Coast, no fall in the price is shown in most of the taluks. This is probably due to the fact that where salt has to be carried to great distances, the importers being few, they manage to keep a sort of monopoly of the trade and appropriate to themselves the entire benefit of the reduction. The matter requires the investigation of the Deputy Commissioners who should enter any noteworthy facts in their monthly price-current lists in which the prices of salt should be carefully and accurately entered.

R. VIJAYINDRA RAO,
Secretary.

To—The Deputy Commissioners of Districts.

Letters Nos. 365 and 366 of the 10th August 1882, from the Deputy Commissioner of Bangalore forwarding the vernacular Proceedings in connection with the unauthorized alienation of inam lands attached to the Anjaneya temples at Madabalu in the Magadi Taluk and at Tyamagondal in the Nelamangala Taluk and requesting orders to adhere to the rules laid down in the Notification of 1877 on the subject.

No. 3857-65—100, DATED BANGALORE, 24TH AUGUST 1882.

ORDER THEREON.—The orders conveyed in Proceedings No. 7704-12—234 of the 5th January last were not intended to supersede the provision made in the Notification of the 17th November 1877, for the resumption and restoration to the institutions concerned of service inam lands alienated subsequent to 31st January 1853, but directed that indiscriminate effect should not be given to the above in cases in which the service inam-holders grossly abused their trust by alienating the inams and in which it may sometimes be desirable not to intercede on behalf of the inamdars but to bring the alienated inam lands under full assessment as a penalty on the alienor.

2. In the two cases referred to in the above, in which the inam lands of the Anjaneya temples in the villages of Tyamagondal in the Nelamangala Taluk and Madabalu in the Magadi Taluk have been alienated, it may not be desirable to deprive the temples of the inams on account of the fault of the temple servants who alienated them. But it is necessary that the families of the alienors should not get back the inams without some penalty. They should be called upon to pay to the mortgagees one-half of the mortgage money, failing which others should be appointed to the mirási offices in the temples and the inams resumed and restored to them. If the mortgagees are qualified to do the work, they may be appointed to the offices in preference to strangers as some compensation for the loss of their money.

R. VIJAYINDRA RAO,
Secretary.

Letter No. 403—277 of the 24th July 1882 from the Deputy Commissioner of Shimoga.

No. 3833-47—98, DATED BANGALORE, 23RD AUGUST 1882.

ORDER.—The grant of leave to Forest subordinates should be regulated by the same rules that are applicable to the District Revenue officials. The Assistant and Sub-Assistant Conservators of Forests can grant leave for periods not exceeding a month to their subordinates as used to be done by the Deputy Conservators, but the reports required to be made to the Conservator when leave is granted for more than 7 days or when any Forest subordinate is suspended or fined should now be made to the Deputy Commissioners of the respective Districts, and no Forest subordinates should be dismissed except with the sanction of the Deputy Commissioners. Fines however should as a general rule not be resorted to. Appointments and dismissals of Rangers and of officials above Rs. 30 pay should be reported to this Office through the Deputy Commissioners.

GENERAL.

Proceedings of the Dewan to His Highness the Maha Rajah of Mysore, (General),—dated 18th March 1882.

No. 9487—276, DATED BANGALORE, 18TH MARCH 1882.

ORDER.—The Dewan observes that numerous valuable publications which hav ɜen received and furnished from time to time to the Libraries of the Division an ıstrict Offices are generally shut up in the Libraries of those offices without any pul advantage These books should be readily available not only to all the publi rvants at the station, but also to respectable members of the non-official public un r proper rules for the books being returned without injury and within a reasonabl mted time

2 The Heads of the Offices concerned are therefore requested to have th ɔks placed under the charge of one of their Clerks in a part of their office readily ɜessible to the public who may be allowed to borrow them or refer to them in th ɔrary-room itself. The members of Literary Unions and other Public Associations the station may be allowed the use of the books.

R. VIJAYINDRA RAO,
Secretary.

—The Deputy Commissioners of Districts.

Proceedings of the Dewan to His Highness the Maha Raja of Mysore, (General),—dated 31st August 1882.

No. 4025—248, DATED BANGALORE, 31ST AUGUST 1882.

ORDER.—The Government of India in their order dated 14th December 1881 decided that the Native Uncovenanted Officers whose services had been from time to time obtained in Mysore from the British Service should, in the event of their desiring to retain their claim to their service under the British Government as regards their pensions, pay to that Government from the date of the Rendition the contribution on their salary prescribed by the Rules.

2. The Comptroller is requested on the application of the officers concerned to arrange for the collection from their salaries and payment to the British Government of the prescribed amount of contribution in each case commencing from the date of Rendition.

3. The contribution as regards pension, excluding leave allowances which will continue to be paid by the Local Government, will up to 10th June 1882 be Rs. 12½ *per cent on the monthly salary drawn by the officers subject to a maximum of Rs. 136 per month, and subsequent to 10th June 1882 it will be $\frac{3}{11}$th of the salary with a maximum of Rs. 100 per month.

*This is according to Resolution No. 1622, dated 10th June 1882, but the contribution of 12 per cent required by the Pension Code to secure a pension on 88 per cent of the salary would require to be raised to $13\frac{3}{11}$ percent on the salary to secure the pension on the full amount of the salary.

4. As the officers concerned entered the Mysore Service unconditionally and in their own interests sharing in the prospects and promotions afforded by that service, His Highness' Government does not consider itself called upon to reimburse them for the contribution which they undertake to pay in order to secure their claims to past service under the British Government: but having regard to the fact that such contribution relieves the Mysore State of the proportion of the pension payable by it for the years on account of which the contribution is made, His Highness' Government will not object to make good in such cases one-half of the amount of the contribution, which the Comptroller is authorized to pay from the revenues of the State levying from the officers concerned only the remaining half.

5. Where the eligible service of the officers under the British Government is short and they have yet to serve long in Mysore to entitle them to a pension, it may be felt as a hardship by the officers, and it will be equally inconvenient to the Government, to continue the contribution over such long periods. As some compensation in these cases to the officers desiring to relinquish the benefit of the British Service, the Mysore Government will undertake to allow one-half of any such eligible British Service to count as service rendered in the Mysore State up to a limit of 3 years.

6. These orders do not apply to Uncovenanted British officers entering the Mysore Service after the Rendition as their employment, if they are to retain their lien on the British Government for pension, can only be secured under special engagements with that Government, but they will be given effect to as regards all Uncovenanted officers who entered the Mysore Service before the Rendition, whether they are Natives or European British subjects, excepting only European British officers lent to Mysore under the orders of the Government of India and whose retention up to 30th September 1882 has been specially authorized.

R. VIJAYINDRA RAO,
Secretary.

To—The Comptroller.

Proceedings of the Dewan to His Highness the Maha Raja of Mysore, (General),—dated 31st August 1882.

ID—

Letter from the Deputy Commissioner, Tumkúr District, No. 263 of the 19th August 1882, reporting upon the petition of Puttanna of Lakkenahalli in the Tumkúr Taluk complaining against the orders of the Deputy Commissioner dispossessing him of the lands purchased by him at a Government auction.

No. 4017-24—105, DATED BANGALORE, 31ST AUGUST 1882.

ORDER THEREON.—The above case is an instance of the reckless manner in which tradictory orders are issued without proper enquiry, placing parties in possession of ls and afterwards dispossessing them in favor of others. It is hereafter to be unstood that when a person is once placed in possession of a land under the orders Deputy Commissioner, that officer is not competent without reference to higher hority to cancel his own order and eject the person in possession.

2. In the present case, as the petitioner who purchased the land at auction and placed in possession but was afterwards deprived of it, appears to have now again ained possession of the land, no further orders are necessary on the subject.

GENERAL.

Proceedings of the Dewan to His Highness the Maha Raja of Mysore, (General),—dated 25th September 1882.

READ—

Letter from the Deputy Commissioner of Shimoga, No. 543—377 of the 25th August 1882.

No. 4084-92—107, DATED BANGALORE, 2ND SEPTEMBER 1882.

ORDER THEREON.—The arrangements ordered in Proceedings No. 6558—201 of the 15th November 1881, for specifying in the licenses granted to ferry contractors the maximum number of passengers they are to carry in their boats at a time and for marking the number on a conspicuous part of the boat, may only be carried out in the case of the regular platform boats. In the case of basket boats where the number of passengers to be carried cannot be defined and indicated, the ferrymen should be enjoined in the licenses to carry always less than the full weight, and should be held responsible for not overloading the boats.

R. VIJAYINDRA RAO,
Secretary.

To—The Deputy Commissioner of Shimoga.
The Deputy Commissioners of other Districts.
Copy to the Secretary, Department Public Works, for information.

CAMP No. 2, DATED MYSORE, 25TH SEPTEMBER 1882.

ORDER.—With reference to the Dewan's Proceedings No. 4394-4401—120 of the 25th August 1881, the Deputy Commissioners are requested to arrange for the attendance of the representative ryots and merchants of their Districts at the approaching Annual Meeting which will be held immediately after the close of the Dasara.

2. The gentlemen who attended on the last occasion will, as a rule, be deputed; but in cases in which they are unable to come, others may be selected in their stead and their names reported. The Deputy Commissioners may also send additionally any few others whose deputation the people may consider to be for their interest.

3. The Deputy Commissioners of Hassan and Kadur are requested to communicate with the Planters' Association and ascertain whether any of their members are desirous of attending the Meeting.

4. The list of all the gentlemen who are to attend should as usual be sent beforehand at an early date.

R. VIJAYINDRA RAO,
Secretary.

To—The Deputy Commissioners of Districts.

PART I.

EDUCATIONAL.

Proceedings of the Dewan to His Highness the Maha Raja of Mysore, (Educational),—dated 25th September 1882.

READ—

Letter No. 1755 of the 5th September 1882 from the Director of Public Instruction.

No. 4520-9—118, DATED BANGALORE, 25TH SEPTEMBER 1882.

ORDER THEREON.—The rule to be observed, as pointed out by the Director, is that the fees levied in English classes in Taluk schools should cover at least one half of the cost of English instruction. The remaining half may, for the present, be borne in equal parts by the Municipality and by a Government grant, as diversion of Municipal Funds for these purposes should be restricted to the smallest limits possible. The instructions conveyed in Proceedings No. 3625—113, dated 18th August 1882, should be modified accordingly.
